

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 307

No one knew that all these years, no matter what bad things she had done, she had, in fact, always been very good to her sister.

The only one she thought about in her heart was her sister, and she knew that her sister would not understand her in this regard.

In fact, she did not ask for Hope's understanding either.

But at least, she could come to the wedding and let her know that she actually has other family in this world besides Caleb.

Hope is her own reliance.

After breakfast, Lois went out.

Alina was still at Waterside Villa, while Chester had already made progress and found out one.

"Recently, her phone always received a number calling in with a rather high repetition rate, it's from Rosy Island."

"That's pretty far away."

It was all the way on the other side of the world.

Emma lived in Ingford all year round, even went to university there, and time spent abroad was scarce for her.

So, how did she know people on an isolated island in Rosy Island?

Those who know the geography know that Rosy Island is actually an isolated island.

"So, I suspect that this person is related to those maintenance workers?"

Chester said as he looked at Alina.

And when Alina heard these words, her heart thumped even more.

"Then you check this person."

Not only this person.

Even all the accounts under this person's name.

See if these accounts had dealings with Emma, and if there were dealings, then they could be traced down the line.

"Okay."

"....."

"It will take some time, but don't worry, it will always be found out." The man touched the back of her head, the movement was so doting.

Alina nodded.

Time, was not a problem.

She could afford to wait.

The key was, now that Caleb was protecting Emma, she was worried that Caleb would notice.

She was worried that Caleb would not notice and stop it like he did last time.

Thinking about what happened last time, Alina decided in her heart that she could not let Caleb influence this matter.

"I'll go to AIG." Thinking about those, Alina got up with a determined expression.

Chester, "What are you going for?"

"He's going to marry Emma soon, so I'm going to send a big gift to him."

Alina said.

Thinking of the Cooper family that Caleb gave her last time, therefore this time Alina will not let Caleb influence her in this matter.

This time.

She would definitely send Emma to prison in one fell swoop and make her pay for everything she had done.

"Let Hector go with you." Chester was worried about Alina. She and Caleb were now at odds whenever they met.

He was worried that Caleb might hurt her.

Caleb is really like a madman.

Alina, "Okay."

She knew what Chester was worried about.

Caleb would do anything, therefore when dealing with such a crazy person, it was better to be careful on her side.

Alina brought Hector along with her and appeared at AIG, while Caleb, after taking Emma's words, was planning to go back to Werland Villa.

But to his surprise, as he was just about to leave, Alina appeared here today.

Especially after seeing Hector behind Alina, his went went gloomy.

"Heh, afraid that I'll eat you?" These words were said sarcastically.

Alina, "You've always been a shameless person, I should be on guard against you."

In her opinion, this man was not shameless.

Caleb's face turned sullen, "What about you?"

The air was silent.

Both Hector and Tomas looked at Caleb in shock, both of them could not help but sweat, this was really made crazy by Alina.

If it was before, Caleb would never have said such words.

No matter how well educated and elegant they are, once they are really pushed and torn, they will all become crazy.

Caleb had no good time recently, so he was completely nonchalant to Alina.

At hearing that, Alina raised her eyebrows.

And then she looked at Caleb, the corners of her mouth raised in a smile.

She said, "I am shameless after the divorce? What about you?"

“.....”

“While you has a mistress outside, you fooled me around? Who’s more shameless?”

Caleb was already nervous from her, and now that she was making a fuss, his brain instantly exploded.

“Is that what you came to say to me?” He had completely lost his patience.

Caleb was trying to irritate her with such words.

“Of course not.” While saying that, she fished out a document from her bag.

Handing the document to Caleb, “Take a look.”

“What is this?”

Looking at the document Alina touched out, Caleb subconsciously frowned.

Obviously, after all this time, in Caleb’s opinion, as long as it was something that Alina touched out, it must not be anything good.

Alina said, “Just take a look and you’ll see.”

Now she and Hector had almost predicted what Caleb’s reaction would be when he saw this information.

Caleb swept her with a stern glance, and eventually, he picked up the document, speedily flipping a few pages.
