

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 218

It was three hours long.

Alina finished taking all the statements, and before she left she asked, "Can I announce it?"

"After the matter is clarified, we will announce it."

"Many thanks."

Alina got up.

When she came out from inside, Chester's car was waiting outside. Chester was leaning against the car door smoking.

Alina did not expect Chester to be waiting for her here, so she took a deep breath and went forward, "Chester."

As her words fell, Chester got her into his arms.

A cold, hard tone came from above her head, "You let Nova go?"

At Werland Villa, Caleb asked her to let Nova go, yet Alina did not agree.

She said, "How can I?"

"Good for you." At this, it was obvious Chester felt relieved.

Clearly, a woman must be tough when she should be tough.

Many people would be soft-hearted at this crucial step.

But when those people did something like that, did they ever go soft on her? So Alina would never be soft-hearted.

She was so cold and hard that she told the whole truth about what happened back then.

In the car.

Alina, "Andre's investigation is very hard this time, I naturally won't drag my feet at this time and let down the people who really care about me."

"You're doing the right thing." Chester smiled, not saying that the evidence this time was provided by him to Andre's people.

In VIG over in Shirling, Andre was a powerful person.

This is Ingford, so it's not that easy for Andre to do something for Alina here.

If it wasn't for his people hiding behind the scenes this time, things wouldn't have gone so smoothly once Caleb noticed.

"You can let me know what you are going to do."

"Thank you." For Chester, these days, although because of the design matter, Alina's attitude towards him had changed quite a lot.

But this distance had to be there.

For this point, Chester was helpless.

But let her be, as long as she was happy.

Alina looked at Chester, "Thank you." These words were said from the bottom of her heart.

Chester smiled.

"If there is no accident, Nova will be in prison for ten years."

"Ten years." Alina smiled bitterly.

According to her knowledge of Nova, if he did something like that, even if he died a million times, it would not be enough.

Ten years in prison was not a big deal.

But what Chester said was only conservative, who knew what else Nova had done behind the scenes?

At this juncture, he was definitely going to be cleared for investigation.

Alina could not wait for him to be investigated to the bottom.

"Take you to dinner first." Chester looked at his wristwatch, it was already lunch time.

Alina nodded, "Okay, I want to eat something delicious."

"Okay."

At this moment, Chester's eyes were full of dotting.

It had been such a long time, and it was over, so what Alina wanted to do most right now was to eat.

She was a foodie and was very particular about what she ate.

She hadn't eaten anything delicious this time because of the matter on her mind, but now one thing had been settled.

So she had to treat herself to a good meal.

In the restaurant.

Chester watched Alina stuff a piece of foie gras into her mouth, and at that moment, there was more than doting in his eyes.

He picked up the red wine and took a sip.

And then he said, "Eat slowly."

"I haven't eaten well this whole time." Speaking of this, Alina was aggravated.

Especially at Werland Villa, it looked like she was eating well, but in fact it was all in anger at Emma and Caleb.

Looking at their faces, how could she still eat?

Chester, "Since you're not happy, then I'll come and pick you up every day to eat."

"No."

Alina answered without even thinking.

Chester, "Why?"

"When I look at their faces, I'm not eating well at best. When they look at my face, they just can't eat."

Chester snorted out a laugh.

He only thought that Alina was really cute.

And what she said was true.

No one's life was as bad as Emma and Caleb's right now, especially Emma.

Whenever Alina ate at Werland Villa, then Lois must have made it according to Alina's taste.

And many of the things that Alina ate, Emma would not eat.

Chester really didn't know what to say about Alina.

He liked her vengeful character.

Before, she was too soft.

As if no matter what you did for her, it would eventually end in failure because of her own indomitable nature.

Now he did not need to worry about her.

.....

In fact, right now, even if Alina doesn't go back to Werland Villa for dinner, the other two definitely don't have much taste in their food.

Caleb received the news that Alina and Chester were eating together.

Alina was really heartless.

At that moment, his eyes were more than gloomy.

"Boom." The phone in his hand was viciously smashed.

And Emma, who was originally able to have a peaceful lunch because of Alina's absence, now had no taste for food because of Caleb.

"Is it that Alina didn't let Nova go?" In fact, the answer was already obvious, there was no point in asking anything.

Caleb's thin lips were pursed.

More than that, Alina had also gave clues to the police, which would lead to an aggravation of Nova's sentence.

But how did she know?

She was closet to Chester, so it wasn't hard to know something from Chester.

At this though, Caleb's face went dark.
