

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 301

Alina looked at Chester, "Why don't you believe Emma?"

Caleb and Chester arrived one after another, Chester saw what was going on at that time.

Caleb was angry back then.

Emma in Caleb's heart is really important.

"He is all these years have been blinded, can not see anything."

"Then have you seen clearly?" Alina looked at Chester.

Chester, "I haven't been blinded since."

Ever since she and Caleb really divorced, this was a complete freedom for her.

So, now whatever choice she has for her future is her freedom.

Alina wanted to dodged something, but Chester did not give her a chance to hide.

He stepped forward and cupped Alina's face, "Alina."

When there was nowhere to hide, Alina's face turned even flushing.

Underneath her eyes, there were tears.

Such tears even made the man's heart tremble fiercely.

"Give me some time."

Obviously, right now, Alina did not want to bring up these things, after all, she had only ended with Caleb.

And her words meant a very big relief and progress for Chester.

"Okay."

His tone was more gentle.

But speaking of Emma.

"She is really capable."

“Yeah.”

Chester was very serious.

Right now, for that wedding between Emma and Caleb, the biggest obstacle was the Collins family.

And Emma went so far as to break up Caleb’s relationship with the Collins family in such a way.

“You can stay over here for the next two days.” Chester said.

Caleb had always been a paranoid man.

To put it plainly, he was unreasonable.

At this time, now he would definitely blame it on Alina.

In Werland Villa.

When Lois saw Emma, her heart ached, but she still resisted the urge to go forward and just asked symbolically, “Why do you hurt like this?”

“Have the doctor come.”

In fact, at this time, nothing mattered to Caleb, all he had seen was this group of people making things difficult for Emma, including his mother..

The doctor came over and treated Emma’s external injuries, after all, it was all caused by a slap, it was nothing serious.

“How do you feel now?” Caleb looked at her, and his tone was all a bit gentler.

Emma, “I’m fine.”

“Emma.”

Caleb looked at her with an even more serious look, yet Emma turned her head to the side, unwilling to say anything more.

Caleb originally wanted to ask something, but when he saw Emma’s appearance, he could only swallow all the words that were on his lips.

Obviously, nothing could be asked at this time.

“Then you should rest well.” Seeing that Emma was unwilling to say anything, Caleb got up, turned around and left the room.

Seeing him and those people from the Collins family, she would know that this matter of hers was a complete done deal.

Lois came in.

“How did you get hurt like this?”

“How can it be real if I don’t get hurt?”

Her brain was still hurting badly, apparently Vanessa used great force, hitting her so hard that her brain was hurting.

She even wondered if she had a concussion.

“But how come Master Caleb still has this attitude?” It was cold, not like he was feeling sorry for Emma.

Everyone thought that the relationship between Caleb and Alina was a marriage, but Lois had seen it.

At that time, Caleb liked Alina and even treated her very well, taking good care of her when she was pregnant.

Before she was not pregnant, Caleb called back at the company at all times to tell the people at Werland Villa how to give Alina her meals, to benefit her development.

Although he was cold in front of people, but at least at that time, he really put Alina in his heart...

And what about Emma now?

But from the perspective of Lois, she could not understand Caleb’s attitude, since he had divorced Alina.

Not only did Lois feel this way, but in her heart, Emma had actually always felt this way too.

“I don’t know.” As she said this, Emma’s tone was a bit exasperated, obviously not knowing what to say.

Lois, “You have to know it.”

“.....”

“Especially since you’ve now fallen out with the Collins family, this next day for you won’t be easy.”

Vanessa had now been offended severely.

In that case, this next day for Emma would really not be any better.

Emma's head was hurting badly at this.

"Stop it." Emma had completely lost her patience.

Now for all this, she didn't want to face it at all.

Although things had been thoroughly laid out in front of her, just thinking about these things she was facing now made her annoyed.

"I am going to marry Caleb, that's enough." After thinking about it, Emma uttered.

When Lois heard Emma said so, her heart thumped even more.

"Marriage is a matter for two people." Before marriage, people seem to think of things in a very simple way.

And after marriage, things can be really different.

There was so much to face in this future.

Caleb could fall out with the Collins family for Emma, but it would be different after a long time.

And Lois didn't expect Emma to use such a way.

"With this fall, your leg injury is more serious, right?" Lois looked at Emma's leg with worry.

Talking about legs.

Her leg seemed to be hurting more now too, and she could hear the bones rattling when she fell.

"It's alright." Emma said.
