

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 211

Wouldn't he save Emma?

Or did he discuss with Alina that he would use the pregnant her to save Emma? Obviously, whichever it was, it was impossible.

In other words, even if he knew, in that situation, he would still use Alina to save Emma.

And still, without her knowing, it could even be said that if she knew, she would be forced.

Watching the anger in the man's eyes, Alina laughed sarcastically.

"Don't do anything to her again." At this moment, the man's tone was so strong, even, with a warning.

And with such a warning, it made the air between them tense.

Alina, "What if I don't agree?"

In this matter, she hadn't thought of saying yes.

And the moment Caleb looked at her, Alina saw it clearly. Caleb, "Alina, don't force me."

Alina jerked up.

She was small in stature, yet now she was in stark contrast to the seated Caleb, looking down at him from above.

She was enraged by this man.

He wouldn't let her settle the score for the child three years ago.

He had no right to be in charge in her grandmother's matter.

Alina looked at him coldly, saying, "The people who were involved in this three years ago..."

At this, Alina paused, meeting Caleb's stern eyes.

Soon Alina continued "Not even one can escape."

"Alina!"

Caleb shouted.

Alina, "Including you."

Originally, it was only because of what happened three years ago, everything could still be done slowly. But now it was different.

Now Grandma was involved.

No matter who it was, no matter what the reason, she wouldn't stop, and no one would be left to pay the price. She had finally learnt that there were times, she could not be too soft.

All those tactics Emma had used on her some time ago were harsh.

The moment Alina turned around, Caleb uttered, "I will give you an explanation for what happened three years ago."

An explanation?

The moment she heard the word, Alina's eyes even flashed with endless mockery and sarcasm.

"Put away the so-called explanation, I don't need it."

What she wanted was never an explanation, but for all those involved in this to pay the appropriate price for it.

This is Alina's attitude now towards this matter.

Alina went out.

Caleb was left alone.

He only felt that the Alina just now was so terrifying, though she was petty.

She was crazy.

He took a hard puff of the cigarette, full of annoyance and melancholy in his face.

When Tomas came in, he saw this scene of Caleb, "Sir."

"Tomas."

"Yes."

"Before, her reaction wasn't like this." He was talking about the time before when she returned from Shirling.

Yet at that time, Alina had not struck out this fiercely.

And now, why all of a sudden?

Tomas, "Could there be something else we don't know about?"

At these words, Caleb looked fiercely at Tomas.

Tomas had obviously also noticed that Alina's reaction had been very intense these past few days.

"Could it be that it's because of meeting Nova?"

At this point, it was really possible. That night when she was meeting Nova, her reaction was that intense.

Then there was Emma.

Thinking of this, Caleb pinched his eyebrows, "Who exactly had Nova come over that night?"

Ever since Alina came back, Caleb had been dealing with a head-on confrontation between these two.

Three years ago, Alina hated him and Emma, but Nova would definitely be a trigger.

"The person has been fired by you." Tomas said.

Now there were only two people in Werland Villa, Lois and the butler. Other people had now been fired, so it didn't matter who it really was.

Caleb's brain was already hurting, and now he felt like his brain was about to explode.

Downstairs.

After talking with Caleb, Alina was pissed off.

"Why are you looking at me like that?" Emma was frightened by Alina's eyes.

Especially since Alina was holding scissors in her hand.

It seemed that according to her current mood, Alina would lose control and poke her at any moment, such Alina was really scary.

Emma only felt that she could hardly breathe.

Alina, "You have my blood on your body, do you know that?"

At those words, Emma's face went white.

"Don't you come over here."

"You don't deserve it."

"Caleb! Caleb!" Emma was frightened by Alina and screamed.

The current Alina was really like a madman, no one knew what Alina could actually do in the next moment.

Caleb and Tomas came down.

They saw such a scene.

Tomas rushed forward, "Lady Alina, what are you doing?"

He took the scissors out of Alina's hand, and Emma's emotions could not be calmed down even now.

Obviously, she was also frightened by Alina.

At this moment, Emma's body was trembling, she was really scared by Alina.

"Caleb." Tears, once again, fell down.

Caleb's brain simply hurt.

He sort of understood now.

Meeting Nova that night was really the trigger, so much so that how much Alina had previously held back, it had all turned completely crazy because of seeing him.

By this time, Caleb believed that the child was really lost.

Otherwise, how could Alina be so mad?

"Alina."

"Caleb, I don't want to be with her, I don't want to be with her." At this time, Emma's tone was out of control.

Her emotions, too, were completely tense.

And Alina looked at Emma, who was so frightened that she lost her mind, in her heart, there was finally a touch of happiness.
