

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 241

The current Alina was a person who wouldn't listen to anything, and now it was as if she would just grab the opportunity.

She would change her ways to torment Emma.

This time, it was an even more serious scene than the situation in Werland Villa a few days before, and even Caleb was worried that Alina would go to the kitchen at any moment to get a kitchen knife.

Three years ago she couldn't do such a thing, but now Caleb is absolutely sure that Alina can do such a thing.

Therefore, he simply did not go out of Werland Villa.

In the morning, Tomas sent the documents over.

It was clear that Caleb really had nothing to do with Alina now.

Because of Alina's words in the morning, Emma had to come up to eat lunch, and during the meal, she sat warily in a seat far away from Alina.

Even Caleb didn't dare to come near her, and during the meal, Emma ate very quickly.

Several times she choked.

Yet she didn't dare to drink the soup.

That wretched look was probably something she had never thought of in her life.

After lunch.

Alina was picked up by Chester, and she could imagine how dark Caleb's face was.

Emma, "I want to go abroad."

This was the result of Emma's thinking all night.

Caleb, "Go abroad?"

"Yes."

She had thought about it.

Now with such a scene, the best way is to leave the country and avoid Alina for the time being..

Alina was too dangerous for Emma.

If this continues, she will really all be driven crazy.

Caleb's eyebrows were tightly knitted, "You won't be able to leave the country."

"Why?"

"Chester has blocked all your information, you can't go anywhere right now."

Her face was pale, and her body couldn't help but shake.

"He..." Emma definitely believe that the reason is Alina.

She did not expect things to be this serious.

It was definitely Alina who wanted that.

Alina knew about that incident, so now, surely she would not let herself leave Ingford.

Caleb, "Right now, when you leave Werland Villa, you will definitely be sent to North Eglinton by him."

The thought of that place made Emma's body shudder and cower even more.

She had never imagined that her time in Werland Villa would be so difficult, but North Eglinton was a place she definitely did not want to go to.

It was a place that many people had not lasted a week before returning because the climate was so harsh.

"So what am I going to do now?" Emma's eyes were full of tears as she looked at Caleb.

"I'm having a hard time now."

Emma said word by word.

In those previous days at Werland Villa, he felt the intensity of the scene just by listening to it.

And now, when he was out of sight, no one knew just how much more excessive Alina had gone.

Chester and Alina were pressing hard on Emmae, there was no way to escape.

"I'll die if this keeps up." Emma choked out, tears falling from her eyes.

“...”

“I didn’t do any of those things you think I did. Why should I be made to bear the burden of it all?”

“...”

“Caleb, if this goes on, I’ll really die.” Emma said in pain.

She was telling the truth, if this went on, who could bear it? Alina was really too hateful and ruthless.

If this continued, no one knew exactly what would happen.

She was really going crazy.

Who would have thought that this would have evolved to a scene that could not be handled, which could have been ended with a divorce?

Yes.

If this matter really has something to do with Emma, last night, Alina asked himself such a question, he said Emma couldn’t do it.

But what if? At that time, he denied, but during that night last night, Caleb had obviously still thought about this question.

“I will handle this matter, provided it has nothing to do with you.” Caleb looked at Emma and said in a deep tone.

‘Premise?’ , the premise was that it had nothing to do with her?

Then what if it was related to her?

At this moment, Emma realized even more clearly that if it was related to herself, then what would Caleb do?

Definitely, he would completely side with Alina.

If Caleb sided with Alina, then Emma would really be finished, and it would not be a matter of ruining the rest of her life.

Rather, she would, indeed, pay the price with death.

Thinking of this, Emma suppressed her emotion.

“It’s not about me.”

Even at such a time, she was still unable to admit it to Caleb.

This time things were different from the times before. Once she framed on Alina, she could use caring for Caleb as an excuse.

But what about now? Now, how was she going to explain?

“But I want to end all this now.” Go abroad, definitely go abroad.

According to all Emma is enduring now, it is normal for her to want to leave.

Alina is now doing everything against her.

Almost all of it was vented on Emma.

Alina had already been received by Chester at Waterside Villa.

Just like Chester, there were unique characteristics everywhere.

“Brandon worked overnight last night, it’s all almost ready.” Chester handed a cup of black tea to Alina.

Alina looked at it and froze.

“Gushan black tea.”

“You know it?”

“Yeah, the taste is very pure.” Alina was identifying it based on the smell.

“Knowing that you like it, I had some sent over.”

Knowing that she liked it?

Alina’s heart was fiercely touched by these words. Ever since she arrived at the Collins’, she had barely touched black tea.

Vanessa liked tea, but she liked green tea.

Grandpa Max liked green tea too.

And other people generally liked coffee, and the ones who knew her preferences well were Grandma and Mum, right?

Ever since they both passed away, Alina had never come across Gushan black tea and she didn't know where to buy it.

So now, sort of after the death of her mother and grandmother, it was the first time she had come across it.

At this moment, her heart was sentimental.
