

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 282

And the relationship between her and Andre is just brother and sister? Even if there is no blood, there is nothing wrong with these two, indeed, being in such a relationship.

No one knew what kind of chaos was going on in Caleb's head at this moment.

"So, between her and Andre, it's just a brother and sister relationship?"

"Yes."

Just brother and sister?

So, then everything that happened before was really just like a joke? From the beginning to the end, it was all Zane who made Andre take care of her?

"Andre is so good to her."

"The entire Lawson family who are related to Megan are all very nice to her, and it probably depends on how Megan treats Lady Alina."

Megan is very good to Alina, and since she is so good to Alina, it is only natural that her descendants would be good to her.

Previously Caleb had felt that this relationship was confusing, and now when it was directly in front of him, it felt even more so confusing.

Emma, at the door of the study, listened to the words inside.

Her hands tightly clenched fists.

"Alina!" She didn't expect that today's Alina had so much.

While she still has nothing in this world.

Why on earth would this be the case?

Emma did not expect that Alina had such a big backer behind her, and even the whole Lawson family was so kind to her.

It was logical to say that Alina was over with Caleb for good, yet what one didn't expect was for Caleb to make a shocking move.

Appeal.

He did not want a divorce.

At the time of learning the news, Alina was surprised.

"What the hell do you want?"

How come this man could not be got rid of?

Caleb, "Alina, are you trying to fool me around?"

When hearing this accusation from this man, Alina didn't know what she should say.

"I don't understand what you're talking about."

Caleb, "Until I figure out a lot of things on you, no divorce"

Totally, this whole thing was completely off the rails and beyond her expectations, Alina didn't expect things to be like this.

"What the hell do you want?"

"I will figure out one by one."

Although he knew a few things, it was still confusing enough for Caleb.

Therefore, before these matters are completely clarified, it is not that easy for Alina to get divorce.

"Even if it were clear, it wouldn't change what's between me and you."

Thinking of the relationship between them today, Caleb's heart choked even more.

What was the relationship between them? From the beginning of the marriage, at that time for Caleb, this relationship was even vague.

The concept of marriage is very vague.

When he and Alina got married, he probably didn't even think that there would be an end to their relationship.

Even, it is ending in this way.

Looking at Caleb, Alina now has no idea what to say about him, this is simply an asshole.

“It doesn’t matter to me, I can afford to consume, but Emma can’t.” When she said the word Emma, Alina’s tone was heavier.

And she was telling the truth.

The man looked at her with eyes that were deeper and darker.

Whatever.

For the moment, he doesn’t care who can afford to wait or not.

Things that must be cleared out.

“Tell her to give me back what is due to me, all of it, or I will sue her so badly that she will not even have a place in this world to live.”

It was spoken so sharply.

Thinking that, with Emma threatening Caleb, the man would at least take a step back, however, she was wrong.

Caleb did not give in in the slightest.

He left.

The phone in Alina’s hand smashed directly on the sofa, “What the fuck is he?”

She was pissed off.

Why wouldn’t he want to get a divorce?

Emma has been waiting for Caleb to get divorce.

Even though the divorce lawsuit between her and Caleb is not over, Emma has already been sentenced.

Everything that Caleb had given her before should be returned to Alina.

How humiliating was this for Emma?

So not long after Caleb left, Emma came to Mulherd Manor, and no one knew what her face looked like when she received those notices.

“You still dare to come?” Alina looked at Emma fiercely.

Emma, “Do you think that by bringing things to such an embarrassing level, you are really honourable?”

“Honourable?”

“As you stepped in between me and Caleb, all three of us aren’t honourable.”

“.....”

“You’re bringing this up to me now?”

These were all eventually destroyed because of Emma.

As for whether Alina cares or not, it’s hard to say, at this point, at least what Emma sees now is that Alina definitely doesn’t care.

“What exactly do you want to do to spare me?” Emma’s eyes tightened as she looked at Alina.

Obviously, in the course of the night, it was driven to desperation.

Looking at Caleb’s current attitude towards Alina, it was clear that this matter would not end just like that.

And Caleb is bent on fighting with Alina, she should give everything out, but Caleb is slow to end it.

And what, exactly, was she going to do to spend with them?

She could not wait.

What a terrible situation for Emma to be in.

“Let you go?” When she heard those three words, Alina laughed even more.

How can she just let Emma go?

There is no such a good thing in this world?

“I won’t let you go.” Looking at Emma’s white face, Alina said word by word.

And when Emma heard Alina’s words, she was shocked.
