

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 229

Andre obviously sensed that something was wrong with Alina, and pulled the car to the side to stop and looked at Alina.

And Alina only said, "I'll be there tomorrow."

After hanging up the phone, she seemed to have lost her soul. Andre looked at her worriedly, "What happened?"

Alina could hardly feel anything.

Her world completely messed up.

Once those beliefs that her mother and father, her grandmother, had brought to her had turned her world upside down after knowing about that incident with her grandmother .

And now, in knowing about that car accident.

Her world had collapsed completely.

"Why?"

"Alina." Andre felt Alina's trembling and hugged her in his arms.

Alina looked at Andre, her eyes were red, and her tears could no longer be held back at this moment as they gushed out.

Once, she had a harmonious family.

In the end, it encountered such a big scourge.

She couldn't believe that it happened.

Andre's hot embrace and fresh breath soothed Alina, but this soothing effect, at the moment, was so fragile to her.

Her world had now collapsed.

"Tell me, what's happening?" Andre clearly felt the light trembling of Alina's body.

Tears were falling from Alina's eyes.

Andre, "Alina."

"It's Emma, it's Emma."

Andre, "What?" Obviously at this moment, Andre did not understand what Emma had done.

And Alina's emotions completely collapsed.

She roared, "Emma did it, she did it, she did it."

"Alina, Alina, calm down." This time Andre understood.

And Alina's body was trembling more than ever.

Andre knew that she was now completely furious.

Emma was behind the death of Alina's parents and grandmother.

How vicious was this woman?

Alina could not wait to kill Emma.

Once, Alina was such a gentle person, yet in the end, she was forced to such a point by Emma.

The two of them sat in the car for a long time before Alina finally calmed down.

However, in her chest, it was locked up like a beast, and at any moment, she would lose control of her emotions because of it.

'Andre lit a cigarette and took two puffs, and then said to Alina, "I'll go to Ingford with you."

Obviously, the matter was too big.

At this time, if Alina went to Ingford alone, no one knew what she could actually do when she lost control of her emotions.

And for Emma's sake, it would not be worth it to put her life on the line.

Alina, "No need."

These two words were said dryly.

Andre, "Alina."

"No need."

"You..."

"I know what you're worried about, don't worry, I won't." At this moment, Alina said all about revenge.

How could she have been mercy to Emma?

At this moment, no one knew what kind of shocking waves were churning in Alina's heart.

Mum and Dad were so in love with each other, both of them were in the car when the accident happened, how desperate they had to be for each other at that time?

After Mum and Dad were gone, Grandma was hospitalized.

At that time, what kind of despair did her heart endure?

To this day Alina looked back on it, "Do you know how dark that time really was for me?"

An intact family was lost like that.

The family members that were important to her at that time were all lost from her world completely.

At that time, Alina was in despair and pain. At that time, Julia and Vanessa were the ones who were by her side the most.

Although Vanessa was serious because she was not involved with Caleb, but she did care and pamper her like a family member.

That's why, no matter what time it was, she couldn't lay a deadly hand on Caleb.

Even if she hated him more, she had left room for Caleb, but now, Caleb had always protected Emma.

"Andre."

"Yeah?"

Andre knew about the dark times Alina had during that time, for her those were probably the most torturous years of her life.

"Find out, why exactly Caleb is so protective of Emma, what exactly happened between them."

She, for sure, had to know.

At least let her know what was really happening behind the scenes.

It did not seem that Caleb was so in love with Emma that the two were together.

Anyone knows that Caleb has always been a sensible but tough person.

As long as he wants to do something, then no one can stop him.

Therefore, during her absence, if he wanted to marry Emma, it was not something that could be stopped by the Collins family.

“Okay.”

Andre nodded his head.

All the way to the airport.

As Alina got out of the car, Andre pulled her, “I think I’d better go to Ingford with you.”

That hatred she had with Emma now was a hatred that could not be shared.

Therefore, Andre was uneasy.

Alina looked back at him, saying in a firm tone, “Stay in Shirling, the next is an unending feud between me and them.”

And Caleb’s usual tactic was to use Andre to threaten Alina.

Other things would be fine, but this time, for she would not let Emma go.

And according to her and Caleb’s toughness, no one knows at this time what would happen ahead.

And what Alina wanted was no worries on Shirling.
