

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 285

Inside.

Chester looked at Alina, "He took Emma back to the Collins Castle."

At these words, Alina raised her eyebrows.

He took Emma back to Collins Castle? The Collins family has never agreed the two to be together.

What does it mean?

"Back to Collins Castle?"

"Yes."

"What for?"

Alina did not expect the news to be so sudden. Before Caleb was determined not to break off the relationship with her.

So now, what the hell is this again?

"He's getting married to Emma."

Alina was stunned.

"Marry Emma?"

"Yes."

"Good." These two, finally, were going to be together. These two should have been together a long time ago, shouldn't they?

And when Chester was talking about this, his eyes were always on Alina's face, even every slight change in her face at this moment caught by Chester.

Yet she doesn't have any sadness.

Even after all that had happened between her and Caleb, yet now when she heard that Caleb and Emma were getting married, she hadn't been hurt at all.

Alina, "Good."

Now Chester saw no emotion on Alina's face, not even a hint of sadness.

Alina looked at Chester, “Chester, don’t you think it would be fun for these two to get together?”

The fact that she is in the mood to say such things now shows that Alina really doesn’t have any feelings for Caleb in her heart.

Otherwise, it is unlikely that she would have had no reaction in the face of such news.

“Well, it was quite fun.” Chester looked at Alina with such doting in his eyes at this moment.

Alina, “But next...”

Thinking about Emma, Alina was annoyed.

If Emma really becomes Caleb’s wife, then Caleb is going to protect Emma no matter what happened?

“You’re worried?”

“You know that he is very protective of Emma, then...”

The latter words were not fully spoken by Alina, but Chester understood them.

Before when there wasn’t much of a relationship, he had already protected Emma to that point, and now he is about to marry Emma, it is not easy to make Emma pay accordingly.

And Alina was only worried about that, other than that, she was really emotionless.

Now, in the face of Caleb, she is indifferent.

At Collins Castle, it instantly was in uproar.

No matter how many times Vanessa had said before that she would henceforth pretend there was no Caleb as her son, yet when things really were like that, she was, literally, going crazy.

“I think you’re just crazy.” At this moment, Vanessa’s heart was heaving.

Now things are stormy outside, and Caleb at this time telling her that he wants to marry Emma.

What is he if not crazy?

“The wedding is set for a week from now.”

The corners of Emma's mouth lifted up in a smile as she heard this, and Vanessa gave her a fierce glare, and her face was instantly all aggravated again.

Vanessa, "Are you informing me?"

With such a tough attitude, this is totally to inform her.

Thinking of this, Vanessa's heart was heaving even more.

"Yes."

Julia, "Caleb."

Especially after seeing Vanessa's instantly white face, Julia was filled with heartache.

Their relationship was already so strained, and now something like this is happening.

"Get out, you get out." Now Vanessa's breath was uneven as she said, she didn't want to see Caleb, never again.

"I tell you, the whole Collins family will not agree, even if you marry her, she is not a Collins family member."

Never had Vanessa used such a tough attitude towards her children, but at this moment, she was tough.

It was all forced by Caleb.

"It doesn't matter whether she enters the Collins family's house or not, what matters is that she is my wife."

The moment Vanessa looked at Emma, she was irritated.

No, she can't let Caleb marry Emma, this woman has a lot of tricks, if she really marries into the Collins family, there is no telling what she could do in the future under the guise of the Collins family.

Without waiting for Vanessa to say anything, Caleb's phone vibrated, it was a call from the lawyer.

He picked up, "Hello."

"Miss Hughes has been very tough, saying that she wants everything under Miss Bell's name."

Caleb was drenched in hostility.

And Emma heard Alina's attitude, but for the moment, watching Caleb get to this point for her, those in her name wouldn't have mattered.

As long as Caleb is hers, then what he has will be hers in the future.

She said, "Give it to her, I agree."

Just as Caleb was having a headache, Emma looked at Caleb very nicely and said.

And it was a relief to see her generosity and understanding.

Men always don't want women to make a scene when it matters most, and Caleb is no exception.

In many cases, it is more about wanting to be accompanied by a well-behaved and understanding woman.

"Say yes to her." Caleb said in a cold tone.

End it.

As Emma listened to Caleb's words, she thought smugly in her heart.

It's over, everything between her and Alina is now, all of it, completely over, and in the future, her world will definitely be on top of the pinnacle.

And Vanessa, listening to these words from Caleb, knew that the relationship between him and Alina would be completely drawn to a close.

Caleb hung up the phone and looked at Vanessa, "This was always what you wanted to see, I've only made Chester achieve what he wants."

"You bastard."

"....."

"Chester doesn't need your help? You just failed to protect your marriage." Vanessa said fiercely.

"Don't make such a grand statement about your own selfishness, it makes people who listen feel sick."

Vanessa was really going mad, so in her words, she had lost her usual poise.
