

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 269

Alina has always been an opinionated person, and this time she made such a statement at such an important show.

This made Andre even more worried that Alina would lose his way under Chester's fierce attack.

After all, the beginning between her and Caleb was not a good one, but if Chester could have given her that good one.

So, will she easily fall for Chester's tenderness?

At this point Andre was really worried about Alina.

"What kind of nonsense are you talking about?"

"Alina, you've had that experience, but it's not all denied that you're emotionally uninvolved."

At that time, if she had bit of experience in love, then she wouldn't have lost so badly to Caleb.

"Well, I'll go back to Ingford and end it with Caleb first."

She did not want to wait.

Naive Caleb really has no self-awareness at all when it comes to this point.

And speaking of ending it with Caleb, Andre returned to the main topic, "There's something."

"What?"

"Caleb has sued you and me, so I guess he is pissed off."

"Sue us?"

When she heard these words, Alina felt that she must have misheard, otherwise how could she have heard such words?

Andre answered, "Yes."

"Sue us for what?"

"Bigamy."

During this period of time, Ingford was in an uproar and thought that Caleb was hating to get rid of her.

She didn't expect him to make such a move.

But now, hearing that Caleb had sued her and Andre, Alina had heard a joke.

"He hasn't figured it out after all this time."

In fact, he doesn't know anything.

Andre felt ridiculous when he received the news.

"So, did that drive him out of his senses?"

"Yeah."

Or rather, Caleb has never been normal in his head, at least in Alina's opinion, this man really has never been normal.

Anyone with even a modicum of normality would not have acted in such a way.

"I really don't know what to say about him." Alina said with a grunt.

Andre, "So this time..."

"What should be known will be known sooner or later, just the child..." Other than that, Alina is still not worried.

Once the relationship between her and Andre was really known to Caleb, Caleb will definitely associate the child with it.

This is what worries Alina the most at the moment.

"So, what's your plan?"

"Let me think about it." Alina said with a sigh.

She didn't expect this to really force Caleb to sue her.

Since this man was going to sue her, she was bound to think of a better way out.

It's a big deal when it comes to the child, and she's got a terrible brain ache.

Caleb was truly furious.

Especialy when he thought of the fact that Ingford is now abuzz.

This had all originally involved an ethical relationship.

He didn't expect Alina to be so smart and sharp before.

"Sir" Tomas looked at Caleb apprehensively.

At the time of knowing the relevant news, it was unexpected that Caleb really sued Alina.

Caleb, "Since she's going to mess with me in such a way, it's time to teach her a lesson."

All this time he had been indulging her, did she really think he was afraid of her?

Women are allowed to be spoiled.

But definitely not spoiled beyond belief.

And now Caleb can see that Alina is now bold to do anything.

Then it's time for her to wake up.

Tomas, "You know what kind of temper Lady Alina has now."

Tomas said with great concern.

That's what worries him the most.

It's not that easy.

"Do I have a good temper?" Caleb was already in a bad mood, and his brain hurt badly from being upset by Alina.

Now that Tomas said something like that, this instantly took him out of a good mood.

In the past, Caleb was bad-tempered, but fortunately at that time, Alina's temper was good, so there was no dispute between these two.

But now especially now that Caleb has done something like that, which is probably what Alina cannot tolerate the most.

Just thinking about it made Tomas' brain ache, not knowing yet what kind of scene would be when Alina returned.

...

And Emma, looking at Caleb was in a frenzy with Alina, could see that this won't be over so soon.

Although the two of them were now in a fierce row, Emma could see that Caleb clearly did not want to finish with Alina.

"Caleb." Emma was already aggrieved and was already in a hurry waiting for the money.

And now, not a penny can be withdrawn.

Especially there is no telling when exactly it will be over, that is what is most disturbing.

"What?" Caleb gave her a cold look.

It made Emma's heart seize up even more now when she saw Caleb's attitude.

Emma shook her head, "It's nothing."

"You've never been able to hold back, so tell me, what is it." Caleb knew Emma more or less well.

And Emma's heart choked even more when Caleb said it just like that.

She said, "I can't even go out right now."

"What are you going out to do?"

Even if she doesn't do anything, it's always a bad feeling to be in Werland Villa all the time and to be judged.

"Why don't I just leave the country?" Emma said.
