

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 213

And Emma has always been like this, as long as there is so much good times, she will immediately come back to life with full spirit.

Now she wanted more Caleb's attention to her, completely forgetting all that indifference Caleb had shown her before.

"Got it." Alina nodded her head.

She gave Emma a look, no one knew what she was thinking in her heart.

Emma's heart was even tightened by that look from Alina.

But thinking that she had someone with her, she felt more at ease.

When Alina and Caleb were dining at Collins Castle, Alina received a text message, Nova had been arrested.

At that moment, the corner of Alina's mouth lifted up into a smile, while Caleb's mobile phone also rang at the right time.

He turned his wheelchair and went out to answer the call.

Looking at the way Caleb went out to answer the phone, Vanessa became unhappy, "He doesn't know the occasion when he is busy."

"It's okay."

Alina said, her tone was now obviously much lighter.

Vanessa, "You're in a better mood?"

"Yeah."

"What's so happy about it?"

This sudden loss of seriousness in Vanessa was overwhelming to Alina for a moment.

But this kind of Vanessa gave people a more grounded feeling. Alina came closer to Vanessa and said, "Nova has been arrested."

Vanessa stiffened.

“Really?”

“You know that?”

“What is there in this city that I don’t know?”

Alina was awkward.

Vanessa usually didn’t go out much, but right now, she knew the situation.

Well, now Alina believed that there was nothing in this city that Vanessa didn’t know about.

And she also knew about that face that Andre investigated Nova.

But it didn’t matter to her, sooner or later these things had to be cleared up.

“Alina, you can’t be soft in relationship.”

At this moment, it was like a heart-to-heart talk between the two.

And when Alina was talking about this, she had a mixed feeling. Vanessa was right, Emma had come to her door.

If she didn’t even fight back, then who could protect her?

Outside, the car drove off.

Vanessa, “It seems that he knows about it too.”

“Yeah.”

In Alina’s nod, there was a moment of bitterness.

Anyone in his heart was important and worthy of being protected, and to her and the child, he was so desperate.

When she thought of this, Alina was even less likely to be soft about it.

“Nova has worked hard enough. It’s just a pity.” For the sake of Emma, he got involved in such a matter.

He was a close friend to Caleb, so it was normal that Caleb would leave in a hurry.

“It’s a pity, but it’s also his own fault.” Alina said after thinking about it.

The fruits of one's efforts are all the more important to cherish, and no matter who it is, it shouldn't be a reason to go against one's morals.

That was the bottom line for a person.

Obviously, Nova was not guarding the bottom line, and thus no one could be blamed for this point.

"Is it a big deal?" Vanessa asked as she looked at Alina.

Alina, "He has been taken away, I think it is big."

This was the truth.

The matter now was definitely not small.

Vanessa, "You are right."

In the eyes of both people, there was flash of pleasure.

.....

Caleb did not return to Werland Villa this night, and Emma also received the news that Nova had been taken away, and at that moment, her face went white.

When Alina returned to Werland Villa, Emma looked at Alina.

All over her body, she was trembling with anger.

"It Is you, right?" Although she was asking, the tone of voice was almost all certainty, she was almost certain that Alina was behind the scene.

Nova was a pivotal figure in Ingford, in the medical world, yet now he was being victimized by Alina's methods.

So what else in this world could Alina not do?

Thinking of this, Emma's body was trembling with anger.

Obviously, she had never thought that the current Alina would have such ability.

Alina, "Yes."

She admitted it.

When Emma looked at Alina, it was as if she was looking at a devil. In Emma's opinion, the current Alina was a devil.

"It's really you."

"I dare to admit what I have done, why, can't I?"

This was better than some people who were constantly scheming others in the dark.

Looking at Emma's fearful look, Alina smiled.

"Is there something unseemly going on between you and him? Now you're anxious that he got arrested?"

"Shut up." Emma shouted angrily.

She was really going crazy, why did she meet someone like Alina?

Alina, "It seems that there is something worth digging deeper."

Emma was shocked.

She has to marry Caleb, only then could Alina really leave their world.

At this moment, Emma had this crazy thought in her mind.

Before, when she saw how terrifying Alina was, Emma only wanted to run away.

And now, looking at Alina's sharp and bright eyes, she knew there was no escape. Alina was investigating everything.

And before Alina found out the truth, she must marry Caleb, otherwise, she will really die.

Alina is really scary, and Andre was also like a crazy person.

It seems like there is nothing in this world that Andre can't find out.

At this thought, Emma was more than suffocated, really to be driven crazy by Alina.

.....

All of them, inside, were undergoing a sea change of no small magnitude, and Alina knew that Grandma was related to Emma.

Therefore a change took place in her heart.

And after Emma knew that Nova had been taken away, she seemed to have lost her soul.

They had seen how terrifying Alina was.
