

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 266

When it was time to go back, Alina got straight into Chester's car under the gaze of everyone, and what she got was all the blessings.

Eventually with the line 'Her in-laws are on her side.' it reverse everyone's suspicions about her.

Since her in-laws are on her side, it means that the problems in the marriage are not really her fault.

So when she got into Chester's car, everyone looked at her without a difference in their eyes.

Her courage to choose what many people would not dare to choose.

However, no one knows exactly why Alina made such a choice tonight.

In the car.

Warmth came from the back of her cold hand, it was Chester's palm that held her hand and chased away the coldness in it.

Alina subconsciously had to draw away.

"Alina," Chester suddenly spoke as she was just making a move.

Alina took a deep breath, "I'm sorry."

"I know."

Looking fiercely at Chester, guilt flashed in her eyes.

For Emma's sickness and Caleb's madness, Chester naturally saw Alina's attitude clearly, she was trying to get rid of Caleb in this way as soon as possible.

In this marriage, Caleb protects Emma, yet he is reluctant to say goodbye to Alina.

At this rate, who knows what kind of things Caleb could actually do, yet whatever it is, now Alina no longer wants to continue.

"I'm willing to do it." Without waiting for Alina to say anything, Chester said in a gentle tone.

At Chester's words, Alina was surprised.

He knows everything.

As Alina thought, Chester knew that Alina's sudden change tonight and that she was using him.

Yet even so, so what?

"Chester."

Chester squeezed her hand.

Chester said, "Since you have decided to end it with him in this way, and have convinced the world of your courage, why do you have to cower like this?"

Tonight, Alina met Caleb's fierce eyes in that spotlight, letting everyone know that a person, in fact, can make any kind of choice as long as they muster up the courage.

"I..."

"I know you're not ready to end up with him right now."

Without waiting for Alina to say anything, she was directly interrupted by the man.

What she did tonight not only solved everyone's doubts, but was telling the world that it would be over between her and Caleb.

And Chester was happy to see it.

Alina took several deep breaths before she could press down the stuffiness in her heart.

"Okay."

Everything would wait until the matter of Caleb is taken care of.

...

An earth-shattering scandal spread all over the city.

She dines with Alina said at Werland Villa, who eventually moves away from Werland Villa.

Surprisingly, she was the one who forced Alina away.

Once such a rumour came out, with the shocking public opinion, she thought that whoever it was, knew that in this lawsuit Caleb would lose.

And she was about to be sentenced to return everything to Alina.

She is now a notorious person, and she's going to have a hard time for a long time to come.

“Alina, this bitch.” Emma wished to tear Alina apart.

Originally, it is absolutely unacceptable to the world that Alina and Chester involved with each other, but Alina was so clever.

She hadn’t noticed that before.

A phone call came from Brodie.

On the phone, the man’s attitude was so forceful that Emma’s heart was churning madly, but her tone was stoic.

“I said, when this is over, I’ll give you any kind of benefit you want.”

“Are you still going to win?”

The man said in a mocking tone.

At this, Emma’s face went pale.

Will she win?

Even a fool would know that based on all the evidence Alina had received in the past, she would definitely not win here.

What’s more, it has now incited such astonishing public opinion.

“I will win.” At this moment, Emma said with confidence to Brodie.

Yes, she’s going to win.

Definitely, she will win.

And she had to win, because there was really no way out but to win.

Alina was pressing down on her head at all times, and now, how could she lose? Just looking at the situation, she knew that this so-called win for her was so remote.

“Emma, I advise you to...”

“I will win, I will win.” Without waiting for the man to finish, Emma said fiercely to Brodie.

She would definitely snatch everything that belonged to Alina.

How could all the years of preparation be for nothing? What kind of effort had she put in all these years?

She fought for Caleb.

Why should she have to declare the end of everything when Alina returns?

“Give me what I want, in the time allotted.”

Where does she go to get that much money?

Even though Emma was so confident at this time, she had to admit that in the time set by Brodie.

There is absolutely no way her account will be unblocked.

It's a really bad day for Emma, but even if it's worse, it won't change a thing.

She has to keep everything.

It was even decided that all this loss for her now was because of Alina.

Caleb, too, was furious.

Tonight Alina announced in such a big show, in such a way that the once unbearable between them.

She was shameless herself, but she reaped the blessings of all.

All the way to the hotel, Caleb hadn't even calmed down.

“Didn't they leave early in the morning? How come they haven't come back by now?” , Alina left the field, and this is when he came back.

However, up to now, there was no sign of Alina.
