

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 193

Overnight.

Caleb was wheeled out of the resuscitation room at 2am, and by morning, he had woken up.

All around, everyone from the Collins family was there, but there was no sign of that damned woman.

"Alina." murmuring this name softly, Caleb really wished to destroy the sky.

He was in this state, and she still didn't come to see him?

Or was it that even if he died, she wouldn't even collect his body?

What a cruel heart.

"Since he is out of danger, let's go back." Vanessa hadn't slept all night, she then said to Julia.

Julia nodded and looked at Caleb, "Caleb, you take a good rest, we'll go back first."

After saying that, she followed Vanessa's footsteps.

Not long after that, the Collins family were all gone.

When Tomas he saw the scene, he looked at Caleb apprehensively, "Actually, Madam was worried about you all last night."

Caleb couldn't help but laugh.

But what Tomas saw was true. Last night, Vanessa was really worried about Caleb, but naturally, these words were not very convincing now.

When he saw that scene last night, he thought that Caleb's relationship with his family would be better this time.

But they had left.

There was only one person left that Caleb didn't want to see, Chester.

Chester brought him some porridge and Caleb's face was dark.

Chester, "Have some, you can only eat light food now."

"Go away." Caleb was now so angry.

As long as he saw Chester, Caleb would think of the scene that happened between them at River Restaurant yesterday.

Chester, "She's not coming."

Caleb looked fiercely at Chester, anger all over his eyes.

Chester, "Unless you never care about anything about Emma again." Otherwise, Alina would never pay any attention to Caleb in her life.

These words were a reminder.

However, at this time, Caleb did not take it into his mind.

Whatever happened to Emma?

She didn't know anything at all?

"It seems that you will not change." Caleb got up, placed the bowl of porridge on the cabinet by the hospital bed, and said in a chilling tone.

At that moment, he was filled with coldness.

And in Caleb's eyes, there was darkness.

Chester paused as he walked to the door and gave a sideways glance, "Caleb, I am reminding you."

This reminder was understood by Caleb.

He doesn't need anyone to remind him.

Chester left, the Collins family also left. Tomas looked at the cold ward, feeling the coldness radiating from Caleb, his body was tightening.

Now, who can tell him what the hell is going on here?

What does it mean to Caleb that Alina is not here?

"Where was she last night?" After a long time, Caleb finally opened his mouth to ask.

When asking about Alina, Caleb's tone was cold.

How cruel she was.

The Collins family had been alerted to such a big matter, he did not believe that Alina had not received any news.

However, even when she was informed, she still managed to not come.

Tomas, "At Werland Villa."

"Chester was here all last night?"

"Yes."

"Heh." Although he had gotten a fairly satisfactory result, Caleb was still tense.

In his eyes, there was a thick flicker of danger, he vowed that he would kill Alina by a thousand cuts.

The Collins family has never been so frenzied because of a woman, so now for this scene, whose fault is it?

.....

Vanessa and Julia returned to Collins Castle.

The butler came over and Vanessa asked in a not-so-good tone, "Last night, what was the situation at Werland Villa?"

She also did not expect that Alina really did not go to the hospital.

Although there was so much dissatisfaction, she could understand. After all, Emma' was still over in Werland Villa right now.

The fact is that the matter of three years ago, these are the crux of Alina's heart, how can she go to the hospital at this time?

When she thought this, Vanessa's heart felt more comfortable.

Since Alina wanted to move on, she has to be determined.

But seeing Caleb's attitude towards Alina, Vanessa's face sank even deeper because of this.

It was not that easy for Alina to get it over.

The butler, "Lady Alina and Miss Bell have always been at Werland Villa."

"And..."

“And what?”

The butler looked at Vanessa and told Vanessa in full about what happened last night at Werland Villa.

And Vanessa originally had some uncomfortable feelings in her heart, but after hearing what happened at Werland Villa, she was relieved at this moment.

“Now it’s a day and night toss?”

“Yes.”

Last night, Emma probably didn’t sleep all night, right?

And at that juncture last night, no one dared to go up there, so Emma stayed in the water all night.

Vanessa, “That’s right.”

This was a way of letting Emma know that not only Alina, but all the people around Caleb, did not treat her well.

All these years, she thought she occupied an important place in Caleb’s heart, but unbeknownst to her, she was a joke.

“Yes.”

The butler nodded his head.

Vanessa’s face also became slightly ease.

She said to the butler, “Have the kitchen prepare some nutritious soup to send to the hospital.”

After all, Caleb was her son.

On the contrary, Vanessa actually loves Caleb very much, it’s just that she still hasn’t gotten over it after the incident three years ago.

Even Caleb’s mother also feels that back then, Caleb really did wrong.

So no matter what kind of hatred Alina had for him. She also felt that she deserved it, no matter how much she hated him.

Evidently, it was also because she was too disappointed in this son.

“Yes.”

The butler nodded, knowing what to do.

“Go down.”

“Yes.”

The butler went down.

When Vanessa and Julia were the only two left.

Julia said, “I’d better call Alina.”

“No need, she’s got the news.” At this point, Vanessa knew it by heart and was accepting at this point.

Hearing the words, Julia froze.
