

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 297

When Emma looked at Lois's stance of insisting on going upstairs to Caleb to tell himr everything, she fell straight to her knees in fear.

The moment her knees hit the ground, the pain dug into her.

Even though so much time has passed since that wound, it still hurts now.

The pain, which forced her to prostrate herself on the ground, instantly tore a large gash in the clothes she was wearing.

It was was particularly piercing sound.

Lois turned back without a good-natured smile, "Why are you doing this, Miss Bell?"

Her tome was not very nice.

After all, after so many years of being by Caleb, she has enjoyed everything she should enjoy, and now this retribution has come.

It's time to let go, isn't it?

It was only when she touched the familiar birthmark on Emma's back that Lois' heart gave a violent shudder.

Her heart was beating even harder, and even in the twinkling of an eye, her body could not help but tremble lightly.

Early the next morning.

Alina just sat down to eat breakfast. Marry made her vegetable pancakes this morning, which Alina liked very much.

However, after just two bites, Caleb's phone call came in.

She picked up the phone, "Hello."

"Alina, have you forgotten that Andre still has something in my hands? Do we have to confront each other?"

When she heard the man shouting over the phone, Alina probably knew that Andre had started to act last night.

And Caleb got the news early in the morning and could not suppress his anger.

Alina, "You're right."

She had a reason to confront Caleb.

"It's over between us, what you want, what you want back, it's all yours, why won't you stop?"

On the other side of the phone, Caleb gritted his teeth.

'The end has always been said by Alina to Caleb, and this time, Alina deadpanned all things.

It forced the ever-hardy Caleb to let go and set her free once and for all.

Therefore, even if it was now completely over, and the word 'over' was not something Caleb was qualified to say to her.

Taking a deep breath, Alina said, "It's over, yes."

"....."

"But it's my turn to say that to you too, you're not even qualified."

"Doesn't matter."

His tone got heavier, and then he said, "It doesn't matter who's speaking now, since it's over, then it all ends here."

This is the reason why Caleb finally set her free.

Because, he wanted it all to be over.

However Alina not only Did not want it over, but also let Andre's side take a shot at him. All of a sudden, Andre is still making such a big move, what does she want?

Regret divorcing him?

If it's regret, then just say it to him, why make such a scene?

However, in Caleb's opinion, according to this woman's nature, it's not as simple as regretting.

So, what is this fuss about now?

Alina gave a smile.

“End here? What are you dreaming of?”

“Alina, I told you, those things have nothing to do with Emma.”

“She’s about to be your wife, so naturally you think it has nothing to do with her.” When she was his mistress, he was so protective.

Now, she is about to become his wife, and it goes without thinking that he is now going to be defensive.

And she would not allow that.

Now, as long as they are protecting Emma, Alina will not give up easily.

“Then it seems that there is nothing more to say between us.” Hearing Alina’s attitude so strong over the phone, Caleb only gave these words.

At this point in time, there is probably nothing more to say.

Alina, “I didn’t want to talk to you either.”

Watching him defend Emma made her sick to her stomach, so what else was there to say between them?

On this side of the phone, Caleb’s heart was rising and falling.

Clearly he was pissed off.

“Good, then you tell Andre to wait for me.” Speaking again, his tone was all sinister and venomous.

After saying that, without waiting for Alina to say anything, Caleb simply hung up the phone.

It was chaotic.

As Alina said, divorcing Caleb and taking back everything that Emma enjoyed during her marriage was just the beginning.

And Caleb even presumed to end it all in such a way, that depends on whether Alina agrees to it or not.

There was no way Alina would agree to this.

No one expected that Alina, who acted so meekly back then, was in fact a tough person.

No, now that things are in front of her, she is too opinionated to allow anything to overwhelm her world.

Little by little, she will find out the truth.

Caleb presumes to cover it all up in such a way, then he has to ask Alina if she agrees.

After hanging up, Caleb wished to smash his phone, but in the end he didn't, with Tomas's number flashing on his phone.

Tomas picked up, "Sir."

"Give all the things that you have investigated on Andre's side before to the relevant departments in Shirling."

Caleb said in an icy tone.

Tomas froze for a moment.

The matter with Alina was only just cleared up. Now it's getting stormy again?

Tomas is hesitant.

And Caleb obviously doesn't want to say anything right now. Since Alina wants to fight him to the death, then he will make her whole.

Then let her see whether her pride is hard or those iron things are hard.

Can she bear it?

At this moment, Caleb really wanted to see the way Alina beg him.

When he thought of the way that woman had been fooling around with Chester all this time, the way she flaunted her authority, he could not wait to tear her apart.

After it was over, she was still making such a scene. Then he won't spare her.

He wanted to see what this woman looked like when she begged him.

"Go on." He uttered as he thought of this.

"Yes." Tomas naturally knew that there was nothing to say at this time.
