

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 54

Ayden, with such a neutral dress, really like a handsome star.

When he saw Ayden's hand on Alina's slender waist, and one hand touching her face in a flirtatious manner, Caleb's sanity was completely burned out.

He stepped forward, swung his fist and punched Ayden in the face.

"Ahhh." the girl's painful scream made everyone present look their way, but luckily there weren't many people at this time.

Caleb himself, for his part, was frozen.

That scream is from a woman?

Ayden was drunk, but now Caleb's punch has sobered her up.

Alina was being held by Ayden, and when Caleb knocked Ayden to the ground, she fell with Ayden.

Her head hit the marble floor hard, and at the moment she was more awake than Ayden.

Alina was pissed off.

"What are you doing? Are you a psycho?" As she watched Ayden being beaten, Alina was stunned.

She doesn't what the hell Caleb is so crazy about.

Of course, she was unaware of the buzz on the Internet now, and Andre clarified the fact, but Caleb had no idea about it.

After all the events of the night, Caleb was already very angry, so this punch was also riveting.

However, it was a woman.

Alina was furious, and Caleb didn't look much better.

"Hiss, that's tough." When Ayden touched the blood on the corner of her mouth, she stared at Caleb and thought that Alina was unlucky to be married to him.

"Ayden, are you okay?" Alina's eyes were filled with guilt.

Apparently, Caleb hit her, which they didn't expect.

"Don't worry, we are still friends, but only if you must divorce this man." Ayden roared in anger.

She hadn't been beaten since she was a child, her parents hadn't even touched her, and now she was beaten by her friend's husband and instantly pissed off.

Alina had a headache, "Don't worry, for the sake of our friendship, this marriage must be divorced."

A force was then transmitted to her wrist, and without waiting for her to say anything, Caleb dragged her inside.

Ayden cursed in anger, "I must see your divorce papers before I give up."

"OK, OK, don't worry. I'll let you see it tomorrow." Alina responded to Ayden as she was dragged along.

Obviously, now she is agreeing to Ayden no matter what she says, for this damn man causes so much trouble.

She didn't know what kind of madness it was that made Ayden was beaten by him.

In the elevator, as soon as the man pushed her to the cold iron wall, Alina now woke up, "Caleb, you are sick, please go to see a doctor, do not come to trouble me."

Thinking about the blood on the corner of Ayden's mouth just now, Alina's head hurts.

Just now she did not sober.

Thinking about the scene of Ayden tomorrow after sobering up, she felt that this man must be kept away, or he not only wreak havoc on her, but also on those around her.

"Yes, I am sick, badly." the man said softly. Alina did not hear it, the next moment a powerful breath completely surrounded her.

It was a night of hard times for some and anticipation for others.

Alina tossed a day, she is really tired. When she woke up in the morning, she has no idea what is going on.

When Andre's phone call came, he explained the situation, and Alina realized why Caleb had hit Ayden last night. He took Ayden as a woman.

And Ayden already let people must find out who send this photo. She could not stand the insult.

"Are you with Caleb now?" Andre on the other side of the phone asks softly.

Alina didn't want to face the issue at all, but responded, "Yes."

“Alina, you need to get less involved with him.”

“I know, I’ll get it right this time when I get back.” She also knows not to get too involved, this man is just full of fury.

Whoever gets too close to him will be hurt.

But right now she doesn’t have much time to dwell on these things with him, she only comes to Oklens once every few years.

She either meets friends or is busy with the game, where there is still time to go crazy with this man?

“Don’t worry, I’ve taken care of everything for you, just compete without worry.”

“Okay.”

Every time, as long as Andre escort, she will be able to go smoothly to the end, this time although the situation is full of mistakes.

But the good news is that Andre is behind her.

Breakfast was brought up by Tomas.

Caleb’s face still doesn’t look good, as if it was Alina’s fault for beating Ayden up last night, and Alina is even more annoyed.

“You have nothing to say to me?” Lifting the coffee in front of him and taking a sip, he said in a not-so-nice tone.

In Alina’s memory, Caleb never seemed to apologize, and even if it was his fault, he would never admit it, so he was really arrogant and annoying.

“What do you want me to say? That I’m wrong?”

But what is this tone? But it’s not half as if she thinks she is wrong.

At this point Alina really wanted to cut open Caleb’s brain and see how he could do something bad and still be so righteous.

“Wasn’t it your fault?” Alina asked rhetorically, holding back her anger.

Caleb , “So why do you think I beat her up?”

“Because you were blind and took her for a man.”

Caleb, "No."

He did not admit it.

The man raised his eyebrows at her and said, "It's because she took you to a place like that, and if you were caught on camera going to a place like that, how big the impact would be."

"Tsk, you're worrying about me? No need."

It is clear that he was wrong, and eventually he did not apologize, but said it was her fault.

Alina doesn't have time to fight with Caleb, but Ayden won't rest, and is now looking for the person who took this photo all over the internet.

The photo was taken in front of the Grimes International Hotel, so the person who took this photo was also standing in the lobby of the Grimes International Hotel at the time.

Alina looked at Caleb and said to Ayden on the phone, "I'll authorize you to pull up the surveillance in the lobby to see who it was, and then you can deal with it yourself."

"I've sent someone over there."

"Okay, I'll call the hotel surveillance department right away."

After she finished her call, Caleb continued to read his paperwork as if it had nothing to do with him.

Alina's mouth lifted in the corners of a meaningful smile, it is clear that she already has a plan.
