

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 206

The chopsticks in Caleb's hand smashed heavily on the dining table, and everyone's heart tightened as a result.

This moment, the air in dining room was stagnant, the crowd did not dare to let out a single breath, and it naturally affected Emma.

"Go to Mulherd Manor." Caleb said in an icy tone.

Tomas, "Now?"

At the time he heard that Caleb was going to Mulherd Manor, Tomas's heart was already in his throat.

These days, whenever Caleb and Chester meet, these two can't help but to make a move.

At this thought, Tomas could not help but look at Caleb's legs and the wound on his head. If there was going to be a fight, Caleb would be at disadvantage.

However, Caleb couldn't care less.

"Go."

Emma's heart was also in her throat.

It wasn't that she was worried about Caleb, the main reason was that right now, she didn't want Caleb to meet Alina.

Alina's influence on her was really too great.

As long as she thinks of the way Alina treats her, she felt annoyed.

Emma could see that she was now relying on Caleb, no matter where she went, Alina would not let her go.

"Caleb, you just had a fight last night, if you go now, she will not be happy." At this moment, Emma didn't know what to say.

Therefore the words were all haphazard.

Caleb gave her a cold and stern look.

The courage that was originally plucked up now was gone as she caught his cold eyes.

Every time whenever it came to Alina, Caleb always had such a look.

Even after all these years, she actually had no status whatsoever in front of Caleb.

But where there was that little status, he wouldn't have to treat her like that for Alina.

.....

Caleb walked away.

Emma sat in the dining room. Once Caleb left, there was no one to take care of her again. Even though Caleb had punished so many people for what happened in the past few days, Lois was still very proud.

In front of Caleb, she was not very cooperative in giving her a good face.

And the more these people around Caleb put on this look, the more Emma felt that she had no dignity at all when she was around Caleb.

"If you treat me like this, aren't you worried that Caleb will fire you?" Finally, Emma couldn't stand it any longer.

Just a maid dare to give her a hard time?

And Emma was not one to hold back.

Originally, all these years, she had been trying to get involved with Caleb, in order to get out of the big mountain once and for all.

She also wanted to live a life in this prosperous city, and now that Lois' attitude is something that Emma will never tolerate.

Caleb has fired quite a lot of people.

Therefore now Emma gave a warning to Lois.

After all, the salary at this Werland Villa was the highest in the whole city. Many people want to enter here to work.

Plus knowing that this was the place of the Collins family, many women wanted to enter here as well.

She just couldn't believe that Lois would really give up for a Alina.

However, she had underestimated Lois's determination of Alina.

And Lois has a son, because her son's marriage was ruined by a mistress, and now both of her grandchildren are dependent on her for support.

Therefore, from this point on, Lois hates the mistress.

At this moment, amidst Emma's threats, she said, "If Master Caleb must let me serve a woman like you, I will go back to Collins Castle."

At those words, Emma was angry.

Why hadn't she thought that Lois was from Collins Castle? No wonder she was so loyal to Alina.

When she thought of how well that group of people at Collins Castle treated Alina, and how she was firmly established over there no matter what happened, Emma was even more jealous.

"Humph." looking at Emma's pale face, Lois snorted coldly and turned to leave.

Emma's face was white when she heard such a cold disdain from Lois.

Alina was really haunting

Thinking of this, Emma's heart was more than suffocated.

She hated Alina so much.

Especially after what Alina had done to her here in the past few days, she knew that she would not have a good time as long as Alina was here now.

The hatred was monstrous.

She wanted to crush Alina.

Caleb arrived at Mulherd Manor.

Chester was very busy, so when Caleb arrived, Chester had already left, and Joanna had also gone out on some business and would be back later.

Alina was in a hurry to prepare for the show.

When she heard that Caleb had come, her brain simply ached.

"What are you doing here?"

Seeing him, there was naturally nothing good on Alina, and her tone wasn't really good either.

“What, did you disturb your good deed?” Caleb’s eyes flickered with ruthlessness.

At the thought that Chester was even here in the morning, he could not help but said coldly

Alina’s brain was aching.

“I think you haven’t figured it out yet, have you?”

“The one who hasn’t figured it out is you. Have you forgotten that we haven’t divorced yet, and if I were to sue now, you are cheating within marriage.”

Caleb spoke ruthlessly, word by word.

The corners of Alina’s mouth couldn’t help but twitch at the words.

She was cheating within marriage.

“Are you forcing me to do this?”

“Alina.”

“Caleb, when I get crazy, I’m much crazier than you.” Originally, there were many things that she did not want to get involved in.

It was just a matter of which was more important.

Among those excesses, she chose to deal with Emma, and right now, she also wished to tear Emma to pieces.

But what if Caleb really wanted to force her, then she wouldn’t mind, either, involving more people in it.

“What are you going to do?” In speaking of Alina’s madness, Caleb’s eyes were even more stormy and flickering.

Thinking about what she had done in Werland Villa in the past few days, it had really turned all his perceptions of her upside down.

And she was right, if she went crazy, there would be a mess.

Such a radical change was something that no one had expected before, and now Alina had just reached such a point.

Alina looked at Caleb, “Do you have my consent and signature to remarry me by shady means?”

No, this is not allowed by law, so what Alina was going to do can be imagined.
