

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 272

It took several deep breaths to push down the stuffy weight in her heart.

Looking at the man's eyes for a long time, Alina said, "She won't do that?"

Without waiting for Caleb to speak, Alina shouted angrily, "What kind of person is she really, didn't you see it all when you were in Oklens?"

"....."

"Now where on earth did you get the nerve to tell me that she wouldn't do those things?" At this moment, Alina's sanity was all but gone.

No matter how hard it was to be calm when facing Caleb before.

Now, that calm has been completely torn up, and that anger seems to be burning, resounding throughout Mulherd Manor.

Yes.

He knew what kind of a person Emma really was, and there were some things he had seen when he was in Oklens.

So, why could he still say such words in front of her now? Alina really didn't know where in the world this man got the courage.

Caleb's eyes darkened, "Can that be compared to this matter now?"

All that happened before in Oklens was nothing compared to the fact now.

"Caleb, get the hell out of here." At this moment, Alina no longer wanted to say anything to Caleb.

Ever since this man chose to protect Emma unconditionally, there has been nothing left to say between them.

It was this man who, time and again, kept touching her nerves.

And now, because of that ridiculous perception and determination in his heart, he was going to make Alina simply choose to give up?

"Alina!"

At this time, the more Caleb said, the more it only served to arouse Alina's anger.

“Get out.”

Alina roared.

“You’re too subjective.”

“So do you.” Alina roared in anger.

What right did he have to say that she was subjective? In the matter of protecting Emma, was it not his subjective consciousness at work?

“You’re not qualified to say that.” Alina uttered.

Her eyes were cold, Caleb had probably never seen this coldness in Alina before.

It is known that Erica and her parents have always been her bottom line.

And just because it’s bottom line, it’s more lacking in sanity when it comes to dealing with it.

“Leave her alone and I’ll drop the charges.”

“Sue me, I beg you to sue me, all right?” At this time, this man still had the nerve to talk to her about terms.

To threaten her?

Unfortunately, Alina had long since ceased to be subject to this threat from him.

At this, Caleb’s eyes grew even darker.

At this point, no matter what people say, it’s useless.

“Caleb, ask yourself, for the sake of Emma, what exactly is there that you cannot do?”

In Alina’s opinion, Caleb was a person who would do anything for Emma, and with such a person, there was actually nothing to say, was there?

Alina has seen the coldness in his eyes very clearly, and she felt more ironic.

“Why?” At this moment, Alina asked.

Why on earth is it that he is so protective of Emma?

The moment it was asked, the man’s eyes flashed even more danger in this moment.

Alina is even more determined that what happened between them is more than just not simple.

“Forget about it, I’m not curious.”

“.....”

“Go away.” Since this man was unwilling to talk, Alina was unwilling to continue to ask.

And Caleb’s purpose is obvious.

He knew that it would be useless for Emma to go wherever she went unless Alina was taken care of.

And hrt days will not be easy.

Alina is just too ruthless.

As long as this matter is not over, there is no telling what will happen in the days to come.

.....

Caleb is gone.

Apart from showing him Alina’s hardened attitude, he actually saw nothing at all.

Alina didn’t sleep this night, when Andre’s call came in, Alina said on the phone, “Caleb sent Emma away.”

“You knew from the beginning that he was protecting Emma, didn’t you?”

“Yes.”

However, at this juncture, this man used such a way to send Emma away, which was something Alina did not expect in any way.

Even in spite of the threats from Chester, he wanted to get Emma out of the way.

“How do you think Emma went willingly?” Yes, the problem was Emma.

In Alina’s opinion, and even as seen by all, Emma was to follow Caleb firmly.

Now, how can she leave willingly?

“Chester’s men went to find her?”

“Yes.”

“We can’t let Emma leave now.” Andre said to Alina.

At this point, Alina is very clear.

Something must be going on behind the scenes here.

As to what exactly is going on, no one knows at this time.

“You know it too that Emma is not a good person, who knows what the hell is going on at this time?”
Andre reminded Alina.

In fact, this point was clear to Alina without the need for Andre to remind her.

“Yeah.”

So she got to find Emma and bring her back as soon as possible.

“Alina.”

“Yeah?”

“Caleb is not a good man. I hope you see him clearly.”

“I know.” Alina didn’t know exactly why Andre would say such a thing at this time.

But she knew that Caleb was not a good person.
