

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 245

The next day.

Emma's day was naturally not a good one, fortunately, after Alina used breakfast, she went to the Collins Castle in the morning.

Emma originally wanted to seize the opportunity to tell Caleb about leaving, but Caleb accompanied Alina to Collins Castle, so much so that she did not have a chance to speak.

When Alina came back and saw Caleb coming back with her, Vanessa's face didn't look too good.

"Is your leg better?" She asked.

Caleb nodded, "It's much better."

"You still need to take care of it. There are some injuries that are not worth suffering." , Vanessa said in an even worse tone.

She was aware of what Caleb had done that day to force himself to stand up for Emma.

He was tangled with Emma, yet still tightly entangled with Alina.

Vanessa had experienced it before.

It is because of the experience, she knew what role a woman play in the relationship.

However the worldly gaze always favored the man, and in such an unpleasant relationship, it was always the woman who was hurt and slammed.

"Alina."

"Yes."

"Come with me, I have some things to ask you." Vanessa stood up, and at that moment was covered in the elegant air of a noble lady.

And when he heard that Vanessa was going to take Alina to the side to ask questions, Caleb's already not-so-good face had sunk even further at this moment.

As Alina followed Vanessa, he uttered, "Alina." It was clearly a reminder and a warning.

Alina, "Let's talk right here."

Even as she said these words, she looked at Caleb. She knew why exactly did he follow her here.

It's a pity.

She will still say whatever she should say.

Vanessa raised her eyebrows, as shrewd as she was, she naturally heard the meaning implied in the two people's tone.

Sitting down, she said, "Fine, say it here."

She then gave Caleb a warning glance.

Vanessa, "Alina, tell me, what exactly has happened during this time."

"I'll say it."

Caleb chimed in.

Alina looked fiercely at Caleb.

However, without waiting for the man to continue speaking, he was interrupted by Vanessa, "I want to hear what Alina says."

The original scene was not good, and now with Vanessa's assertive attitude, the air was tense.

Caleb looked at Alina, and in that glance, there were countless warnings.

Vanessa, "You don't need to look at her."

Alina, naturally, saw Caleb's warning to her.

For Emma, what else is there that he can't do?

He had done so many things before, now this really didn't seem to be anything to Alina.

Alina's mobile phone vibrated, and when he looked at the number, it was from Shirling, so she subconsciously hung up the phone.

However, just after hanging up, the phone rang again.

Who else but Penny could be so persistent and not even worry that she would be angry with the call?

Alina picked up the phone, "Baby."

Vanessa's originally cold, hard and serious face softened when she heard that it was the child calling.

Such a slight change was naturally felt by Caleb.

This Collins family is simply becoming more and more unreasonable.

Even if they protect Alina, even the child between her and Andre is so important.

A moment ago, Alina was arrogant, now she was now endlessly gentle towards the little girl on the phone.

Since when on earth could she return sunshine to the world, while casting wind and rain in his world?

Not much later, Alina finished the phone call.

Megan said a few words to her on the phone, saying that Vanessa would buy some things to mail over anytime.

They were all things that the child liked.

It could be seen that this grandmother was very attached to the child.

Alina gave Vanessa a complicated look.

"Say it now." Vanessa's face became serious, obviously why exactly did Caleb follow Alina back today, she had sort of seen it.

Her feeling was no wrong.

Something was going on this time.

"It's because of Emma."

"Alina." Just as the words fell, she was interrupted by Caleb fiercely, apparently, Alina was not threatened by him in any way.

In front of Vanessa, even in front of him, the matter was completely spilled out.

Caleb's heart was heaving.

Vanessa, "Shut up."

"As I said, until everything is thoroughly confirmed, I hope you can be rational."

“Then can’t I say my guesses?”

Originally, this matter was kept under wraps, but Caleb knew about it, so naturally Emma knew about it.

Alina did not care and just told the truth.

She said, “I saw that photo very clearly, it was Emma. She was the last person to go to the ward before my grandmother died.”

“...”

“So my grandmother’s passing is speculated to be related to Emma.”

Caleb’s face was sullen.

Alina continued, “And my parents’ car, I ‘guessed’ that it was Emma who bribed the man who did the maintenance on my dad’s car.”

“Because Emma met that man before the car accident. That man disappeared after Mom and Dad had the car accident and had an extra 3 million on his card.”

Although that photo, which did not show the face, was speculative.

Caleb’s temples were pounding, and Vanessa didn’t know how she should describe her feelings at this moment.

She just looked at Caleb.

Her eyes shone with endless astonishment.

Although it was said to be ‘speculation’, but from Vanessa’s perspective, this matter was simply nine out of ten.
