

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 219

Now over at Werland Villa.

As long as there was Alina around, neither Emma nor Caleb would have a good time.

After the incident with Nova, there was a brief period of peace. But both Emma and Caleb knew that this was only a short period of peace.

Alina would not stop there.

During that time.

She looked at Emma with stern eyes during dinner.

It made Caleb think Emma would be her next target, and Emma also had that same perception.

So every time she was stared by Alina, she was scared.

No one knows if Alina has something on Emma, and even if she doesn't, who knows if Chester is helping her to find out during this time?

Chester's pushing was much more efficient than Andre who was far away in Shirling.

This time was different from last time.

Last time, Nova didn't even have any precautions, thus letting things come to such a shock.

But this time, for Emma, Caleb was obviously prepared, but there were times when prevention was not enough, and they understood this truth.

Both Emma and Caleb were flustered by the look in Alina's eyes.

"Alina, do you have something to say to me?" Finally, Emma couldn't bear it anymore.

If she really has something to say, then just say it, it's better than letting people suffer like this.

Caleb looked at Alina with warning in her eyes.

Alina snickered, "No, I just want to see you more, after all, I can't see you for much longer, right?"

Emma and Caleb subconsciously looked at each other.

Especially Emma, when she heard Alina's words, her heart jumped up to her throat and her face went white along with it.

“What do you mean?”

When Emma looked at Alina, her hand holding the spoon couldn't help but tremble.

Caleb's brain was throbbing.

The smile at the corners of Alina's mouth was even more profound and imperative, which gave people the feeling that something big was about to happen.

Alina drank the soup and ignored Emma's question, turning to Lois who was waiting at the side, “Lois, today's soup is good.”

“It was made according to your taste, Lady Alina.” When Lois heard that, there were smiles at the corners of her eyes.

Alina, “Mmm, I like it.”

She could even taste whether the soup tasted fresh or not, yet now Emma didn't know what the soup tasted like.

With Alina here, she had hardly had a good meal here, and if this continued, she was really going crazy.

Alina finished her food and went to the third floor.

Emma looked at Caleb with all the apprehension in her eyes.

“Boom.” The spoon in Caleb's hand just smashed hard on the table.

Emma originally wanted to say something, but looking at Caleb, she could not say anything.

Her heart was choking.

Caleb left.

He left Werland Villa.

Although she was now surrounded by people sent by Caleb, Emma did not want to stay in the same place as Alina.

All afternoon, Emma was in her room, she was someone who liked to go out so much, however now her legs were inconvenient.

Because Werland Villa has Alina, she can't even take a simple walk anymore.

In the evening, Caleb was late from work.

Alina had already eaten, Brandon came, so these two people just soaked in the third floor to prepare for the show.

Joanna, too, had come.

Even Chester appeared here from time to time, which made Emma even more afraid to just wander around.

For these people to come to the door, Caleb's brain also hurt badly.

When he came back, the butler handed a mail to Caleb, "Sir, this was delivered this afternoon, and it was written with your name on it."

"Okay."

Caleb took the mail.

Just by looking at the address on it, his heart stuttered.

This was a summon.

His face was grim as he ripped the mail open and took out the document inside and looked at it, and sure enough.

Alina had sued him.

This damn woman really is getting more and more lawless.

Caleb was going crazy, he could not wait to arrest Alina and beat her up to vent his anger.

"Boom." The mail hit the ground hard, "Send her to the study."

"Yes."

Tomas also knew that Alina was now getting more and more arrogant.

If this continued, it was dangerous.

She was now completely stepping on Caleb's bottom line time and time again, and right now, as Tomas watched, Caleb's tolerance for her was about to reach its limit.

Caleb went upstairs.

Emma picked up the summon on the floor and read the relevant content on it.

Alina really sued Caleb.

When Emma saw the content of her claim, her face went pale.

She went so far that showing no mercy to her.

What Alina had said last time was that she would take everything back from Emma, and last time, Caleb actually used method to keep this matter down.

But now this time, she was for real.

Alina even sue Caleb. If word of this gets out, Emma will be humiliated.

How would the people of city see her?

Even if she eventually married Caleb, how would she stand up in front of those people?

The more she thought about this, the whiter Emma's face became and the more her body trembled.

When Brandon arrived at the third floor, the corners of his mouth couldn't help but twitch when he saw the picture of Brandon, Alina and Joanna.

Joanna was handsome, but she was a woman.

But Brandon was a man.

Now he was holding a needle and thread, what the hell was going on here?

"This place should be sewn with invisible stitches." Brandon corrected Alina

It seemed like he was even more expert in this area than Alina.

Brandon only felt that his brain was about to explode.

Brandon saw Brandon.

His face sank.
