

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 238

At this moment, Caleb and Alina were confronting each other.

Caleb suppressed the irritation in his heart, and said to Alina, "As I said, three days."

In the end, he accepted it.

Alina would voluntarily come to Werland Villa solely because Emma was here.

Once, meek as she was, now, before those prices came, she was constantly tormenting Emma.

But, she was so determined?

"I didn't promise you that." Alina said.

Caleb, "Haven't you thought about it, what if it's wrong?"

After all, it's just a photo, not even high definition, it's a screenshot of a video. And it wasn't front or side either, so the possibility of such a mistake was very high.

Alina, "Wrong?"

Alina laughed.

The moment she saw those two screenshots, she had already decided that there was no such possibility as 'what if'.

If there might have been, she would have really hoped it was real.

After all, once the Hughes family had gone to a lot of trouble for Emma. When she had first transferred to the city and her dad had gone to a lot of trouble to get her into the school.

"I wish there was that eventuality." Unfortunately, there wasn't.

Emma would have been instantly recognisable to her.

Such firmness had never existed in Alina's world, but now, she was firm.

So the eventuality that Caleb was talking about was simply impossible in her case.

Or, "Even if there really is that eventuality, she still deserves to suffer for all this now."

Alina's attitude was so strong.

Caleb's face instantly sank.

No matter what the reason was, Alina wouldn't stop easily.

There are still some scores to be settled when it's time to settle them, and why would this speed up the development of things? It was undoubtedly Caleb who forced her to do so.

If it were possible, Alina would not want things to come to this point.

It's a pity. All of this was because of Caleb.

Caleb could see Alina's firm attitude and had a headache. But there was no other way but to have Tomas speed things up.

Moreover, he was now in Werland Villa all day long.

At least the three days he would be here.

He wouldn't go out until the truth of the matter came out.

The way he was protecting Emma was pathetic.

At the dinner table.

Lois felt the tense.

Alina had probably eaten a bit too much at noon, so now she couldn't eat at all, plus she was full at the sight of all these people.

Emma sat on the opposite of Caleb, trembling, looking aggrieved.

"Eat." Caleb looked at Emma.

Emma nodded and sullenly responded with one word, "Okay."

From this tone of voice, it was even more evident that she was aggrieved.

Alina looked at Emma's doings. It just felt disgusting.

Once when she had just dined at the Hughes family, she had looked like this, and that was why her parents had treated her well at that time.

Alina never knew that it was possible for a person to pretend to be pathetic, and in Emma's case, she had seen it once and for all.

At that time, she didn't even know.

And looking at it now, this face was really disgusting.

The anger in her heart and that hatred surged up, the sound of table being lifted and Emma's screams mixed together.

Instantly.

The scene was in chaos, even on Caleb was not spared.

Dumbfounded, he was unable to react for a moment.

The not too hot soup all just spilled all over Emma.

Caleb's face even darkened. The moment he looked at Alina, the bottom of his eyes were all sinister.

"Alina." He uttered gnashing of teeth.

Even a meal could not be peaceful, when did this Werland Villa become so chaos?

Once, this place was like a harbour.

Returning here after a tiring day, all he felt was gentleness, yet now it was a mess?

Yes.

Using the word 'battlefield' to describe Werland Villa was not even half-exaggerated now.

Alina, "I don't want to eat."

She said with a straight face.

And Caleb was already in a rage, and now when he heard Alina say that she didn't want to eat, he was even more furious.

Just because she didn't want to eat, therefore it caused everyone to stop eating?

"If you don't want to eat, don't eat."

"I can't see her well."

Emma originally wanted to be in the hospital, but now it seems to be better to stay in that smell of disinfectant water.

But Chester was eyeing her up, so in the end staying in the hospital wasn't a good place to be either.

As long as there was Alina, Emma wouldn't have a good time. And ever since the Collins family incident, Chester would not let her go.

Now, looking at Chester and Alina's relationship, even if Emma was a fool, she knew that it was not only because of the Collins family.

It was because of Alina.

This torture that Chester was now inflicting on her was all because of Alina.

"Caleb, I..." Emma looked at Caleb, trembling all over.

Now everything was known to Alina, and looking at the fierceness in her eyes, Emma could tell that she knew it all.

It was because she knew it all that Alina was torturing her like this.

When she thought of this, Emma's heart choked even harder.

Pain spread across her heart.

"Alina." Caleb's anger was even more so as his heart continued to rise and fall.

Now Alina was crazy, Caleb and Emma were even more furious.

And as Alina looked at them being mad with anger, there was always a rare glimpse of happiness in her heart.

"What? Can't stand this?" Looking at the two's wretched appearance, the corners of Alina's mouth contained a smile that looked like a demon.

Lois finally reacted from the scene, stepping forward, "Lady Alina."

Looking at the wretchedness on Caleb, Lois was worried.

And Alina was deliberate.

She was now tossing Caleb along with Emma.

Watching him protect Emma made her sick.

“Did you think I wouldn’t dare to touch you?” Finally, Caleb looked at her dangerously.
