

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 291

The only person in the world who has divorced in such a hysterical manner, and who even ended up climbing on the man's head, is probably Alina.

The word 'sister-in-law' was even more ruthlessly stimulating Caleb's nerves, and the moment he looked at Alina, there was fierceness in his eyes, "You got back at me?"

His tone was so cold.

Although he was asking, his tone was all but certain, yes, Alina must be getting back at him.

The way this woman used it was really ruthless.

Alina, "I'm not as boring as you are."

"So, you're really serious?"

"Can't we?"

For the word 'serious', Alina didn't know what to say at the moment, especially since Caleb was very serious about Emma, wasn't he?

Yes, Caleb is very serious about Emma, that kind of seriousness is simply beyond all, isn't it?

"If back then, Chester and I had spent a lot of time together, then I would have chosen to marry Chester when Grandpa Max made a request like that."

That's a blow to a man.

"But you don't have to be annoyed."

"....."

"You will marry my enemy, and I will marry your elder brother, and neither of us will be more noble than the other."

"How dare you, Alina." The anger finally could not be suppressed. The man's eyes, moreover, were scarlet from anger.

Crazy, this woman is truly crazy to say such a thing.

She is getting back at him, Caleb knew it.

Alina looked at the angry Caleb and smiled with sarcastic, "What wouldn't I dare to do?"

“You know what he is, how dare you mess with him?”

“You’re no good either, didn’t I mess with you too?”

If there was a medicine in this world to erase a person’s memory, then he would get it, even at what cost.

He really wanted to wash all those unpleasant memories in Alina’s head clean.

“Why are you so adamant that it was Emma in those two cases?”

And for this topic, Alina was now half-heartedly unwilling to continue, and finally, she said, “I have nothing to say to you.”

“Alina.”

“.....”

“Not her.”

Alina said very firmly, and Caleb’s heart sank in this instant because of it.

Why didn’t she listen?

Alina looked at Caleb and said, “You used to protect Emma, now, there is nothing to say.”

Now that he’s going to marry Emma, how exactly will he protect Emma? It’s even more needless to say, isn’t it?

At this moment, the man’s eyes flashed even more ruthlessly.

Now whenever the subject of Emma is involved, they are bound to have a conversation ended between them.

“Emma is abnormal, did you really just go and check it out?” Alina looked sarcastically at Caleb.

Before, Emma had been so perverse in North Eglinton, and that was something he had felt, wasn’t it?

Yet in the end?

He did not take it in his mind.

Finally, Alina returned to Mulherd Manor, while Caleb, instead of leaving directly at the entrance of Mulherd Manor, smoked one cigarette after another.

Naturally there was something perverse about Emma, and Alina was previously waiting for what would actually come out after this perversion.

When Emma acted like that in the flat, Caleb offered to marry her.

After checking the list that Emma had gotten from Caleb over the years, Alina called Jacob.

“Hello.”

“You’re welcome.”

“Many thanks.”

Now, Emma really has reached the point of having nothing but Caleb.

.....

The Collins family got the message too.

For the first time in four days, there was good news, “This lawyer that Alina to find has some skills.”

In just a few days after the conclusion of the lawsuit, all that was due to be recovered was recovered.

“So what’s next?” Julia asked as she looked at Vanessa.

During these few days, Vanessa waited almost every day, waiting for Alina to take everything back from Emma.

But Alina is really competitive, just in this short period of time, she took everything back.

“The Collins family is now humiliated because of such a woman, so naturally we can’t let her get what she wants.”

Vanessa was generous at many times, but in this case of Emma, she could not get over it in her heart.

Looked at the time on the wall clock, to Julia, she said, “Tell Caleb to come back for dinner tonight.”

“Okay.”

Julia knows. this is the big move that has been held back on her mother all these days.

How on earth did Emma climb up all these years, then now her mother wants to beat her back completely.

Yes.

It is to beat Emma, completely, back to her original form.

Now Emma really has reached the point where she has nothing but Caleb, even though the wedding is only three days away.

But things between her and Caleb have been changing a lot over the years. So the less time this had left, the more trepidation she felt.

On the phone, she said to the man on the other side of the line with the utmost tenderness, “This afternoon, accompany me to the wedding dress fitting?”

Yes, the wedding dress had not been tried on until now, and the time was tight, but Emma was still working hard to prepare.

After all, it was marriage to Caleb and she was absolutely positive in her preparations on this point.

However, the man on the other side of the phone said, “I have to go back to Collins Castle tonight, I’ll ask Tomas to take you there.”

When she heard the word ‘Collins Castle’, Emma’s heart thudded even more, there was no doubt that no one in Collins Castle liked her.

“Won’t you take me with you?” It was rare for Emma to make such a request.

But now, she was really afraid that Caleb would have some kind of change of heart towards herself because of Collins Castle.
