

I'm richer than my billionaire ex-husband novel

chapter 30

The next morning, after Alina ate breakfast, she sent a message to Caleb, "I'll wait for you at the Civil Affairs Bureau, come over after your meeting."

After two years of marriage, Alina still knows a few things about this man, and the company starts each day with a two-hour meeting.

And now she has had breakfast and gone over to the Civil Affairs Bureau, and his meeting is almost over.

He still did not reply. Alina was used to this.

On the way to the Civil Affairs Bureau, Stella called and brutally berated Caleb and Emma on the phone for ten minutes.

Then she said Alina, "I just got a piece asking me to cover another upcoming show for Emma by Caleb."

"Emma sucks, many show will be useless, she is arrogant to you, you know?" Stella was furious.

It was her first time to see just a shameless mistress.

"I'm on my way to the Civil Affairs Bureau." Compared to Stella's anger on the other side of the phone, Alina's tone was calm.

It's all about divorce.

Not to mention that Caleb gave Emma a show, even if Emma was pregnant, it was none of her business.

"To do what?"

"Divorce." Alina's soft words made Stella on the other side of the phone stiffen for a moment, and then her exasperated voice instantly turned more annoyed, "You're giving Emma the position?"

"If I were you, I'd wear out that pair of bitches even if I had to. Doesn't she like to be a third party? Let her child a third party, and her grandchildren be a third party, and be involved with the third party for generations to come."

Alina is speechless, her life will be consumed too. She is not so bad that she can't live with herself.

"But it is good to have a divorce. The president of VIG is nice and never has a scandal."

Alina had a headache, Andre was not scandalous, but Stella didn't see how many messes Voyage International Group's PR team had picked up for Andre over the years.

"Send the article before after this." Alina said.

How Emma became famous in the design world over the years?

Since they had fallen out, the things that the Hughes did for her, the things that Caleb did for her now will lay out in front of the world bit by bit and let it be known that she is an ungrateful person.

"Okay, I got it." Stella said.

Emma is now pestering Caleb to put on a show for her and to get a big media coverage, not only to boost her fame, but also to provoke Alina.

And Alina used to be able to turn a blind eye, does not mean she accepts malicious suppression, Emma dares to belittle her in such a way, then stand firm.

Alina waited for two hours in the sun at the Civil Affairs Bureau, and Caleb was nowhere to be seen.

Pissed off, she was trying to get these things taken care of before she went to Oklens.

Message, "Mr. Collins, how should I interpret your behavior?" Even from across the screen, Caleb could feel Alina's suppressed anger.

The phone hit hard on the office on, at the moment the executives reporting work are feeling the low pressure, the people present are nervous, burst into cold sweat.
