

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 225

Kara looked at Emma and only felt terrible.

"All this time the rumors outside are buzzing between Alina and Chester, don't you want to do something about it?"

Obviously, right now Kara didn't know what had actually happened that day at the Collins Castle.

She only thought that this was the best opportunity.

A woman, getting together with her husband's brother, was something that no one would ethically allow, and it was a good opportunity to bring down Alina.

But now, there was no movement from Emma.

And speaking of which, Emma's face went white.

"Don't mess with Chester, he's a very scary person." Especially the Collins family, they're all crazy.

That day, she would not have expected that Vanessa would call Chester back, even for the sake of covering up Alina's.

They covered up Alina.

It was also after that Emma knew that Alina could never be crushed by public opinion .

Because, the biggest resistance, the Collins family, didn't care, so there was no point in stirring up all that talk.

Kara, "So what you're saying is that there's no way for Alina to be gotten out of Ingford now?"

The eF had been waiting for her news.

Looking at Jay's attitude towards Alina, even if Alina didn't end up in the eF, Jay would definitely find a way to work with her.

It is said that he has already started contacting Brandon, Alina's assistant.

If Alina continues to stay in Ingford, especially now that she is becoming more and more famous, it is only a matter of time before she collaborates with Jay.

What would she be in eF then? Would there be any chance of her rising to the top?

Obviously, no.

And when Emma heard that there was no way for Alina to get out of Ingford, her brain was in buzz.

“Why does she want to be in Ingford while not remarrying Caleb?” Kara thought of something and raised a question.

After all, now that Shirling had the Lawson family behind her, so much so, why the hell is this?

Emma, “Why?”

Thinking about when Alina had first returned, although Alina loathed her, at least she didn’t have such tactics against her.

Yet why on earth, in this instant, was Alina so much more tactful towards her?

Especially during this period of time in Werland Villa, Emma didn’t feel that Alina was jealous.

After all, from what she had seen before, Alina seemed to have been very distant from Caleb, or was it that she said one thing and did another?

The moment she thought of this possibility, Emma’s hands trembled even more as she clenched her fists.

“Do you think she’s doing it for Caleb?” Kara looked at Emma, obviously reminding her.

Emma, “What else could it be for?”

Obviously, she didn’t know at all what exactly Alina wanted.

Kara, “You.”

According to Alina’s attainments in her career, it showed that she was smart and would not be someone who was tired of her feelings.

“Is there something else going on between you and her?” Kara got right to the point.

Seriously.

Ever since Alina returned to Ingford, she had been like a mystery.

Although there was a lot of trouble with Caleb, yet she was on very good terms with Vanessa.

Yet, she didn’t use it to solidify her position by Caleb, instead, she kept making like she was leaving Caleb.

“Over the odds?” When she heard about her own problems with Alina, Emma’s heart turned upside down.

Then there were too many problems between her and Alina.

Kara, “Are there any?”

“Too many.”

“Can there be any deep enmity?”

At the thought of it, Emma’s body trembled. Especially when she thought of Alina’s attitude towards her these past few days.

Could it be that she was aware of the truth?

Thinking of how ruthless Alina had been towards Nova that night, how Alina had tossed her around time and time again, Emma also just realized that maybe she knew about that incident.

“There can’t really be between you and her, can there?” Looking at the way Emma’s face turned white, Kara’s eyes became dull.

Emma looked at Kara in a wooden way, for a long, long time did not know how to react.

Alina came back for Emma.

At this moment, Kara had a very strong feeling in her heart.

If so, it would be even trickier to get rid of Alina.

“Kara, you have to help me.” Emma’s tone was trembling at this moment when she opened her mouth.

If Alina really knew about that matter, then what would she do?

Although at that time, she hated the entire Hughes family.

If this was really known, she was really scared. Although Alina had lost everything, she didn’t want to use her whole life as a price.

“How am I going to help you?” Kara glared at Emma without good grace.

If things were really as they thought they were, then Alina definitely wouldn’t leave Ingford so easily.

And she was now such a famous designer.

If she was really in Ingford, then Kara would not escape Alina's shadow no matter where she was.
