

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 244

At the dinner table.

It was all the things that Alina loved to eat, and after receiving Brandon's call, she was all relaxed, at least at the moment.

She was prepared for the big show in Eglinton, and was only waiting for the decoration to begin.

He is now experienced enough to handle any show, and even the preparations before each one have gone so smoothly.

At this point, this is something that Emma definitely can't envy.

And when he saw Emma.

As soon as her face sank, Emma couldn't help but cower.

Alina really tossed Emma to be nervous during this period of short time.

Vanessa asked when she heard about the situation, "Is there something else in between?"

Vanessa knew about the confidence in Alina, and now based on Alina's reaction, she knew that there was something else, not as simple as what happened three years ago.

The maid Amara, "Who knows? Master Caleb is now guarding Werland Villa and has not gone out."

"Heh." When she heard this, Vanessa laughed sarcastically.

Alina was really tossing Caleb around.

Especially seeing that Alina had the desire to kill Emma, Caleb had to guard Werland Villa.

"You go first."

"Yes."

Amara nodded her head.

And then, Vanessa called Chester, but hung up directly before the caller got through.

Julia happened to come back from outside.

“Mom.” Seeing Vanessa, Julia ran and jumped forward.

Vanessa, “Call you sister-in-law and ask her to come back for lunch tomorrow.”

“You miss my sister-in-law again?”

Speaking of Alina, Vanessa sighed.

Originally, the bond between the two families was so deep, yet now it was a scene like this.

“Mother.”

“Yes?”

“It’s not what people outside say, I actually think that second sister-in-law is more like your daughter.”
Julia said as she rubbed herself in Vanessa’s arms.

Vanessa pushed Julia out of her embrace, and Julia saw Vanessa’s displeasure and knew that she had said the wrong thing.

But on this marriage between Alina and Caleb, many people felt that Caleb was biological.

Rather, it was Alina who was more like the biological one.

It seemed that no matter what happened between them, Vanessa, and even the entire Collins family, was on Alina.

To say that there wasn’t something in this, Julia didn’t believe it.

“Don’t talk nonsense.” Vanessa said in a painless manner.

Back then based on the previous generation’s emotional entanglement, Vanessa liked Alina.

Plus, Caleb had himself gone very far in this matter, so she was natural on Alina’s side.

“I’m not talking nonsense, everyone thinks so.”

“You...”

“Alright, alright, I won’t say it anymore.” Seeing Vanessa getting angry, Julia stopped talking.

Julia’s mouth closed, only then did Vanessa’s face stretch.

She said, “Remember to call your sister-in-law.”

“Yes, got it.”

...

Dinner was not yet over.

Emma ate with trepidation, fearing that Alina might lose her nerve and just lift the table all over her again.

The current Alina was just capable of such things.

For someone who had to eat so defensively, it had to be said that it was really torturous inside.

Especially for Emma, it was more than torment now.

The phone vibrated.

Alina looked at the number and it was Julia calling, so she picked up the phone directly.

“Julia.”

“Alina, mum asked you to come back for lunch tomorrow at noon.”

Julia on the other side of the phone said.

As soon as Alina heard this, she subconsciously looked at Caleb.

And Caleb’s face darkened even more, feeling that Alina was now getting too close to the Collins family.

The Collins family was on Chester, and this alone made Caleb uncomfortable.

Alina, “Okay.”

“Then I’ll go tell mum you’ve agreed, bye.”

Julia hung up the phone.

But actually, Alina wasn’t too busy. So it was fine to go anywhere.

Emma’s face wasn’t good now.

For Alina’s position in the Collins family, she had felt it early on that the Collins family was really good to her.

The kind of goodness that simply made her jealous.

Caleb, "When you go back tomorrow, there will probably be some questions for you, and I hope you won't involve more people in this."

"What do you think I will be asked?"

Alina laughed.

Now Emma is the most panicked, Chester only was hard for her.

If the entire Collins family were to target her, she probably wouldn't even have a chance to live.

She looked at Caleb with worry.

Alina gave her a stern look. Her so-called aggravation all put away..

She thought of the warning of that slap in the face that Alina had given earlier.

The current Alina was capricious, ready to lose temper whenever she was unhappy.

"Before things are concluded, I hope you can be rational." Caleb said in a not-so-nice tone.

As the words fell, the chopsticks in Alina's hand just smashed heavily on the table.

The moment she looked at Caleb, there was danger in her eyes.

Rational?

In front of grandma and parents' matters, he let her be rational?

"Caleb, don't you say anything." Emma was now afraid that these two would get into another fight, and no doubt it would be she that would suffer if this got out of hand.

Caleb's face sank, and in the end, he swallowed all the words that were on his lips.

He knew that it was impossible for Alina to be rational now.

In this matter of her parents, just by a shadow, she can almost determine.

Now the scene is chaotic enough.

If all the people of the Collins know, there is no telling what the scene will be, Emma only has one thought now, that is to leave Ingford.
