

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 247

With those words, Julia was speechless.

So many things had happened on Oklens, and afterwards, based on Caleb's attitude, it seemed that he knew that it was Emma's doing.

However, even though he knew so much, he still protected Emma.

What exactly was it that made Caleb defend Emma so unconditionally?

"Oklens, he knows everything, and now?" Thinking about Oklens, Vanessa was more disappointed.

Julia, "Don't think about it for now, mother, I think Caleb must have his own proposition on this matter."

"He's threatening Alina not to tell us."

Thinking about how Caleb warned her in those words before Alina said that thing today, Vanessa was angry.

Before the trip to Oklens, Emma was too well hidden, Caleb didn't know anything, so it was fine to protect her so much.

But now it was different.

Caleb clearly knew everything, yet in such a situation, he still protected Emma so much.

This was what Vanessa could not tolerate the most.

"But now..."

"Julia, all right." Julia hadn't finished her words when she was interrupted by Vanessa.

Obviously, there was no longer the heart to listen further.

Julia looked at Vanessa apprehensively, wanting to say something for Caleb, and at this time, she obviously couldn't say anything.

Vanessa was too angry and disappointed in him.

When Alina came out of the Collins Castle, she was intercepted by Chester and then taken directly to Waterside Villa.

After yesterday's scene, Alina always avoided Chester.

However, Chester, "I know what's in your mind, Abby, it's over between you and him, your future is brand new, do you understand?"

But to think that Chester is Caleb's big brother, Alina's heart was just incomparably torn.

"Chester, you're a good man. There have been quite a few girls who have liked you, right?"

"Abby."

"I don't deserve it." Alina said very firmly.

Although Caleb had always been saying that Chester was not a good person, at least to Alina, he was a kind person.

But there was too much badness in her.

Before she married Caleb, she had been raped, and had that rapist's child.

Although that child didn't stay in this world.

But to Alina, that was a stain that she could not erase from her life, plus she now had a daughter between her and Caleb.

So in this matter, between her and Chester, where is it possible?

How slim the chances were.

"Don't talk about yourself like that." The man's tone was cold and hard, and a force came to Alina's wrist at the same time.

The man's force was so heavy that Alina was in pain.

And in this instant, Chester let go of Alina.

In his eyes, there was even more dullness.

Alina sat up straight, her tone was not as hysterical as it was in front of Caleb, but as calm as it had ever been.

"You know, before I married Caleb, I was already covered in filth, and now I still have a daughter with him."

"Abby."

“I’ve seen a psychiatrist and I’ve been pregnant with who knows whose child. You know that, don’t you?” Even after so many years had passed.

At this moment, Alina was talking about it, her heart was still choking badly.

That pain was almost tearing.

No one knew that that night had haunted her like a nightmare for a long, long time, leaving her unable to calm down for a long time.

Even her body was trembling uncontrollably.

It was clear how much that night had affected Alina.

The next moment, she was dragged into the man’s arms.

“Abby, it wasn’t your fault.” The man’s tone was soothing with pain and tightening.

Chester wanted to find the person who had done it that night and shred him to pieces.

It was just a pity.

It had been so many years.

No matter what exactly he used on his side, he couldn’t find that person out.

“But I’m dirty.” Alina said with even more trembling.

This was something that she hadn’t dared to face up to all these years, and now, she said it with such trembling.

“Abby.”

Chester’s throat was tight.

Especially at this moment, after feeling this trembling of Alina, he even wished to break Caleb into pieces as well.

Not only had Caleb failed to protect Alina all these years, as a husband he even put a knife in her already bruised heart, adding insult to her injury.

The only reason why Alina has not been driven mad is because of the strength of her inner world.

If it were anyone else, he would have been unable to bear it, right?

Yes.

In Chester's opinion, if it were anyone else, he would have already been unable to bear it.

He held Alina in his arms with such compassion.

Alina took several deep breaths before she pressed down the stuffy weight in her heart.

"Can you let go of me?" In her tone, it was all detachment.

Clearly, no matter how vulnerable she was in the situation, she still subconsciously wanted to keep her distance from Chester.

Yet instead of letting go of her, the man held her even tighter.

He murmured softly in her ear, "Things will be over soon."

If it wasn't for the words spoken today, Chester wouldn't have known that all these years Alina's heart had been suffering from pain and injury.

And these pains, mixed in with the ones Caleb had put on her, was something that Chester could not allow.

"No, I don't want it to be over so soon." With Chester, it was clear that she was not on the same page, she was talking about Emma.

Everything that had happened between her and Emma had only just begun now.

How could it end just like that?

How could she be willing to show mercy to Emma?

"Okay, all yours." The man's tone was one of endless doting.

Obviously, Chester listened to her completely.

When she said when it would end, how it would end, it was at her beck and call.

"Let's go in first and see what Brandon has prepared in the past few days?"

"Okay."

Alina nodded.

...

Brandon had been working almost overtime these past few days to prepare.

These few years with Alina, he had already participated in quite a lot exhibition shows, so he was very familiar with these processes and prosceniums.

Alina looked at the finished products that had already been made.

This is really much better looking than that on his phone, it's very aesthetically pleasing.

"Have the models been contacted?" Alina asked Brandon.

Brandon, "It's the list given by Master Chester, all of them are made according to their sizes, all of them are some first-line big names."
