

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 194

Alina knew it.

Yet all last night, Alina was sleeping over at Werland Villa, not even bothering to see Caleb.

Thinking about this, Julia couldn't help but draw a breath of cold air backwards.

Now, she really doesn't know what to say about Caleb, for he had hurt Alina's heart a lot.

Surprisingly, even after such a big thing happened, she was not willing to go to the hospital to take a look at him.

It can be seen that Alina is really disappointed with Caleb.

"But what Caleb did this time was really too unethical, Emma even stayed at Werland Villa."

What kind of scene is that Werland Villa now?

It was a good thing that the news was still tightly covered.

If not, it would be an uproar.

The more Julia thought about it, the more annoyed she became.

In the future, if she had a boyfriend like Caleb, she would cry a lot.

When she thought like this, Julia felt that she had no sense of expectation for marriage at all.

The blind dates that her mother had mentioned before, she no longer wanted to go on at all.

Summing up one thing from the Caleb, it is better stay away from men.

"Caleb is too much." But Emma now living on the Werland Villa did not get any advantage.

If Alina takes a loss, Vanessa would have lost her temper long ago.

Because of the knowledge of the Werland Villa, Vanessa can also sit here.

This time, she hopes that Alina will show her skills and give Caleb a headache.

In this way, he will know what kind of attitude he should have towards women.

Even if he doesn't love her, he should show respect.

But in that incident three years ago, or this incident in Werland Villa, in Vanessa's opinion, Caleb had not even given Alina the minimum respect, and this was the most terrible thing.

"Alina is right not to go see him this time." At this moment, Julia was completely on Alina's side.

The people around him couldn't even stand with what Caleb had done to Alina, not to mention Alina, therefore it was also deserved that Alina treated him that way.

.....

Emma stayed in the wet bed for a night, now she finally felt better in her dry clothes.

At the breakfast table, no matter how scared she was of Alina's actions before, she couldn't help but ask at this moment, "What exactly do you want?"

More than fear now, it was anger.

She could see, at this point, that Alina would not let her off easily.

Before there was no way to bother with her

This time Caleb got the two of them under one roof, which gave Alina such an opportunity to torment her.

Three days.

In the three days, Emma felt like she was really going crazy.

It was no matter if she hadn't eaten well for the past few days, the key was that she hadn't slept well even from last night to now, and that was the most horrible thing.

If this went on, she would really go crazy, but actually was on the verge of collapse now.

Alina was originally having porridge.

At this moment, when she heard this from Emma, she raised her eyebrows.

"Alina, don't you think this is really mean of you?" Emma was really going to be unable to stand it anymore.

Just the thought of being with Alina and having to go on like this forever, she could not stand it.

Now, she was really going crazy.

Alina, "That's still better than you being ungrateful and unrighteous."

Alina's tone was calm.

And it was also such calmness that made people constantly squirm inside.

She was, at the moment, looking at her dangerously like that, as if she wanted to cut her to death by a thousand cuts.

"Lois."

"Yes, Lady Alina."

"Haven't I tell you that unrelated people can't be at the table?" Alina's tone was light.

Lois froze for a moment, it was over. She had also forgotten about this and hurriedly asked the maids on the side to come over and move Emma out of the way.

And Emma felt humiliating.

"Alina, you will go to hell." Finally, under Alina's torture like this, Emma finally went mad.

All her fears were also replaced by anger.

Now, it was really too torturous, all these sorts of things for her were almost like rubbing salt into her heart.

Over and over again, she had just trampled her dignity, ruthlessly, under her feet.

She is too ruthless.

"Alina, you will go to hell! Ah!" Emma shouted in anger.

Eventually.

She was moved to the backyard.

On that stone table, the cold wind was bitterly cold.

The food would immediately get cold as soon as it was brought out, how dare Alina let her eat in a place like that!

"Miss Bell, you'd better watch yourself, Lady Alina is considered kind-hearted."

"....."

“If this was anyone else, they would have been kicked out long ago.”

“Then let her kick me out.” Emma shouted angrily.

Now that Alina was using such tactics against her, it might as well be straightforward to kick her out.

Now, she was really going crazy.

The maids left.

Emma was left in the cold wind, “Alina.”

She uttered almost gnashing her teeth, wishing to chew Alina up, as if ever since Nova’s visit that night.

It seems that ever since Nova came that night, Alina’s emotions have not been under control, who the hell is it? Who the hell brought Nova here?

Both her hands fists clenched.

Her body was trembling with rage.

In the dining room.

Without Emma, Alina here was considered to be a bit more unhurried.

“Lady Alina, try this.” Lois looked after Alina very respectfully.

As Alina ate, she said, “Do you think I am cruel, Lois?”

“Lady Alina.”

Lois’s hand trembled.

How could she?

If she thought Alina was cruel, she would have reported everything about Emma to Caleb long ago.

Emma looked pitiful, but who knows what kind of vicious heart is hidden under that pitiful face?

Alina, “Once, I was very good to her.”

At those words, Lois shuddered.

Up to now, she naturally knew something about the connection between Alina and Emma, so, how could one say that Alina was ruthless?
