

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 280

At this moment, Caleb's eyes were deep. The relationship between Alina and Andre, it was time to say it was over.

But the final result of the investigation read, "The person in question, Alina, and Andre are not in a marital relationship, so it is not true that she cheated within marriage."

Caleb originally wanted to hold Alina down and ruthlessly tell her that this was the final result she will get by messing with him, yet what no one could have expected was the outcome.

Emma's face, by now, was pale.

Caleb jerked to his feet, trembling all over. The moment his hands clenched into fists, he even held all his hostile energy in his hands.

How is this possible?

Emma looked at Caleb's change, her heart sank even harder, in the end it was time for this.

The most feared moment in a long time has come after all.

"Caleb." Emma tugged at the man's sleeve, yet the man didn't respond half-heartedly.

The officer was still reciting something, and at this moment Caleb's world went blank, he couldn't hear anything anymore.

Why is this happening?

Finally.

Caleb ran out, and Emma was in a wheelchair, unable to catch up with Caleb.

But she was still an effort to catch up.

"Caleb, Caleb."

However, the man left without looking back, and the hostility on his back made Emma's heart flutter.

What exactly was he going to do? At this moment, Emma knew very well in her heart he was going to find Alina.

The verdict is in.

Both she and Caleb lost, and Emma had to return all the property belonging to Alina within the divorce.

When Kara came over, she saw Emma's face as white as a ghost.

"Lost?"

Emma, "What's your hurry? It's only half a million, I can afford to pay it back."

Emma was already annoyed, and now when she heard Kara ask such a question, she was even more upset, and her temper could not even be suppressed.

Kara, "Then give it back to me."

Before, she should not have borrowed it to Emma.

After all these years, she had always known Emma very well, how could she have been fooled by Emma's mouth that day?

It was said with such pathetic churlishness at the time.

What about now?

"Not now." Emma was already in a bad mood, and now that she was being chased by Kara for money, she was pissed off.

Hearing such words from Emma, Kara really wanted to tear Emma apart.

Caleb in the car, "Go and find out what the hell is going on." said in a stoic tone.

Not married to Andre? Then what was their relationship exactly?

At this moment, Caleb's mind was in complete and utter mad chaos, obviously not expecting, in any way, such an outcome.

Just now, Tomas was present during the court hearing.

Needless to say, he was shocked when he heard that Andre and Alina were not married.

In that case, what kind of relationship do they have with each other?

Especially when they show it between them are so close. It would be impossible to say that there was no relationship at all.

But if they are not husband and wife, then what kind of relationship is really?

In the beginning, Caleb originally wanted to investigate Alina's years in Shirling, yet in the end, why stop?

Because he actually believed every word Alina said.

But now it turns out that this belief is so ridiculous.

At this moment, Caleb was completely at a loss as to what to say about Alina.

This incident is a complete wake-up call for them. In future, no matter what happens, they should at least get things straight at the beginning.

Tomas went to check it out.

Caleb, on the other hand, had appeared at Mulherd Manor.

On the way, he did not know how he got to Mulherd Manor, and he could not calm down for a long, long time.

At this moment when facing Alina, Caleb took several deep breaths before he could suppress the stuffy weight in his heart.

He asked, "What is going on?"

The question is between her and Andre.

Apparently, Caleb's perception was completely knocked over.

"Didn't you say that I was very subjective?" That was said with such irony.

At this moment, Alina just returned what Caleb had said to her before with such sarcasm.

When Caleb heard Alina's words, his face stiffened even more.

"Alina."

"But now you're asking me for an explanation?"

"Are you worthy?"

At the sound of that, his brain froze even more.

In his head, it's a complete mess.

He was trying so hard to find a clue, yet at this point in time, nothing could be found.

Emma got back to Werland Villa, without seeing Caleb return.

There was even an endless cold glint under her eyes.

She knew that Caleb must have gone to look for Alina.

Knowing such a shocking event at the scene today, how ironic this is for Caleb.

He had always been a very shrewd man, yet in this matter of Alina, he was so confused.

.....

Emma, too, is in disarray.

Caleb just felt that with everything that had happened in this period of time, for a long time, he finally found the right words to describe it.

That's the joke.

Just as Caleb was about to say something else, the phone vibrated, interrupting his thoughts.

Looking at Alina's calm face, he felt even more like he was a big joke all this time.

Without looking at the number, he picked it up, "Hello."

"Caleb, where have you been? I didn't even see you when I came back."

The air was frozen.

The voice of the phone is not too loud, but Alina heard it clearly.

So Emma is now in Werland Villa.

Is it a home for Emma and Caleb?
