

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 302

Speaking of her legs and fingers, this was actually a chance for her to stand up later, as long as she had surgery.

However, the only person who could operate and do so successfully, was Andre's brother Brooklyn.

And because of Alina, Brooklyn would naturally not operate on her.

Emma's heart became even more hateful.

All her misfortunes were caused by Alina, yet it was just a matter of asking someone to operate on her, Alina did not help.

Outsiders say Alina is as kind as an angel, but how dirty and vicious is she inside?

After Caleb left Werland Villa, he went straight to Mulherd Manor, however, when he arrived at Mulherd Manor, there was no sign of Alina.

He was already angry, and after asking Tomas to check where exactly Alina was, when he heard that she had been taken away directly by Chester after leaving Collins Castle.

She was now in the Waterside Villa.

All over his body, there was a dangerous hostile aura.

"Alina!" The moment he hung up the phone, there was danger all over his body.

She, even if she was really over with him, had stirred up his world into a mess.

And she was dashing off alone?

His hatred is immense.

Now, Caleb wanted to break Alina into pieces, and felt that this woman was simply abominable.

.....

Caleb came back to the Collins Castle.

Obviously, he was really angry about today's incident.

What he didn't expect was that Vanessa was now furious and had no intention of seeing him.

“Master Caleb, madam is very angry and said that...” The butler paused in his tone and looked at Caleb apprehensively.

Caleb was angry, and ignored the butler.

What else could these people not do for Alina?

“What?” He spat out icily.

He wanted to see what these people from Collins Castle could do for Alina.

He and Emma were about to get married, and they used such a way to obstruct it?

What a good tactic.

Caleb had thought since he was young that his family was different from other mansions, that their family didn’t have those so-called dark fights.

But now it seems that it is not the case.

“Madam has said that you don’t have to come back in the future.” The butler finished with trepidation, cold sweat already breaking out on his spine.

Caleb’s world completely collapsed.

No need to come back?

So, they actually did such a thing for Alina?

He had always been a shrewd and sharp person, and analyzed everything clearly in terms of interests and what not.

But now he had his own suspicions about their treatment of Alina.

Just as they had suspected before, was it that Alina was his mother’s child? And he was not at all.

From their attitude towards Alina, he really had to be suspicious.

Whether at Mulherd Manor or at Collins Castle, Caleb had no place to vent his anger and eventually went to the company.

Tomas came in.

He looked at Caleb who carried hostility, "Sir."

"How is it going in Shirling?" Tomas had handed in the materials, the authorities will obviously take action.

However, when talking about this matter, Tomas's eyes were full of apprehension.

Obviously, he had already gotten the relevant information, and before Caleb came back, he had been thinking about what to say to Caleb.

Now that Caleb asked, Tomas was nervous.

Tomas had been with Caleb for so many years, what his current face really meant, Caleb naturally knew.

"Say it."

Tomas, "Mr. Francis has been prepared for a long time, so before this, all the things on the information have been followed up."

At this, Tomas did not dare to continue.

Originally, they had wanted to warn Alina, but now they had failed.

The people over in Shirling looked at AIG in a bewildered manner.

"So, let him get away with it?"

"No, but..." Tomas didn't dare to continue.

Thinking about what the person over there said, he was shameless for Caleb.

Why make such a hysterical mess in the divorce?

It was as if it was because of Alina that things had come to such a head, which simply left no room for sophistry.

"Get out." Caleb's heart was rising and falling, his emotions were now completely out of control.

The moment Tomas heard this, he naturally did not dare to say anything further and hurriedly went out.

The moment the office door closed, Tomas heard a 'thud', something smashed on the office door.

And then there was a commotion inside.

Obviously, Caleb was furious.

The day after tomorrow was the wedding day, but now there was one thing after another, making a lot of noise and making his brains hurt.

Especially since Caleb and Alina divorced, the people around them have been having a hard time.

Alina, stayed in the Waterside Villa, and it happened that she needed Chester's help.

Although the master involved at the time is gone, but this is always someone else who knows, right? They are now trying to find out the person behind.

Although this is really a bit difficult, but for Alina, it is not a question of whether it is difficult or not.

Andre's call came in, saying that Caleb had suffered a loss.

Alina answered, "Now you can't tease him, if this continues, he'll go crazy."

Ever since she came back, this is not the first time or twice that Caleb has affected the people around.

Good thing as it is, Andre is a capable man.

Otherwise, when the time comes, he would really be suppressing and begging for mercy.

Obviously, for Alina, no matter who she admits defeat to, she will not admit defeat to Caleb.

But because of these things, for the people around her are affected, she still has some intolerance in her heart.
