

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 221

Alina, "What happened to Chester was an accident, you can't just say anything."

It was Chester's insertion that made the whole thing chaos as a result.

It felt like Caleb's focus had been lost by this.

"Chester is very attached to you, what are your plans?"

"Plan?"

"Yes, I see that this person's mind is not simple, you won't just accept his kindness with peace of mind, right?"

"I..."

Alina was also going to be confused by Chester's current attitude, it really was all wrong everywhere.

She did not accept Chester's kindness with peace of mind, but she appreciated Chester's design.

And because of this appreciation, a lot of problems were overlooked as a result.

Alina, "I'm also in a mess in my head right now."

"You're all messed up by Chester?" Joanna asked Alina.

Well.

It really did feel that way.

The reason why Emma could be trapped on Werland Villa Mountain that she couldn't get off was because she had got Chester involved.

And Chester had always wanted to send her to North Eglinton, so Caleb was anxious, trying to protect Emma.

And on her side, there was so much commotion that Caleb's previous focus on the child and Andre lost.

Especially when he saw her and Chester going in and out, Caleb was really going crazy.

The child has thus gained peace and quiet.

Even more, probably now Caleb is going to forget that she and Andre still have a daughter.

“Caleb is a shrewd man, it’s rare that you guys have such a knack for messing him up.”

“When he found that...” Joanna paused.

This if Caleb found that true, it would be more messy.

This, too, was a reminder to Alina of exactly what dangerous things they were doing now.

Now it looks like Caleb is being pushed harder.

If this comes to his senses, probably none of the people involved in this would be able to get away.

“What are you doing?” Looking at Joanna suddenly moving far away from her, Alina looked at her inexplicably.

Joanna, “I want to stay away from you, so that I won’t get involved.”

Alina, “Have you forgotten how he beat you up at that time?”

“I remember, so I have to stay away from you.”

At that time, she was also beaten because of Alina. Speaking of this, Joanna felt that Caleb should not be messed with.

At that time, that punch almost knocked her teeth out.

At that time, she was angry.

So angry that she wanted to kill him.

But after she sobered up, she had to say that she was still a bit scared of Caleb’s fist.

Alina, “Okay, stay away from me.”

“Are you reminding me not to go too far with him now?” Alina looked over at Joanna with raised eyebrows.

What Alina was doing to Caleb now Was because of what Caleb did three years ago was ruthless.

And this time Alina really was not soft.

Not only did she send Nova in prison.

Now, she even sued Caleb, and even Emma was involved, to get everything back.

She was really tough.

But if this thing really ended so simply, it would be a lesson to Emma and Caleb, but what if it didn't?

"You're doing everything right now, I think, it's only right that you and Chester get even closer." Even if Caleb came to his sense by then, there was still Chester to protect her.

"You are unreasonable."

"Besides now it's Chester who took the initiative to get closer to you, so you shouldn't have the moral pressure."

Alina didn't want to talk to Joanna anymore.

But being reminded by her, she was pleased that Caleb was now really messed up.

Back then, he stimulated her into a mental disorder, so now, he should be disordered as well.

.....

In the study.

Caleb looked at Brandon with a shady face, he opened his mouth, "Is there nothing you want to say to me?"

Brandon, "What do you want to hear?"

"Or do you want to hear why I didn't send her to the operating table for you three years ago?"

"Boom." As the words fell, the cup in Caleb's hand just flew towards Brandon.

Brandon dodged it with a tilt of his head.

The cup smashed against the door with an ear-splitting sound.

Caleb's eyes were already cold, and now that he saw Brandon avoiding it, his eyes were even more dangerous.

"You knew I was looking for her?" He had been searching for her for three years.

Brandon had such a knack.

Caleb didn't believe that he really didn't know.

Brandon, "Yeah."

“Then you still...”

“Although she managed to survive, she was in danger. I am not sure why you are looking for her.”
Brandon’s tone was calm and detached.

So, Brandon was assuming that he was looking for Alina because of Emma.

When she attended the exhibition held for Emma, she said that he was doing it for Emma.

“Brandon, how many years have you been with me?”

“Seven years.” Brandon answered without thinking.

Caleb snorted, “Seven years.” So, after seven years, this is the impression he has on Brandon?

Brandon bowed his head.

Caleb continued, “Do you know what I hate the most?”

“Betrayal.”

Yes, betrayal.

This was something that any boss absolutely hated, disgusted by the people below betraying themselves.

Brandon, “I will pay you for breach of contract.”

At this moment, Brandon’s tone was also spoken in an even colder tone.

And Brandon, obviously, was disappointed with Caleb because of what happened three years ago.

So that day, when he went to pick up Alina, he deliberately took Brandon’s place, he wanted to take Alina on a run, but he just didn’t expect that on the way, Alina’s reaction would be so strong.

The two of them eventually fell off the Hasnan Bridge in unison. Luckily, Brandon was somewhat capable, otherwise they could not have survived.
