

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 296

Emma's heart was panicked to the limit, Lois out cup on a marble table.

It was just such a soft sound, but it was like a heavy hammer on her heart.

Lois stood up with a smile on her lips and headed in the direction of the stairs, she was going to find Caleb.

No, no way.

"Lois." Just as Lois passed by her, Emma grabbed Lois's hand.

No.

No matter what, she can't let Caleb know this at this time, if Caleb knows, everything will be over.

No matter how proud she was in front of Lois before, and no matter how much she hated her inwardly at the moment, she had to bow her head down and just look at Lois, "Lois, please."

"....."

"He and I are getting married, it's something I've waited so long for, please don't let Caleb know."

Emma was sweating profusely, obviously terrified.

It was fine to be capricious in other matters, but in this case, she knew very well that once Caleb really knew about it, then everything, really, is finished.

She doesn't want Caleb to know about it.

"I'll give you whatever you want."

No matter what methods are used now, Emma has to make sure that this matter is suppressed.

Just the last three days left. She'd been waiting for so many years. How many years? Seven years, right? Ever since she knew that Alina was living in Caleb's house, she had already started to set it up.

Yes.

At first, she started out with a purpose.

Thinking that Alina is not good enough for Caleb, or even because it's Alina's fiancé, she must steal Caleb.

But it had been too long, and in that time she had in the end given her feelings to Caleb as well.

She was now deeply in love with Caleb.

It's been so many years, how could she just lose it?

"Lois, I have waited for him for many years and you know it, everyone has called me a vixen mistress all these years."

"....."

"I've lived a bad life, but I've never wanted to walk away from Caleb, please don't tell him, okay?"

Seeing Lois looking at herself with cold eyes, she had always known that all these people were on Alina and that God was so favourable to her.

Almost all the good ones were given to Alina.

But what was she going to do?

"Lois."

"....."

"Please don't tell Caleb, okay?" Emma said tremulously, her hair already wet with sweat, clearly not expecting things to have come to this.

"I am only a servant of this Werland Villa, how can I make you the mistress beg me?" Lois said in a sarcastic tone.

After all, Emma, before, had threatened Lois more than once that she would fire her if she didn't treat her better.

However, because Lois was from the Collins Castle and was someone close to Vanessa, even Caleb would respect her.

But Emma even threatened Lois over and over again.

"I was wrong, it was my fault." Emma said in pain.

Whatever fault she was asked to admit now, she admitted it.

Only by admitting these mistakes completely can these things pass smoothly.

Lois snorted coldly, "Let go."

“Lois, it was my ignorance in the past, please spare me this time, spare me.”

Just as Lois was about to shake off Emma, however, Emma continued to hold on to Lois for dear life, refusing to let go.

She was mad, never imagining that things would come to this.

If it were before, she would never have stooped so low to a servant, but now, there was no way out.

“I know you’ve always hated me, Lois, but it doesn’t matter, I’ll find a way to be the person you like in the future.”

Right now, the matter of Brodie has not yet been resolved.

However there would be another incident.

“You don’t need to be someone I like, please let go.” Lois disliked Emma.

After all these years.

She had been here all along, so what kind of ways had Emma used to sabotage the relationship between Caleb and Alina over the years, Lois saw it clearly.

This is not something that a person would really be able to do, and yet Emma did harm Alina.

Little did she know that this time she would catch her in the act.

.....

Since the relationship with Caleb became clear, Alina took back everything in Emma’s name.

At this moment in Mulherd Manor, Andre’s call came in.

“Since Caleb must protect her, then we can only let him take care of himself.” Alina said to Andre on the other side of the phone.

Andre understood what Alina meant.

Ever since Alina returned to Ingford, Caleb has been suppressing them time and time again, even using that despicable tactic.

It’s all because of Emma.

So now, after the marriage relationship with Alina has been clarified, he will now even protect Emma without any bottom line.

“Did you manage to get all that evidence before?” Alina asked.

Naturally, she was talking about the evidence that Caleb had used to threaten her about Andre when she first returned to Ingford.

Andre, “Don’t worry, it’s all been destroyed.”

As long as nothing was done at the time, then once filled, those Caleb holds today are nothing.

Alina nodded her heard.

It’s a relief.

What happened between her and Caleb would not be so easily finished, and therefore she did not want those around her to be affected.

And Caleb is as crazy to protect Emma.

“Then you should be more careful next.” Alina said to Andre on the other side of the phone.

Andre, “Don’t worry.”

After having suffered such a big loss from Caleb before, it is necessary to be on guard against him somehow.

Alina hang up the phone.

Alina then began to sort out those clues from Emma in various ways, not knowing in the slightest that at this moment on Werland Villa, a crazy scene was unfolding.