

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 56

Looking at the man's unpleasant face, Alina got up and looked condescendingly at the man in front of her, "Don't worry, I will definitely compete well." After saying that, she directly turned around and went into the house.

Caleb sat on the balcony, the cigarette butt directly burned to the finger, then it was thrown on the ground.

Kara came to Emma's hotel, and Emma is now too stunned by the commotion over at Ayden to make any new moves at all.

"What have you done again?" Kara's tone wasn't exactly nice, her sharp eyes were frightening.

Even though Emma has Caleb behind her, she still listens to this special assistant of hers when it comes to work.

Especially since Kara's strength is there, there is nothing to gain by offending her.

"What else can I do?" Alina is God's favored child, who would have thought that the person she took a picture of last night was Ayden, a woman.

It is said that Ayden was punched by Caleb, so she is imperative to find out the person behind the photo.

If it was really a man, then the person would now have a headache would be Alina, but it is the opposite.

Kara stroked her nails, "I understand your current mood, but those tactics of yours are too clumsy, we spend a lot of money to train you, not to let you self-destruct."

These two comments and descriptions of her are like two knives.

What's the difference between that and calling her clumsy?

"Although there is Mr. Collins' support, but we also put a lot of effort on you, so you only allow success not failure."

"You mean?"

"The comparative remarks between you and Alina all over the internet are too ferocious, Alina can't remain in this business or she will be on top of you forever."

Emma's development will inevitably be limited in many ways, which is not something Kara wants to see as a capitalist.

Once Emma got the fame, then the benefits she generated is incalculable.

Or, it would mean that all the previous efforts are wasted.

Kara's latter words made Emma's eyes flash with hatred, how could she allow Alina to be on her top forever?

"So what am I going to do now?"

"Don't do anything." Kara said in a sharp tone.

Obviously, she doesn't put on Emma's those means in her eyes.

She sent out a photo of Ayden and Alina, both famous designers in their peers, which if it turns out to be her doing, then, she will have the source of malicious competition.

"But now Ayden side is biting hard, and if I do get checked out..."

"Are you afraid now?" Kara's already bad tone sank even deeper when she heard Emma say that.

What did she think about when she was doing such a mindless thing?

Even a pig's brain would know that at that time, if she was doing such a thing in that environment, it would be easy to be found out.

Emma doesn't say anything.

With an embarrassment on her face, she looked at Kara .

Kara said, "I will go to Ayden to deal with this matter, you just participate well and don't do anything."

"Okay."

Emma didn't want to do anything further now.

Knowing that Ayden had to find out who was behind it, she didn't dare to admit it in front of Caleb, and eventually, she had to find Tomas.

Because she knew very well that once Ayden really checked her out, then she would probably lose her qualification for this competition.

So, in this situation, she couldn't care less what Caleb would think of her.

For three years, it was clear to her that Caleb would never marry her, and the Collins would never accept her.

Caleb is not going to marry her, and she can't afford to lose her career at this point.

So, in order to compete successfully, she had to ignore everything at this time.

Kara is right, Alina can't continue in this business, and she'll have plenty of options even if she's not in it.

Caleb sat in the terrace garden for a while before going in, only to find that all of Alina's luggage was missing.

"Alina." That damn woman.

Caleb was furious.

Caleb thought Alina had changed hotel, but didn't realize she had just changed room and went straight to Andre's special room.

At this moment in the room, she is on the phone with Ayden, "Do you know who just called me?"

"Emma?" Alina had already thought that even if it wasn't Emma, it would definitely be one of Emma's people.

Ayden, in fact, also thought of who it probably was.

And she's making a lot of noise to find out who's behind it, just to make Emma nervous.

"You know all about it?"

"Caleb came to me about this when your people arrived at the Grimes International Hotel."

"So you can't take it anymore? I thought it would take a long time, but now she has told Caleb?" She admires Emma's shamelessness.

Ayden knew the story of Alina and Emma, and was disgusted with Emma.

Originally, she didn't put Emma in her sights.

But this person came to door, and more importantly, caused her to be punched by Caleb.

She is a vindictive person and naturally wants to take this opportunity to show Caleb Emma's disgusting face.

"She is desperate." If she wasn't desperate, why would she turn to Caleb with such a self-defeating story?

Ayden, "What did he say?"

“Let me focus on the competition.”

“And then he gives you an account?”

According to Ayden’s idea, Emma was forced to admit her actions in front of Caleb.

It’s time for Caleb to see Emma’s true face and get away from this bitch.

“You’re overthinking it.” Alina said in a very calm tone.

Ayden on the other side of the phone did not understand, “What do you mean?”

“What he said was, I compete with peace of mind, the things will be taken care of when we go back to Ingford.”

“Harboring her?”

“Yes.”

This time, Ayden is really angry, so she was beaten for no reason, the scum still cover Emma?

Ayden’s temper was even hotter than Stella’s, and she immediately scolded Caleb on the phone for a long time.
