

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 273

Emma was sent away by Caleb and Caleb sued Alina.

It was revealed that Emma lives in Werland Villa and shares a room with Alina, and now it is even more revealed that Alina has a bigamous marriage.

In this way, these two are now at odds in a hilarious way.

"Now, it's good enough to stand up." Tomas said as he looked at Caleb.

This car accident caused Caleb in a wheelchair, resulting in inconvenience.

If it wasn't for the last time he stood up for Emma, Caleb would have been able to walk freely long ago.

A call came from Collins Castle and Lois came over, "Master Caleb, Madam wants you to go back for lunch at noon."

"No."

Vanessa and the others had been on Alina all this time, it made Alina arrogant.

So Caleb was not willing to go back.

Lois looked at Caleb with difficulty, "Madam has said that you will regret if you don't go back."

Regret?

What he regret most in this life is that he listened to his grandfather back then and married that ruthless woman Alina.

It's a mess, Caleb is annoyed.

All of this was made possible by Alina.

Lois was speechless.

It was only after Lois's good advice that Caleb agreed to go over to Collins Castle at noon.

Caleb's brows knitted together as he looked at the empty dining room.

Vanessa said, "I don't know when you have become fond of meals outside, and since you don't like to eat at home, I didn't ask anyone to get food ready."

“Why do you need to say such a sarcastic thing to me?”

Caleb could hear the sarcasm in Vanessa’s words.

Vanessa, “You can still hear good and bad things now, I thought you had spent so much time hanging out with the woman outside that you were going to forget what home was really like.”

When he heard Vanessa say this, his eyes went darker.

“Since you just want to say this to me, I guess there’s no need to say it.”

After saying this, he turned and was about to leave.

When his own leg was faulty, Caleb could appreciate more the desperation and helplessness that Emma felt.

How important is a pair of legs, a pair of hands, to a person?

“Wait.”

Without waiting for Caleb to take two steps, Vanessa called him to a halt.

Caleb, “What?”

Vanessa, “Do you really intend to protect Emma?”

There was something serious about that question, and even the helplessness of a mother.

Vanessa was aware of what had really happened earlier in Oklens, but she didn’t expect that Caleb would still protect Emma.

So what in the world could Caleb not do?

“Mother.”

“Forget everything else, do you know if she had anything to do with the death of Alina’s parents and Grandma?”

“Not her.”

At those words, Vanessa’s heart stuttered, especially when he heard Caleb use such a firm tone to defend Emma.

Her heart, then, tore even more, and a voice in the bottom of her heart kept telling her that there is no hope.

As a woman, she naturally knows what the bottom line for a woman is.

“Caleb.”

Vanessa was so helpless at this moment.

If it were anyone else, she really wouldn't care.

During this period of time, since what happened to Alina three years ago, the entire Collins family was indifferent to Caleb.

But this time.

In seeing things go on in this way, Vanessa was worried.

“You need to be clear things are not as simple as you think.”

“.....”

“If Alina can determine that, then she must have been given the relevant evidence, so why do you...”

“That's enough.”

Before Vanessa could finish her words, she was directly interrupted by Caleb.

All of them are on Alina.

When he thought of this, Caleb's eyes shone with an endlessly dark light.

Vanessa looked at Caleb in shock, obviously not expecting Caleb to speak to her in such a way and tone.

Looking at Caleb's back, she felt her heart ache.

“For that woman, you are at odds with Alina, and even now sue Alina, do you know...”

Without waiting for Vanessa to finish her words, Caleb walked away.

Standing still for a long, long time, Vanessa did not look back.

She wondered when this son of hers had become so capricious.

Is this loss of sanity because of Alina, or because of Emma?

If it was because of Emma, then why not let go of Alina completely?

If it was because of Alina, then there was why not leave Emma?

When Caleb was stubborn, he was a headache for the entire Collins family, and Vanessa and the others couldn't even say anything in front of him.

There was nothing else to be done.

Julia, "Mum, do you think Caleb will know if he keeps making trouble like this?"

At least, the fact that there was nothing at all between Alina and Andre would definitely be known.

The people in the know, looking at this tossing and turning of Caleb, simply seemed like a madman, were completely at a loss as to what to say about him.

Vanessa sighed, "I don't even know what to say about him now."

"And I wonder what Caleb will do when he finds out the truth."

What is the truth?

The truth is that he has always been obsessed with the relationship between Alina and Andre, and once he knew that Alina and Andre had nothing to do with each other, what would he do?

"Leave him alone." Vanessa was feeling a headache just talking about Caleb.

What people say is true, there are always those who listen and those who give people headaches.

And here in Vanessa, Caleb is the presence that causes the most headaches.
