

I'm richer than my billionaire ex-husband novel

chapter 24

Although grandfather seen in the resuscitation room is not in good shape, but she did not expect the news of death would come so suddenly.

Another one of her protectors had gone from her world.

“Caleb.” Not waiting for Alina to think anything, Emma’s pained voice came from not far away.

Caleb looked over at Emma, his brow knitted.

Vanessa and Julia were standing together and Emma came up to Vanessa’s side, “Auntie Vanessa, how’s Max?”

Alina, at this moment, is clearly standing between them, but has a feeling of being excluded.

Perhaps, she actually does not care about such feelings, but seeing Emma, she could not help but be angry.

Alina stepped forward and slapped Emma right across the face.

Everyone in the room drew a breath of cold air as a result.

Without waiting for anyone to react, Alina grabbed Emma’s exquisitely groomed curls and slammed her head into the snowy wall.

A muffled, heavy sound rang out, accompanied by Emma’s muffled pain.

At this moment, Alina’s anger burned all her senses.

Why did Grandpa Max die suddenly?

Emma grabbed her wrist, “No.”

But now Alina, who seems to have lost all her senses, has completely failed to hear Emma’s pleas for mercy.

When she was about to grab her hair and hit it hard again, a force came from her wrist, so strong that she let go of Emma’s hair instantly, and without waiting for her to react, a force came from her shoulder and pushed her hard away.

“What are you mad about?” Caleb yelled in a cold voice, holding back his anger.

Alina looked at Caleb protecting Emma and her anger was raising. “Three years ago you saved this woman despite your child, and now you’re protecting her despite grandpa’s death?”

“Who are you to say such a thing?”

“Caleb, just because it was me that Grandpa ultimately protected in this marriage between you and me, I have that right.”

In this marriage, both the unfortunate beginning of this marriage and the end of this misfortune were due to her grandfather’s guardianship of her.

He was fulfilling his promise to her grandmother all the time, and even to his death, he was still protecting her.

In this way, how could she let go of the person who indirectly killed Max?

Vanessa froze at this.

She looked sharply at Caleb and landed on Emma with a cold, stern gaze.

“Caleb, what happened three years ago?”

Grandpa Max probably knew, but Vanessa knew incompletely that Caleb and Emma were involved, but not in the matter of child and bone marrow.

If only she knew that Emma’s new life was built on her grandson...

“Don’t you know, madam? Three years ago I was forced by them to take a desperate path.”

“Alina.”

Before she could finish her sentence, she was interrupted by Caleb’s stern voice, and now looked at Alina with a warning in his eyes.

And Emma’s face can not help but white, no one knows that in the past three years, if not for Caleb’s defense of her, the old Collins would have sent her to prison.

And even with Caleb in, she was threatened all the time, she wanted the old Collins to die, and she waited for this day for so long, knowing that the old Collins liked Alina, and that the thing between Andre and Alina must be able to stimulate the old Collins to pass away.

Originally, she was in no hurry. After knowing that the old Collins returned from Alina, and even more so from their divorce, she couldn't wait a moment longer.
