

I'm richer than my billionaire ex-husband novel chapter 26

The old Collins's death stirred the Ingford, and as Vanessa said, the old Collins was firm and unyielding.

Alby Collins, Caleb's father who was abroad, arrived back in time, as did Caleb's older brothers, Chester Collins and Tristan Collins.

The Collins' funeral was a grand affair, with many of Ingford's most prominent family members coming to pay their respects.

Although Alina and Caleb had a bad relationship as husband and wife, she ended up appearing at the funeral as Master Caleb's wife, and rumors about her and Andre were rampant at this time.

So her presence in this capacity is rather shocking.

At this moment in the apartment, Emma watched the live funeral on TV. The cup in her hand smashed hard on the floor.

Kara, the assistant sitting on the side, doesn't look too good either.

"Have you spoken to Mr. Collins or not? We have to hurry out. No your work is not good, a successful show will make you get twice the result with half the effort."

Last time, the show was supposed to belong to Emma.

But Alina came out of nowhere and make her to the top of wedding dress design again.

And Emma didn't accomplish anything in that show.

There are also rumors that Emma's work may have been copied from Alina's. This is not a good situation, and a bigger show is urgently needed to reverse this bad situation.

But in such a situation, the sooner to reverse, the better, the longer the silence, the greater the impact on Emma.

"The old Collins has just died now, and if I'm going to bring it up at this time..." Emma said in a somewhat annoyed tone.

And when it comes to that, she can't say it herself.

People on the outside thought she was Caleb's sweetheart because of his engagement to her.

Alina's sudden return has also led to constant comparisons of the two of them together.

However, only Emma knows how she stood up to Caleb and what her place in Caleb's heart was.

She knows all about.

As a result, she has been very cautious, Kara simply does not know the aggravation in her heart.

"You are his fiancée, but an ex-wife accompany him to the funeral."

Kara gave Emma a somewhat disappointed look.

Emma's face was already not good, and now when she heard Kara say this, her heart was blocked with cotton as hard as it was.

When she came out of the hospital, Vanessa slapped her across the face and said, "I've never seen such an ungrateful and vicious person in the Hughes family."

Vanessa said she was a bitch, and when she first met her, she said she was no match for Alina.

Vanessa obviously doesn't like Alina either, but why is she so protective of Alina in front of her?

And she even said that the Hughes family raised her as an ungrateful and vicious person. Does Vanessa think she cares for the Hughes family to raise her? How much did her mom give to the Hughes family? She is getting what she deserves.

What kind of favor? Just picking up some things that Alina hates to wear? That's a favor?

"Okay, stop it." Emma didn't want to hear any more about today's funeral.

Grabbing the remote control, she turned off the TV.

And then she walked to the side to open a bottle of red wine, did not pour into the glass, directly tilted her head and drew half a bottle down.

The wine tasted bitter, like her heart.
