

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 208

Joanna looked at Alina in shock, "Then what do you want?"

Alina, "I want to go back to live in Werland Villa."

Joanna was quite happy about what had happened in the past few days.

Knowing that Alina had given Emma a hard time at Werland Villa, she was quite happy.

But what does she mean now?

Alina looked at Joanna, and there was an endless dark light in her eyes.

By just one glance, Joanna instantly understood that she was not going to give Emma a good time.

Yes, this is what Alina is showing now, she just won't give Emma a good time, just why?

She did not get back at Emma before, why did she have to do it?

Could it be that she was provoked by Caleb?

Thinking of this, Joanna spoke in a serious manner, "Alina, I think you should think carefully about this matter, after all, it's not worth it to make yourself unhappy for someone like that."

"Emma had something to do with my grandmother's death, it was Emma's handiwork that my grandmother passed away so quickly."

Joanna was shocked.

"What?"

"That day, I went to the police station and I got the information."

"But she..." Joanna scratched her hair, frantic, obviously also blown away by this sudden news.

What the hell was this?

Emma had received a lot of favors from the Hughes family. She was able to go to university because of the Hughes family's financial support.

"Nine times out of ten." Under Joanna's disbelieving gaze, Alina said in a heavy tone.

At this moment, Joanna, who had always thought very clearly, surprisingly did not know what to say.

It was completely unbelievable that that Emma would do that.

For a long, long time, Joanna finally came back to her senses.

“This bitch.”

Alina was silent.

She had come back to Mulherd Manor, but in fact, her mind was still reeling.

No longer was it before. And the days when she could still sleep, now just remembering that good picture in front of the hospital, her heart was choking.

Almost all the time, she thought of how much pain her grandma had to be in. She had been so compassionate to Emma.

Yet in her own last days, she had suffered that kind of uncertainty and pain.

“Go back to Werland Villa.” Joanna spun in place several times before.

This was something that Joanna would have said at any other time, not wanting to be entangled between her and Caleb.

But now it was different.

After knowing that Emma had even done something like that, so, what qualifications did she have to live in Werland Villa with peace of mind?

And Caleb, too, was in no position to drive Alina out of Werland Villa.

“Go ahead. Move over to Werland Villa to get the show ready.” Joanna said.

Emma had done such a heartless deed, and what she feared most was facing Alina all the time.

Alina could not think about that much now.

All she could think about was how she hated Emma.

At least until the investigation over, she wouldn't make her day too good either.

“Okay.” Alina nodded.

She was thinking the same thing.

Until the results came out, she could only feel better in this way, otherwise, she was really going to go crazy.

When Andre heard that Alina was going back to Werland Villa, he was silent for half a second on the other side of the phone, and then, "Go ahead."

After knowing what happened to Erica, Andre also wanted Alina to face it head on.

It was fine to be weak in other matters, but in this matter, Alina absolutely could not be weak.

Emma had lost her conscience.

So why did she take over everything that originally belonged to Alina? Even if Alina didn't care for Caleb, those things were still half hers.

"Okay."

Hearing Andre's agreement, Alina was kind of relieved.

"Brandon will go over to help you."

"Okay."

Although it was to deal with Emma, she had to prepare for the show.

She couldn't be affected by Emma.

After that incident with Chester, Andre was thinking that Alina must go back to Shirling as soon as possible.

After all, the scene in Ingford was too chaotic.

He didn't want Alina to be affected, but after knowing that Emma had something to do with Erica's death, Andre then changed his attitude.

After all, he knew that he could stop Alina in other matters, but not in the matter of Erica.

She had grown up with her grandmother since she was a child, and her feelings for her grandmother could be imagined, so how could she be stopped at this time?

"Are you coming back for the full moon festival?" Before hanging up the phone, Andre asked Alina.

Alina, "Yeah."

Nowadays, she had to interfere with their lives all the time, but she would not let Emma and Caleb have too much influence on her.

She would still do what she had to do, and they would not do what they had to do because of her.
“Good.”

When Andre heard this, he was kind of relieved.

Because he could basically tell that Alina was actually very little affected now.

She was clear in her head and knew exactly what she was doing.

So Alina went back to Werland Villa.

She got back with her stuff for the show, and Lois was happy to see Alina was back.

“Lady Alina, I’ve arrange a room for you on the third floor. There’s no lift, so no one can do any damage.”

Emma’s face turned white as she listened from the side.

She knew that this was meant for her.

From Oklens, many people had decided that she was targeting Alina, so Lois was cautious in what she did, and Emma was already displeased.

Now, when she saw that Alina had returned, her eyes went cold.

Previously, she had thought that after Alina moved out, she would never move back in.

She thought that she could at least live with Caleb here in Werland Villa. But now, it seemed that she had to leave this place.

Thinking about how Alina had treated her before, Emma was not willing to be right with Alina.

“Many thanks.”

“No worries” Lois said while looking at Emma with disdain.
