

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 311

All these years.

She, all along, had been trying to find a way to marry Caleb, and no matter what had happened between them, she had tried her best to go on.

Even though this path was hard, in the middle of it, she had never thought of quitting.

However she had always thought that Caleb had to more or less consider about her, yet now...

"There's a way, there must be a way." Lois was sorry to see that Emma was so broken.

Lois had served the Collins family for so many years and naturally knew that what kind of person Caleb really was.

Once his decision is made, it is very difficult to change it even for the elders, so Lois was nobody in front of Caleb.

Obviously, things had come to this point and there was no longer any way out.

Emma said bitterly, "I want to be with him so badly, I've been in love with him for a long time now."

Once love was so ridiculous and ironic in Emma's world, she had had those feelings.

Yet in the end, they stopped because of who he was. What she wanted was definitely not some ordinary life.

She, to stand in the same position as Alina, enjoys those dazzling gazes and those luxurious lives.

Now that she had gotten all these things, why couldn't she get Caleb?

Why could she not get Caleb even if she was in the same position as Alina?

"Emma." When Emma said love, Lois' heart clenched together even more.

Without waiting for Lois to say anything, Emma said, "Or is it because, I'm from the mountains and therefore not qualified to get whatever I want?"

"....."

"No matter how hard I have worked to get to where I am now, even if..."

Even if she destroyed everything she had with her own hands, she can't be with the man she wants.

Because Caleb wanted to postpone the wedding, Emma couldn't even calm down.

All the way until two hours later.

Lois handed a cup of warm water to Emma, "Is it better now?"

"Yes."

Finally, Emma calmed down.

No matter what she was facing to now, she had to face it.

Lois sat opposite her and looked worriedly and nervously at Emma, who downed a glass of water, and the stuffy weight in her heart finally felt more comfortable.

Lois, "I know you're not feeling well in your heart, but now that things are in front of you, that's something you can't escape from."

"....."

"You have been by Master Caleb's side all these years, and I believe you know him well."

"So?" Emma couldn't help herself in the end.

So what?

"I can only resign myself to fate, right?" When saying these words, Emma was originally in pain.

At this moment, she couldn't even hide the hatred that was turning over under her eyes.

Tomorrow was the wedding, and everything still failed.

Yes, she did know what kind of person Caleb really was.

And, besides marrying Caleb, she had no other way out.

"Emma, leave the country, go to a place where no one knows you." At this moment, Lois finally calmed down.

Before though when Emma was saying all that, she knew that Emma now had no way back other than marrying Caleb.

But now, in the end, it was different.

Caleb would not marry her.

In fact, all these years, Lois had always seen clearly, but in the past two days, she was still blinded by some things.

Although she was really heartbroken for Emma, but right now, the wedding between them was really ruined.

“I’m not leaving.”

Alina wouldn’t let her go.

“Have you forgotten that Alina won’t let me go at all?”

As this, her heart clenched even more.

Emma was in a dilemma.

No matter what she does, it seems that now she can’t get rid of it, and that’s what makes people’s hearts grip the most.

Emma, “What place is there that Chester can’t find? What does Alina count for in Chester’s world during this time, as you can see.”

This is what makes people the most devastated.

Now Emma was in a dead end.

As if there was really no way out except to marry Caleb.

Lois saw it, “But Master Caleb won’t marry you, you saw that, didn’t you?”

At those words, Emma’s breathing was ragged.

It took several deep breaths to suppress the stuffy weight in her heart, “There is a way, there must be a way.”

She murmured in a soft voice.

There was a way, right?

If she really left the country at this time, really left Caleb, she was not willing to do so, she really was not willing to do so.

Why? Why should she quit?

“Lois, you have to help me.” At this moment, Emma’s eyes were full of determination as she looked at Lois.

She had to stay by Caleb.

Lois, “But what kind of entanglement is Master Caleb and Alina, you’ve seen it now.”

This is the hardest part.

Alina has been pressing them hard for this period of time, and Emma has seen it clearly.

With her pressing like this, if Emma wanted to have any way out with Caleb, it was completely impossible.

Emma, “But if I leave Ingford and leave him, Chester won’t let me go.”

At the time of hearing these words, Lois was even more bitter.

Yes.

She saw what Ingford was really like for Emma.

And all of these was set up by Alina.

In the past, Lois had always been nice to Alina, but now, there was hatred. Her tactics were very powerful.

This ordinary people really can’t be able to defeat her.

“I will go and meet Miss Hughes.”

She had been good to Alina before, and Lois wanted to take a bet.

In fact, she could see it now.

Emma was just waste time, for there was no way Caleb would marry her.

Emma, “What are you going to see her for?”

Once she heard that Lois was going to see Alina, her face changed violently.

Why could Lois so nice to Alina? It really makes Emma jealous.
