

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 286

Caleb took Emma with him and left.

In the Collins Castle, it's a dark cloud overhead.

For a long time, Vanessa's heart was still rising and falling, and it took several glasses of water in a row to slightly suppress the stuffy weight in her heart.

As if, ever since Alina and Caleb got married, she was even then unable to accept Alina.

But thinking that it was better than being with Emma, her heart was quite relieved, but now was same as back then.

At the time of seeing Caleb and Emma together, her heart again smothered with pain.

"Mom, don't get angry." Julia heartily smoothed Vanessa's breath.

No one expected Caleb to be so forceful today, even bringing Emma straight to their door to inform them of the wedding.

And the time is set for just a week later.

"In a week."

Vanessa closed her eyes.

"Go and have someone find out what's going on." Her eyes were sharp as she opened them again.

Caleb brought Emma back to announce that he was getting married, there must be something happened.

Emma always had tricks up her sleeve, who knows what kind of tricks she used this time?

Julia nodded her head.

In less than half an hour.

Then the matter of why exactly Caleb brought Emma back to announce his marriage was set off and a photo appeared in front of Vanessa.

It's Emma sitting on the window sill of her apartment building, and from the looming glass, she can still tell that Caleb was there.

"Hmph." Seeing this, Vanessa sort of saw everything.

Cold sweat ran down Julia's spine, "She is probably desperate, right?"

Before this photo, Caleb had never agreed to divorce Alina.

However Alina has always been dead set on her side as well.

When faced with nothing, Emma still used such a despicable means of chasing after Caleb after all.

Between life and fame, Caleb gave up his fame but saved her life.

This woman is so scheming.

Vanessa's heart was once again heaving.

"Mom, calm down."

"If she was really by Caleb's side, this Collins family would be in trouble."

At this moment, Vanessa tried to suppress her anger, yet she failed.

Although she said she didn't have such a son, many mothers can't accept it when they really look at marrying such a scourge.

Vanessa, naturally, was unable to accept it.

"Mum."

"I can't let that woman and Caleb be together." At this moment, all that flashed under Vanessa's eyes was ice cold.

Years ago, she saw what kind of person Emma really was.

A desire could conceal in her eyes, not that they looked down on the women of the mountains.

Rather, they could not get along with. The road ahead is so long, who knows what else she will do?

A family that has to go through a history of change that is not normally resisted anymore.

Especially Emma, whose eyes are full of nothing but profit and selfishness.

Does she really have love for Caleb?

Vanessa never believed that Emma love her son.

“So what do we do now?” Julia looked at Vanessa and asked worriedly.

Vanessa closed her eyes again.

At that moment, what shone under her eyes was endlessly ruthless.

She said, “She has gotten too much in the hands of Caleb over the years, so let Alina take it all back first.”

“Okay.”

Julia nodded her head.

Although the Collins family didn’t care much about these things, they watched Emma squander so much with Caleb and Alina’s joint property.

This is always uncomfortable in the mind.

It’s rare to see such strong tactics from Alina, and now is naturally waiting until Alina will take it all back.

The Collins Castle was plotting everything in the dark.

On Mulherd Manor, Chester was always by Alina, yet when Chester brought this news to Alina.

Alina seemed to be unaffected in the slightest.

What kind of fun situation Emma and Caleb will be in when they do get together.

“If he finds out, he will not let you go again.” Looking at Alina happy as a child, the man’s eyes were filled with helplessness and doting.

In the end, it has changed.

And this change in her was all given over bit by bit by Caleb.

Alina, “And he withdrew his complaint.”

Speaking of him suing her and Andre on this matter, Alina found it hilarious.

In fact, he already knew the truth, didn’t he? There was no relationship like that between her and Andre.

But, “Why does he suddenly want to marry Emma?”

But amidst the joy, Alina still wanted to know exactly why this was happening.

Although she really does not care for Caleb, before that, he didn't have any intention of marrying Emma, did he?

Before this, Caleb really had no intention of marrying Emma half the time.

If he really wanted to marry Emma, she would have done so three years after she left. After all, a man like Caleb would have to say that he didn't marry her because his conscience was troubled by her leaving, and no one would believe such nonsense.

"Emma threatened him with suicide."

Alina, "A move like the one in VIG last time?"

"Yeah."

"He compromised?"

"Yeah."

Seeing Alina's thoughts, Chester said, "She made a bit more of a scene this time."

About to lose everything, especially now at this juncture, it is much more serious than last time.

And Emma was so used to enjoying herself all these years, how could she lose everything so easily?

So this time, maybe the haunting is not a haunting at all. Rather, it's a real move, and the last time in VIG, it's completely different.

No, Caleb was compromised by this.
