

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 205

"I don't think you're on good terms with her. Nor do I think that you are caring for her by saying that now." Caleb's tone was heavy.

The kind of gloomy that made Emma's body freeze.

So it was really as Tomas said, they were just arguing, and asking one more question, she was considered minding others' business?

As she thought this, Emma's heart choked even more.

"I..." Wanting to say something, yet she found that no matter what she said now at this time, it was all so pale and feeble.

With bitter laugh, she said, "I just think, according to her temper now, she should be angry after waiting for a morning."

"Are you saying she has a bad temper?"

The man's tone was heavy.

It was also at this time that it became clearer to Emma that when a person looks at you badly, it doesn't really matter what kind of person you are in his heart.

Rather, no matter what you say, he will also contradict you.

She felt upset.

"Or do you think that I should go?"

His questioning was violent than the humiliation of the past few days, and again, such words sounded so hurtful to Emma's ears.

"So, you and she fought last night, you're blaming me?"

Her tone was soft and resigned.

Yet today's aggravation was different from last night. At least Caleb's reaction to this aggravation was definitely different.

Such a reaction chilled Emma to the bone.

"Lois."

“Yes.”

“I want to go upstairs.”

“Yes.” Lois hurriedly pushed Caleb to the side. There was no lift before.

But since Alina was pregnant, the lift was installed, so it could be seen that Caleb had really prepared everything for Alina’s pregnancy.

Emma was left alone in the dining room for a long, long time, she could not believe that she was just left behind by Caleb.

“Alina.” Softly she murmured this name, at this moment, her eyes were red.

At some times he is not in his right mind, he might just be pissed off, once he is awake, then things are not like that at all.

She was so happy about those words the last night, but after one night’s sleep, everything would be different.

He was really different from those rich boys.

Even if he could say angry things.

Once he is sober, the words he says when he is angry, no matter what the offending words are, it will not count.

Emma, again, was happy for nothing.

Vanessa didn’t eat either breakfast or lunch, due to the fact that she knew about Werland Villa’s affairs.

She was furious because of this.

“Mum, it’s better to eat something.” Julia was very worried about Vanessa.

Vanessa, “I think he really has to have that Emma in this life.”

For the sake of Emma, he finally drove Alina back to Mulherd Manor?

She thought he had some deep feelings for Alina when he forcefully remarried her before, but now it seems that she was wrong.

Even if they remarried, he could not know about the child.

After he knew about the child, there might be a mess, it might even be possible for Emma to become the mother of the child.

The thought of that possibility made Vanessa's heart heave even more.

How could he hold a woman like that in his heart as a treasure?

"Okay, mum, let's not bother about Caleb, Alina want Caleb anyway, right?"

"Yes, it's right not to want him."

Now everything Alina did was right and everything Caleb did was wrong, such was the preference in the Collins family's heart.

A big deal has happened at Werland Villa, those maids have been all sacked not to mention.

Emma is still living in Werland Villa even now, is this something Caleb should do?

What the hell is he doing?

"Yes, yes, Alina did the right thing, so you don't worry about it, okay?" Vanessa was already in poor health.

Julia was really worried that she got sick out of anger.

The Collins family are having a hard time, however in Mulherd Manor, Alina and Joanna were completely into the state.

Chester, surprisingly, was also there.

"Chester, how come you...?" Alina and Joanna were already in shock.

Chester was a business tycoon, in real estate.

But now why, for the design of a girl's wedding dress, he could also have such a unique opinion?

"What do you think?" Caleb handed the drawing to Alina.

Alina, "It's nice."

At the moment.

She was looking at Chester with very admiring eyes, thinking that he is really a great man.

It will be lucky to marry him.

Although this man usually looks cold and icy, inside he was warm.

“Like it?”

“Yeah.”

“This is designed by me for my future bride.”

It was so romantic.

And later, his wife was the envy of many women.

Caleb is in Werland Villa, but he knows everything in Mulherd Manor.
