

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 202

"Tomas."

"Yes, sir."

"Take her up first."

Tomas nodded, "Yes."

When he saw Emma in this state, he also knew that the conflict that had started in these two days on Werland Villa would not be too small.

Although he knew that it would never be a good thing for these two to get together, he did not expect this conflict to be so big.

At the thought of this, Tomas felt a headache, especially after feeling the danger in the atmosphere, he knew that Alina would have a hard time.

This is the most disturbing part. If she had wanted to be peaceful, she wouldn't have had such a big conflict with Emma.

"Caleb, let me go." The moment Tomas's hand touched Emma's wheelchair, she burst into tears.

Hearing this, Tomas was stunned and looked at Caleb with apprehension.

After touching the coldness in his eyes, Tomas only felt how frightening and terrifying this scene was now.

Emma, "I don't want to be here, to be humiliated again."

"Even if I am made to go to North Eglinton by Chester, it doesn't matter to me, since this is the consequence I have to bear, then please let me suffer."

At this moment, Emma's tone was so pitiful.

Although she didn't say what exactly had happened here, it was also audible that she had suffered quite a lot of humiliations during the few days she was here.

And these humiliations were all given by Alina.

Caleb looked bitterly at Alina.

Especially when he saw these carelessness on Alina's face, the anger in his heart became more and more suppressed.

The key was, now Alina said nothing, which made the anger his heart surge up.

“Do you have anything to say?” Caleb finally spoke.

Alina finally looked at him.

With just one glance, coldness in her eyes was really outrageous.

Caleb was furious, while Alina was cold and heartless.

It was also at this moment when Caleb saw Alina that he knew that no matter how long he was in the hospital, she would not go to see him.

Even as she had said on the phone, even if he died, she would not be the one to collect his body.

“Tomas.”

“Yes.”

“Take her up.”

Emma, “I’m not going up, please.”

“Don’t let me go up, let me go.” Emma looked at Caleb in pain, looking greatly aggrieved.

And at this moment, the more pitiful Emma acted, the colder Alina became. It also let Caleb know even more what exactly did Alina do.

What was the shock of such a scene?

If people didn’t know what was going on, they would probably be on Emma’s side even if everyone in Werland Villa stood.

Unfortunately, not now.

Although it was true that she had been miserable here for the past few days.

But this misery was also something she deserved, and had nothing to do with anyone else.

“Let me go, okay?” Emma choked up and looked at Caleb.

She burst in to tears that many men, since ancient times, could not handle this.

Emma was pitiful and aggrieved.

Alina snorted coldly, "She is begging you to let her go, don't you understand?"

When Alina said these words, it was undoubtedly the fuse that ignited Caleb suppressed anger.

Caleb looked at Alina grimly.

"As I said, she's only here for a while, she won't affect you."

"I get sick to my stomach when I see her, you said it won't affect me?" As soon as the man's words left his mouth, Alina cursed back sharply.

The anger in Caleb's eyes was obvious.

"Boom." The phone in his hand finally smashed hard on the ground, and at this moment, many people's hearts were in their throats because of Caleb's action.

The air was still.

However, a dangerous aura, in which constantly shuttles, made people's already tight heart.

Alina looked at Caleb, saying, "Do you still want me to look at her with a happy smile?"

Everyone present was worried.

Lois had been giving Alina a wink, and even if her eyes were almost twitching, yet Alina didn't see anything.

Those who had been by Caleb for so many years naturally still knew a few things, the Caleb at this time was completely untouchable.

Alina sneered, "Caleb, do you think too highly of yourself? What makes you think I should be pleasant to this wild woman?"

With these words, the face of Emma also turned white as a result.

'Wild woman', so this is how all the people, who were by Caleb during these years, saw her as?

As long as there was Alina present, then she was a wild woman in the hearts of all the people.

When she thought this, her face turned even whiter because of it.

Her heart was already suffocating.

Now it was even more stuffy and painful.

“Caleb.” At this moment, when calling out the man’s name, her tone of voice carried trembles.

Caleb looked at Alina sharply.

“You want to forcefully remarry me, whether it’s you, or this wild woman, there is a price to pay, isn’t there?”

Yes.

She didn’t honestly believe that she was the mistress of the place.

And her actions over the past few days were merely revenge against them alone.

“You did this for Chester?” For a long time, Caleb finally still spoke, and in that tone was all hidden patience.

Alina, “Don’t drag Chester into everything, you don’t deserve it.”

“Do you still think of him as brother?”

If he was really just a big brother, then how could he have acted like that in the restaurant?

Alina laughed coldly, “We are at least that relationship on the surface now, so compared to you, I have bottom line.”

So, she admitted the relationship between her and Chester?

Caleb was already angry, now he got pissed of by Alina.
