

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 235

When Caleb arrived, he saw Chester and Alina standing in the cold wind, while Alina was wrapped in Chester's clothes.

At the moment, she was like a child being held in Chester's arms.

The two looked so good together.

"Sir." Tomas' heart was in his throat when he saw this scene.

In a small space, Tomas clearly felt the icy cold aura on Caleb's body.

Caleb, "Go get her into the car."

Yes, his legs are not convenient now. However, the next moment, Caleb said, "I want to get off."

At this moment, Caleb had probably never been this powerless before, hating this feeling of not being able to stand up.

Especially the day Emma fell he forced himself to stand up, adding harm to the already injured leg.

"It's better I go." Tomas got out of the car and went to invite Alina.

Chester embraced Alina as he got into the car, while asking dotingly, "Come on, take you to eat something delicious."

"Okay."

Alina was bored inside.

Since when on earth did she only want to vent out with food whenever she had such stuffy and heavy emotions?

However, her body was unable to gain weight no matter how much she ate.

The car door opened.

"Lady Alina." Tomas' apprehensive voice came from behind her.

Alina and Chester stopped in unison and turned around to see Tomas standing respectfully and apprehensively not far away.

Chester's eyes darkened.

That kind of danger, even from such a distance, Chester could feel it clearly.

“Master Caleb is here.” Tomas said respectfully.

It was a reminder to Alina.

And Alina obviously didn’t expect Caleb to come, his face sank. “Does it matter to me?”

She could remember that when Emma fell down the stairs, he had risen up like crazy.

Now he couldn’t even get out of a car?

Or had he gotten used to standing tall in front of her with his stance?

“Lady Alina.”

“Let’s go.” Without waiting for Tomas to finish, Alina turned around and got into Chester’s car.

Watching Alina get into Chester’s car without looking back, Tomas’ face changed as a result.

Obviously, this suspicious relationship originally should have avoided, he did not expect that Alina actually got into Chester’s car in front of Caleb.

Tomas only felt that the gaze behind him was sharper.

Chester gave Tomas a stern look before turning around and getting into the car. The car rushed out like a stray arrow.

...

“Sir.” Tomas did not know how to return to the car, and at this moment, looking at the gloomy expression on Caleb’s face, cold sweat was beading out on his forehead.

Caleb’s body was covered in hostility.

Alina, surprisingly, got into Chester’s car.

In Shirling, she was with Andre and her child, and now with Chester.

...

Alina looked out the window.

On the back of her cold hand, there was a sudden warmth, it was Chester.

Alina subconsciously tried to draw back her hand, however the man tightly held her hand.

Alina looked to Chester, "I am sorry."

Just now, at the thought of what Andre said, she knew exactly what scene would happen next with her, Caleb, and Emma.

So after weighing her options just now, she ended up getting into Chester's car, but that didn't mean that she had any attitude.

Chester froze for a moment.

A trace of bitterness flashed in his eyes.

Eventually, releasing Alina's hand, Chester said, "I know what you're worried about, all this will be taken care of."

Alina, "It's my own problem."

There are some things that she can't get past that hurdle in her heart, so how hard the people try, it's in vain.

Especially the relationship between Chester and Caleb, Alina thought, this has to be definitely dealt with.

Alina, "I don't have these thoughts right now."

All her thoughts are now on Emma, so, how could she have other thoughts?

The matter of feelings had been clean from her three years ago.

Chester nodded.

"Okay."

The man didn't say anything after all.

The next moment, after thinking about it, he looked at Alina and said, "Alina, as long as you don't cling to him, then everything that happens to you is quite natural."

Alina did not say anything about her feelings.

And it was feelings that Chester was talking about.

Could it be that a woman who was hurt by a man would never talk about feelings in her life?

Such a sacrifice, it's not worth it.

Alina looked towards Chester.

When she met the man's warm eyes, she only felt that there was some conviction within her heart, which was once again ruthlessly shaken by him.

Panicked, she averted her eyes, "I'm only thinking about Grandma and Mom and Dad right now."

"Well, I'm here to help you." The man said even more firmly, made Alina's heart slightly more comfortable.

When one was hurt, one always wanted someone to be by one's side.

Alina was the same.

Her three family members had gone because of Emma, so it was clear how badly she had been hurt.