

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 209

Lois went up to make the arrangements.

When there were just the two of them left, Caleb hadn't returned yet, and at this moment, Emma was looking at Alina with a sinister face.

"What the hell are you doing?"

"I'm coming back to my own place, is there a problem?" Alina responded.

Emma's heart was choking hard, "You're over with him."

Even if it they were married, according to their current situation, it was still over.

If it was over, why did these two still manage to get together? At this point, Emma was almost going crazy.

Caleb was her obsession and her madness.

Before Alina came back, although she was not with Caleb, the two of them were considered fine.

But after Alina came back, it was different and their world turned into a tumultuous place.

Emma felt that if this continued, she would be driven mad by Alina.

But in fact, during this time, she had become abnormal.

"According to all this filth between him and you, this place must be mine."

"....."

"With the support of Collins family, it's mine, got it?"

At this moment, Emma's face was even whiter than ever.

The support of Collins family. These words gave Emma a feeling that there was no way out.

All the people were also supporting Alina.

On this relationship between Alina and Caleb, everyone was on Alina, though Caleb seldom goes back to the Collins family these years, and seems to have no status at all in the Collins family.

Why?

Up to now, Emma still hasn't figured out this point.

But right now if Alina is here, Emma would not have a good time, so she has to leave.

The moment her lapel was fiercely grabbed by Alina, Emma couldn't help but tremble all over her body.

Alina, "What are you afraid of?"

At this moment, Alina's eyes were sharp, like being able to see through a person's soul.

"Let go." Emma was unwilling to meet her eyes.

Alina, "What? Don't dare to look at me?"

Looking at the avoidance in Emma's eyes, Alina was even more insane.

Emma's heart was hurting so badly.

On her forehead, there was sweat.

Obviously, after the efforts of the first two days, now Alina just stayed with Emma, it could also make her extremely suffer endless torment inside.

When Caleb heard the news that Alina had returned to Werland Villa, he rushed back as fast as I could.

Sitting in a wheelchair, he was still full of reserve.

It's no wonder that over the years, so many women in Ingford wanted to marry the second master of the Collins family.

When he was disabled, he was still elegant.

"Why have you come back?" His voice was sullen.

Caleb is a shrewd person, Alina usually can't even be dragged back to Werland Villa, but today she took initiative to come back.

And she came back voluntarily under such a tumultuous situation.

Alina, "What, can't I come back?"

Caleb, "If you are sincere, naturally you can. But..."

“You are friend I will make a problem, right?”

Before the man could finish his words, he was interrupted by Alina with a smile.

In the next moment, Alina said, “Do you still expect us to be calm and quiet by now?”

Originally, this was only between her and Emma, but Caleb insisted on getting involved, so let him get involved.

After listening to Alina’s report on Emma, Caleb naturally sensed that Alina was targeting Emma.

“Alina.” His tone went cold as he thought about this.

Especially when he saw the mess of Emma’s lapel, he knew that before he came back, the conflict between these two had been not small.

At this moment, Caleb couldn’t help but feel a bit of a headache.

Alina, “What?”

“Come with me to the study.”

“No.”

Alina said not without even thinking about it.

There was nothing he could do about her.

Without waiting for everyone’s reaction, Alina turned around and went upstairs.

When she reached the stairway, she added, “I’m going to prepare for the big show at Eglinton, Joanna and Chester will come over from time to time, those who should behave, behave well, otherwise don’t blame me for being rude.”

Dropping her words, Alina went straight upstairs.

What kind of place did she take this place to be?

It was fine for Joanna to come here, but Chester would also come over from time to time? She was preparing for her big show in Eglinton, why would Chester come over?

Caleb clenched his hands into fists, and there was even an endless danger flickering in his eyes.

When he was in this state, Emma naturally felt it.

“Caleb.” The moment she looked at Caleb, the tone of her voice was a burst of bitterness.

Caleb looked at Emma, wanting to say something, yet at this moment he could not say anything.

Emma had tears in her eyes.

“I want to leave.” At this moment, Emma’s attitude was also unprecedentedly strong.

It was terrifying.

Alina was truly a very terrifying person, if she was to spend time with Alina in the same space, Emma thought that, sooner or later, she would be killed by Alina.

So at this time, no matter what kind of danger was outside, she just wanted to leave in a hurry.

Caleb looked at her, “Are you willing to go to North Eglinton?”

At the mention of North Eglinton, Emma couldn’t help but wince bit all over.

Eglinton is a great place. However, North Eglinton is in the corner of Eglinton, but it is the worst place.

Many people were willing to go over to Eglinton, but very few people were willing to go to North Eglinton, so it was clear how terrifying that place really was.
