

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 267

Tomas looked at Caleb with a stony face, wanting to say something, yet at this moment nothing could be said.

Tomas did not expect that Alina was really too bold, on such an important occasion, even in front of the whole world, she had said such a thing.

Tomas really admired Alina's courage.

"Find out where the hell she is." The man's tone was all icy cold.

He's been back for a full two hours, and neither she nor Chester has returned yet.

"Yes."

Tomas listened to the danger in Caleb's tone and knew that this patience of Caleb had now reached its limit.

He hurried up to find out exactly where Alina has gone.

Having the result, Tomas had to admit how bold Alina was.

He just felt that if Caleb knew, there was no telling how the world would be turned upside down.

"Sir."

"Say it."

Listening to Tomas' tone, Caleb probably knew that Alina must be up to no good again.

Apprehensively glancing at Caleb's face, Tomas did not know what to say for a while.

And Caleb was an impatient man, said in a grim tone, "Say it."

Even Tomas felt a headache at the moment, and at the beginning he only felt that Alina had a bad temper.

And now, this is now kind of getting worse.

Tomas said, "Master Chester has taken Lady Alina over to the Mordecai International Hotel."

So, they are not living here anymore?

Why?

Because, here he is.

Now after knowing that Chester had moved away with Alina, Caleb's body exuded even more danger.

The aura, as if it were about to burst out at any moment, was constantly bulging.

Tomas, "And now?"

"Move away."

In fact, at the time of learning this news, Tomas felt that this was to be expected.

Although the Eglinton Show has now ended, according to Chester's connections, he will definitely take Alina to stay here for a few more days now.

Then meet more people who can help Alina, this is to push Alina's career to the top again in one fell swoop.

And in this hotel, there was not only Caleb, but Emma. Alina has made a complete narrative at the exhibition show.

So now nothing she does to Caleb is too much, especially since there is still Emma in this hotel, and this is where Alina will not hold back even more.

Alina, after arriving at the hotel, was in a room with Joanna, in the same presidential suite.

Joanna, "Master Chester is so good to you."

"..."

"In the past, when Caleb had any good resources in his hands, he would hate to put them in front of Emma."

There is just a sour note in Joanna's tone when it comes to this.

Alina, "Yes."

Whatever good resources Caleb had in his hands, he gave them to Emma.

Now whatever good resources Chester has in his hands are given to her.

"I've had a lot of light together with you."

“What nonsense.”

“I’m telling the truth, I didn’t expect Master Chester to have such a wide range of connections.” Those people he introduced are all seniors that they have previously admired.

Even if they are up-and-coming, they are really not good enough in front of these seniors.

Alina, “I didn’t expect it either.” This was said with truth.

Joanna looked at Alina and said.

She admired Alina’s mental qualities.

While tearing Caleb and Emma apart, her career has not been left behind at all.

Many women in the marriage change delay themselves, while the men are dashing.

When it came to Alina, things were directly switched around.

Alina said, “Joanna.”

“Yeah?”

“I have, at one time, lost too much because of them.” Alina said with a sigh, and what was said was the truth.

Once, it was because those people she lost so much.

So now, whatever happens in her world, she has to stand at the top.

Never again will she lose any to these people.

Once, Alina was willing to leave herself behind for Caleb.

Now, in the end, it’s not the same.

“You’re doing the right thing now.” Joanna said to Alina.

She was the happiest person in the world, with a loving mother, father and grandmother, and her world was a gentle place.

Yet all this gentleness was eventually ruined for her by the kindness of her parents’ financial support.

The badness of Emma was not seen by many people at the beginning.

“So now, there won’t be anyone to feel sorry for Emma.” Alina said as she looked at Joanna.

Some time ago, Emma went so far as to try to hurt her with public opinion, and it was heartbreaking to watch someone suffer for what happened to Emma then.

When she looked at those remarks, Alina felt ridiculous.

Does someone like Emma need them to be pitied?

Apparently, no.

She had one of the biggest supporters who loved her, but no matter who loved her, what did not belong to her, did not belong to her after all.

Caleb was calling, and Alina looked at the number and flipped the phone right over.

There was clearly no intention to pick it up.

Joanna, “Caleb’s call?”

“Yes.”

“He is really haunting.” That’s really true.

Now, what is Caleb to her but a ghost that won’t go away?

“I just can’t understand this man, he’s having an affair with Emma while he’s pestering you.”

At this point, Joanna really couldn’t understand what Caleb meant.

Alina looked at Joanna and laughed, “No one knows what is in his mind.”

“...”

“He saw it clearly what kind of person Emma is when he was in Oklens before, didn’t he?”

“Yes.”

This is what is most baffling about Joanna.

“Don’t worry, Andre is checking it out for me now.”

She would like to see what really happened between Emma and Caleb.
