

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 210

After Alina came back, had suffered a lot.

She often had a feeling that she had lost her bet.

Especially in her leg and her right hand, and now she does not even have a way back.

And Caleb looked like he couldn't give her a future at all.

At least, Caleb himself did not want to give her the kind of future she wanted, from this point on, Emma's heart was broken.

It was too hard for her, and now that she was in such a situation, she was really going crazy.

"Caleb." Emma looked at Caleb, her eyes were full of tears, "I am now a person with no future."

The surgery on her hand was delayed.

Originally, the surgery on her right hand was to be arranged urgently, but because of Alina, it was put on hold again and again.

Up to now, they didn't even know, with further surgery, if she could still recover to her previous appearance, no one was more desperate than Emma right now.

Legs can't stand up.

Her hands couldn't use strength.

What was she going to do in such a situation? The only future was to marry Caleb.

But she could see Caleb's attitude towards Alina.

As long as she thought of how much she had lost, now she didn't even have the strength to face the future.

If she really left Caleb, she would really have nothing left.

But as long as she thought of Alina's attitude towards her, she wouldn't dare to live in Werland Villa.

"By her side, I will die." Emma looked at Caleb and said with distress.

Caleb was silent, her heart was even more suffocated.

“I know, I was the one who wronged her before. I did something wrong to her, but it was all because of you.”

“.....”

“And now I have to bear it myself?” Emma’s heart hurt even more when she thought of all that she was now enduring.

She admitted her mistake in front of Caleb.

She knew that Caleb was a shrewd man, and now he was protecting her only because of that meagre favour.

Without that favour, she would really have nothing left.

“Until Chester leaves, you will be in Werland Villa.”

“But I’m afraid of her.”

“I won’t let her make things difficult for you again.” Emma hadn’t finished her words before Caleb interrupted.

Emma’s words were also silenced in this instant.

She just looked at Caleb, tears in her eyes.

To put it bluntly, she still wanted to be by Caleb, but at the same time, she was also afraid of Alina.

The Alina of today is different from the Alina of then.

The current Alina was a very scary person.

But if, for example, Caleb were to protect her, then at this point, she would be willing to.

Subconsciously Emma wanted to have battle with Alina.

After all, having fought for so many years, if she were to let go, she was not willing to.

But she hadn’t expected that Alina was no longer a soft woman, and the way she fought back was so straightforward.

She simply could not avoid it.

Yes, Alina’s tactics were terrifying, and this allowed Emma to experience the terrifying part of it.

But if Caleb had defended her, she would, in her heart, still be subconsciously happy, thinking that she had won.

.....

In the study.

Alina was reluctantly called over by Tomas, at the moment in the study was the strong smell of smoke, Tomas rushed forward.

“Sir, the doctor said that you should smoke less.” No, actually the doctor said no you can’t smoke.

But right now in this situation, he knows that Caleb is not anyone can stop.

Caleb, “Go out.”

Tomas, “Yes.”

Compared to Caleb’s coldness, Tomas’ tone was now tighter, especially now that Caleb was injured.

Before going out, Tomas kept giving Alina a wink, hoping that Alina would take care of it.

However, Alina had no response at all.

Tomas finally went out with a helpless sigh.

Only Alina and Caleb were left.

Caleb took a fierce puff of his cigarette and his tone was unprecedentedly calm, “Why are you targeting her?”

Caleb did not think that this targeting of Emma by Alina was because of her jealousy towards Emma.

Rather, it was possible three years ago.

Three years ago, Alina was a soft woman, while today’s Alina was a vengeful woman.

Alina, “Am I supposed to be nice to her?”

Her attitude was still so sharp.

Caleb, “Blame me for what happened three years ago.”

“.....” Blame him?

So, he is now protecting Emma in this way?

If that woman didn't have any status in his heart, he wouldn't have used her, who was pregnant, to save Emma back then.

Thinking of this, Alina smiled, "What? Very heartbroken?"

It had only been two days.

Emma was probably already scared out of her mind, right?

Stroking her nice nails, Alina continued "I'm also quite heartbroken for my son who died in the Hasnan River."

Also, she was very heartbroken for Grandma.

When he heard her mention the child, the fingers that were holding the cigarette tightened, pain flickered in his eyes.
