

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 300

The Collins family came out.

When she saw Emma sitting on the ground with her face covered in bruises and a number of nail marks scratched on her face, she looked as if she had just been abused.

Vanessa's eyes flickered deeply.

"What's going on?"

"Just now it was fine." The butler said as he looked at Vanessa.

Apparently, they had not expected that Emma had not left, and no one even knew what had just happened.

Vanessa's eyes went dark.

In that instant, it was probably clear just moments before what had really happened.

And Alina, too, understood.

Although Julia did not know how this was done, it definitely could not have been done by anyone here without her mother's authorization.

So, the way everyone looked at Emma changed as a result, not expecting this woman to be, in fact, so bold.

She even wanted to frame Vanessa?

Vanessa, "It seems that you really are bold."

This time, Vanessa's tone was all nonchalance.

And Alina looked at Emma.

How bold is Emma, before she has married in the family, she even used such a way to make the relationship stiff.

It's okay to mess with Alina before, but what is this now? Trying to screw her future mother-in-law?

She was really finished. Vanessa had been among the gentry for so many years, how could she not have seen such tactics?

She was, literally, mad.

“Mother, I just want you to go to the wedding and not make things difficult for Caleb.” Emma said in tears.

She looked even more pathetic.

Vanessa’s heart was rising and falling.

“Since you like to use such a way, then fine, I’ll make it up to you.” After saying that, she pulled her hand out of Alina’s hand.

She walked straight towards Emma.

Although Alina and Julia had seen many big scenes, they was now frightened when they saw Vanessa’s angry stance.

No sooner had they reacted than they heard the sound of a slap going down.

Everyone in the room drew a breath of cold air as a result, having known that Vanessa was not very good-tempered.

And yet Emma dares to make such a mess.

“Ah!”

Emma was slapped to the ground.

She did not expect Vanessa would such great force.

At the moment, her brain was ‘buzzing’ and her ears seemed to be deaf.

“Isn’t that the way you like? It doesn’t seem to stand up to a few slaps. How come you put up with so much pain?”

With those bruises on her face, Emma is really ruthless.

In order to set up the Collins family, she would not hesitate to hurt her face in such a way, she really has the courage.

But since she was so cruel to others, it was only natural that she would do the same to herself.

Alina now understands what the difference between her and Emma really is, and this defeat is completely convincing.

“Stop it.”

Just when Vanessa was about to raise her hand again, Caleb's angry voice came from not far away and he had already gotten out of the car.

At the moment he strode towards them, full of hostility.

And as Caleb's voice sounded, Vanessa, Alina and Julia did not feel surprised.

It was clear the moment they saw that play by Emma.

It was just too late to stop Vanessa.

And Vanessa has always disliked these tactics, and this time Emma is considered to have completely touched her bottom line.

"Caleb." Emma looked at Caleb with aggravation.

No words, tears falling down her face, now even if she didn't say anything, Caleb already understood everything.

"How can you?" He gave a fierce look at Vanessa.

And the relationship that the two had only managed to ease yesterday has now sort of completely collapsed.

Vanessa was disappointed to the core with Caleb. On knowing that Caleb had made that kind of request to Alina because of Emma, it was clear that her son was hopeless.

Since this is the choice he insists on making, she will leave him alone.

"Caleb, don't blame your mother, it's me, it's me." As she said this, the person Emma's gaze was looking at was indeed Alina.

And this moment.

Caleb's gaze followed her gaze and the moment he saw Alina, the anger that was already there in his heart surged up.

"What are you doing here?" The moment he opened his mouth, his tone was full of hostility.

Obviously, the way Emma looks now, in Caleb's opinion, it's all because of Alina.

Alina's eyes flickered darkly, "What a fool."

"....."

“Stupid.” Alina said in a harsh tone.

Faced with Caleb at the moment, she directly went head on.

There was a time in her marriage when she had been enduring to this man. Now, she would not tolerate him for a moment.

And Vanessa, after seeing this misdirection by Emma, looked at Emma sharply.

“Don’t look at Alina like that, she’s just been with me, no one is hurting this woman.” Originally she didn’t bother to explain.

But watching Caleb’s anger ripple out onto Alina, she couldn’t endure it.

But it doesn’t matter what anyone says now, it’s useless.

Nowadays, Caleb won’t trust anyone here in Collins Castle anymore.

Caleb took Emma away.

And Vanessa did not come back to her senses for a long, long time, apparently being furious.

“Mum.”

Julia held Vanessa in distress.

It is clear that what this is really like today.

Neither of them expected that things would come to this.

Before, there was still a slight chance, but now, not only would he not trust Alina, he would not trust anyone in Collins Castle either.

Because of Emma, he lost his family.

Alina didn’t know how she got out of Collins Castle. After Chester knew the news, he took her directly to Waterside Villa.

After drinking two large glasses of water, Alina’s heart was only slightly smoother.

“You didn’t see that scene then, she really is crazy.” In order to marry Caleb, Emma really doesn’t care about anything.

The average person can’t really do such a thing, can they?

“Well, don’t think about it.” Caleb looked at her and said.

Obviously, this tactic was enough before, and this time, Emma shocked everyone.
