

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 250

Now the scene is considered a complete outbreak.

Before originally the so-called three days Alina did not agree, now Caleb gave such a result out.

"Alina." Caleb's brain was hurting badly.

Alina, "This time, I'd like to see if the spit of the entire Ingford women can drown Emma to death."

"I said it's not her."

"It will drown you too."

Not to mention that woman was disguising, even if she was turned into dust, Alina would definitely recognize her.

Caleb was now using the Cooper family to put her off?

She will definitely set off a fishy storm to extinguish these two.

And Caleb can see that the current Alina is completely crazy.

What she has decided in her heart, few people can change, and Caleb has now discovered that she has decided that it was Emma.

In the basement, Emma was happy to hear the conversation on the phone.

Even, she was very satisfied with her masterpiece, Alina, as long as there was no evidence, could not do anything to her.

No one knew that during this period of time, she had been distracted by Alina, and at any time she was worried that the matter would be completely exposed.

But now, well, all this no longer needed to worry about her.

The only thing she had to do now was to fight for Caleb.

"That's right, when it's over, there's no shortage of benefits for you."

The door was kicked open from the outside.

The phone in Emma's hand fell to the ground in fright, and Alina appeared at the door with a hostile look on her face.

Her heart was trembling.

"What are you doing?"

In this instant, a slap on her face.

Her eyes were filled with hatred as she looked at Alina, and wished to completely tear Alina apart, "What are you doing?"

As soon as the words left her mouth, her hair was grabbed by Alina's hand.

Without waiting for Emma to react, she was viciously smashed against the wall by Alina, and instantly only felt like her brain was going to be scattered.

"Lady Alina." Tomas' voice rang out in shock.

He had seen the way Alina and Emma were confronting before, but looking at her hatred for Emma, Tomas stepped forward and grabbed the hand that was about to slam Emma again.

Tomas, "Calm down."

"Tomas."

"Yes."

"Let go."

"Lady Alina."

Alina, who was now completely out of her mind, did not expect this result that Caleb gave today.

It had completely angered Alina.

"If you take Miss Bell's life now, you will go in prison because of this." Just as Alina grabbed Emma again, Tomas warned in a somewhat urgent tone.

And Emma was now so brain-dead from Alina's beating.

She, more and more, regretted that day at AIG, and thus now unable to stand up, not even able to fight with her.

She had grown up in the countryside since she was young, if she really fought with Alina, Alina's strength would definitely be no match for her.

Now, she couldn't even use half of her strength.

"Humph." Alina coldly snorted and slammed Emma onto the table, causing Emma to stifle a grunt of pain.

Alina patted Emma's wretched face, how humiliating.

Alina said, "It's not worth going in prison for someone like you, but I'm telling you, this matter is not over."

"..."

"No matter what kind of tactics you use, I will definitely, little by little, beat you back to your original form."

Caleb wanted to fool her with a document like that? That depends on whether Alina agrees to it.

"Isn't there all the evidence? Who are you to treat me like this?" At the moment Alina turned around, Emma was hysterical.

Alina paused in her steps and gave a slight sideways glance.

With just one fierce look, Emma couldn't help but cower.

This woman was terrifying.

Alina, "I know exactly what you are. You think you've handled everything cleanly?"

"..."

"But I'll make you regret that you didn't go into prison." Staying outside in such a way would only make her hurt more.

Dropping her words, Alina left.

Emma's face, however, was white.

Especially Alina's words of regret.

She was now truly wishing to leave here. It's just that things have come to this point, so what if she regrets hooking up with Caleb?

Nowadays, who else but Caleb can protect her?

If she had known that entangling with Alina and Caleb would lead to such a result, and that she would not have given a name after all these years, she would not have...

It's just that having come to this point, she had no choice but to entangle herself with Caleb.

She knew very well that once she left Caleb, she would only end up worse off.

Upstairs.

Caleb was waiting for Alina.

The moment he saw Alina come up, his eyes were cold.

"What? Afraid I'll get her killed myself?" Tomas was there just now, so what else could it be but that Caleb had instructed him to go there in such a hurry?

Caleb's eyes dimmed.

"Why do you have to do this?" he said.

In that case, did he decide that the document was true?

"Caleb, if you decide that the document is true and hand it over to the police, I guarantee that you will regret it."

"Lady Alina, the document is true, I personally..."

Tomas didn't finish his words before he was slapped again by Alina, she was just so direct now.

Dealing with Caleb alone is tiring enough, so now because of Emma's matter, anyone who disturbed her would be beaten.

"Tomas, I hope you grow a memory. Remember these two slaps, in the future in front of me do not help Emma say good words."

Caleb frowned.

Obviously Tomas didn't expect today's Alina to be so hot-tempered now.

In the end, she changed.

Now anyone who dared to say half a word in favor of Emma would seem to be fighting against Alina.

“You should go back first.” Caleb frowned as he glanced at Tomas.

There were red marks on both sides of his face, obviously from the beating he had just given in the basement.

Thinking about Alina’s temper, now Caleb’s brain hurt even more.
