

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 214

Early the next morning.

Caleb came back, Tomas sent him back, and in the dining room, the atmosphere was cold as hell. Alina calmly ate her food.

Alina was the most peaceful and calm now.

"Emma go up first."

"Caleb." Hearing that Caleb wanted her to go up, Emma's throat tightened as she looked at Caleb, with aggression in her eyes.

From last night until now, she had barely slept much.

Apparently it was Nova all night.

"Okay."

In Caleb's cold eyes, Emma swallowed her words.

The person beside her pushed her away.

Alina and Caleb were left in the dining room. Caleb took out a cigarette and lit it, taking several heavy puffs.

In just a few days, Caleb's addiction to smoking was now so great that it was evident that he had encountered a lot of troubles.

For a long time, both of them did not take the initiative to speak, Alina was still eating her own food. Lois had cooked all her favorite food.

She was the only one who could eat so well now, right?

Finally, the moment Alina put down her bowl after she had eaten her fill, Caleb couldn't help but speak up, "Finished eating?"

"Yeah, not bad."

Now many people, because of her, can't eat, while she ate well.

Caleb looked at her eyes coldly.

Alina felt it and looked at the man, "If you don't have anything to say, I will leave to meet Joanna."

So, not only was she in the mood for dinner now, she was also in the mood for the Eglinton Show?

After turning their lives upside down, she still wants to go to the Eglinton Show?

Caleb's heart was about to choke, he just looked at Alina with an endless chill in those eyes.

"It was you?" Talking about Nova's matter.

Alina, "Yes."

Just like last night when she faced Emma, she simply admitted it.

"How dare you." In Caleb's eyes as he looked at her was an endless chill.

Alina, "What's the problem?"

"Do you know what you're really doing? You'll ruin him."

Nova was famous in the medical world these days.

His attainment in the medical world at such a young age was something that everyone could not hope to match.

Now, the news of Nova being arrested was temporarily blocked, and if this news was really released, then what exactly Nova would face could be imagined.

Alina, "The one who ruined him was not me. It was he who did not cherish this attainment of his own."

The bottom line is the most important cultivation as a doctor.

Andre still had some tricks up his sleeve, surprisingly finding the evidence that Nova had done something to her back then while she was sleeping.

Not surprisingly, this morning, Alina would be summoned over.

Evidence and witnesses must not be missing.

Once these things were really confirmed, then Nova would not only be ruined, but would spend a long time in prison.

This was why Caleb had, at this time, returned.

At this moment, the two were staring at each other, confronting.

Caleb's throat was tight, "Alina, what exactly do you want?"

It was now negotiating the terms, so that she could let Nova off the hook with her testimony today.

Nova and Caleb had been through difficulties together. This is why after Nova met Caleb, he was able to walk up to such a high position so quickly.

Nova was willing to do anything for Caleb, and since he was willing to do it, then he must also willingly pay the price he should pay.

This was what Alina had in mind.

"I don't need anything." Her words, at this moment, were like a merciless net that ruthlessly enveloped Caleb.

Caleb's brain went blank.

"So, you are definitely going to destroy Nova, are you?"

Alina looked at Caleb.

It's been so many years, it was the first time she watched Caleb lose control like this, the people around him were really important to him.

And she was really a sarcastic and joke existence.

However, what Alina didn't know was at that time at the Hasnan Bridge, Caleb was even more out of control than now, and even went mad.

Get up, "I didn't ruin him, he ruined himself. You'd better pray now that he will confess whatever it is that will reduce his"

"Shut up."

Before Alina could finish her words, she was viciously interrupted by Caleb.

At this moment, Caleb looked at Alina with scarlet in his eyes.

He was completely enraged.

Alina looked at Caleb, but was calm, "Once, you flaunted your power in my world, you did whatever you wanted to do."

"....."

“There was no one to guard me at that time.”

“.....”

“How come I can’t fight back? How is it I ruined them?” Alina opened her mouth.

And Caleb’s world was turned upside down.

Everything had started because of that incident three years ago.

And Alina was looking so cold and so ruthless.

As if this matter, she really will not give up, as she said, anyone who three years ago involved in it can’t get away.

And now, she has really done it.

Nowadays, she is ruthless.

Chester came.

Looking at Caleb’s wounded appearance, he stepped forward, “Do you regret it?”

Obviously, now Chester could also see that Alina had struck out at these people.

The scarlet red in Caleb’s eyes had not yet receded.

He looked at Chester, not saying a word.

Obviously, now he has no strength to argue with Chester, Alina took step by step, not giving half a chance for him to breathe.

Especially the evidence was so solid. So his lawyer didn’t even have the slightest chance to refute it.

So last night Nova was already inside, and not even bail was granted.

“Caleb, I have taught you not to touch the bottom line no matter what you do, grandpa expelled you from the Collins family three years ago, which is considered the biggest leniency to you.”

Chester said to Caleb.

And what he said was also the truth, the non-pursuit three years ago was the biggest forgiveness to him.
