

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 264

Everyone in the room was overwhelmed by the reaction to Emma's move.

Emma, too, was forced to do nothing else, and if she could, she would never want to bow down to Alina in her life.

And she, naturally, after all this time, knows what kind of person Brodie really is.

Tomorrow if he doesn't receive the money, then he will definitely talk directly to Alina about the deal.

Now Emma really can't care anymore her dignity, she just wants to follow Alina closely.

"Emma, you're sick in the head, aren't you?" Finally, Alina sort of completely reacted.

Was Emma admitting fault to her?

No.

According to Emma's temperament, there was no way she could admit that she was wrong, unless something had happened in her world.

Yesterday, there was still money needed.

And now she showed up.

To say that this was not a great event, Alina did not believe it.

"Alina, I was the one who wronged you before, I really know I was wrong, don't kick me out now, okay?"

"..."

"We're still the same as when we were kids."

At this moment, Emma had probably forgotten just how many odds there were between them.

What a fool's errand.

"Brandon."

"Yes."

"I don't want to see this woman." Whatever this woman had in mind, as long as she doesn't let up, then things will always come out, and she wants to see what it's all about.

She was able to force Emma to bow down.

“Yes.”

Brandon nodded, his eyes full of hostility as he stepped forward.

And when Emma saw that Alina didn't care at all and wanted to kick her out, Emma was really going crazy and breaking down.

“Alina, I really know I'm wrong, give me a chance, give me a chance, okay?”

“Fine, so tell me, what's going on in your world?”

According to the nature of this woman, it is absolutely impossible to bow down in front of her, and at this time Alina really wants to know what on earth had driven Emma to the point where she would not hesitate to bow down.

How could Emma dare to tell Alina? The relationship between them had broken down long ago, so how could she dare to tell Alina about Brodie?

“Nothing, just, just realising my mistake.” That was such a far-fetched thing to say.

And as the words fell, Alina laughed with such irony.

“Emma, how could you be wrong?”

How could she be wrong when this whole world was full of people who had wronged her?

Alina was about to leave, yet the moment she turned around, Emma's heart was already in her throat.

“I really know it's wrong, I...”

Nowadays, Alina would not listen to anything. Emma had hurt her that much, how could Alina give Emma understanding?

Impossible.

Alina has long since ceased to be the same person.

...

Caleb's eyes flashed with hostility when he knew that Emma had chased Alina here and had given Alina a kneeling apology.

“Alina has pushed Emma to this point and she still won't let go?”

At the sound of that, Tomas was nervous.

To put it mildly, Alina had really been pressing Emma hard all this time.

But it was really tough to go to this point.

After all, everything Alina wants now is just in having to get what is hers back.

“Where is she now?”

“In the hotel.”

Caleb nodded.

The fact that Emma would admit her mistake to Alina was something Caleb had not expected, although Emma had not been in a good position since she was a child.

But there is, of sorts, some resilience and pride in her, and such people are often the most reluctant to bow down.

It is not easy to make such a person bow down. Alina has taken things to the most extreme level.

The show began.

Chester was always by Alina, Joanna and Brandon were there, and the small team behind her, in this moment of glory, naturally had to follow her.

The live broadcast was a global sensation.

Alina watched each of her creations being worn by the models walking on the high platform with such beauty that she could not help but be moved to tears in her eyes.

Caleb and Emma, naturally, would not be there, as Chester would not agree. These two, at the moment, were so sensitive to Alina.

And this night is so important to Alina.

How could he allow anyone to spoil this moment for Alina?

In the hotel.

Emma watched those works of Alina on the live TV. Even though she hated Alina, she could see every piece of Alina's work at a glance.

Especially when the host was introducing these works of Alina, even among so many big-name designers, her works stood out from the highlights at a glance.

There's simple, there's ornate. Each piece carries her unique character.

And when there was one, she really didn't see it at a glance, and when she heard the host introduce it, Emma looked at the beautiful wedding dress.

It was as if she had seen that dream in her heart.

Since when on earth has Alina reached such an attainment in her designs?

Before, although her personality and characteristics were particularly well defined, she was in the end a novice designer and more or less childish.

And that previous success of Alina, in Emma's opinion, was more or less created by the momentum created by Andre.

Now, however, upon seeing this design on the high stage, Emma has to admit that Alina's skills are above many others.

Even if, she hated Alina so much.

This work of Alina is a breakthrough for Alina.

In a great showcase, Alina has fully demonstrated her as a rising star.

The moment the host invited her on stage to give her speech, Alina's heart thumped because there was no such preparation.

Subconsciously, she looked at Chester, yet the man's mere glance gave Alina endless courage.
