

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 57

Alina moved the phone away from her ear, and sure enough, she heard an angry voice on the other side of the line, "Joslan, I'm not happy until I see you divorce him."

"....."

"What kind of scum do you think you're married to? The evidence is overwhelming and he can still do such a thing as harboring a bitchy woman outside."

Alina's reaction to Ayden's phone rant was very accustomed and calm.

What could be more scummy than that when he could do something like steal blood while she were asleep?

"He's scum and completely inhuman." Alina said in a gentle voice.

"You see it?"

"Do you think I have masochistic tendencies?"

"Yes, you didn't want to live for him back then." Ayden said.

Alina was speechless.

Back then, knowing that kind of news while pregnant with her child was a bolt from the blue for her, hence doing that kind of thing.

If Brandon hadn't been so capable of getting her up, she would be a corpse right now.

In retrospect, she was stupid.

This is probably the most regrettable thing she has ever done in her life.

"So what are you going to do now?" Ayden could see that Alina didn't want to mention that incident back then.

Alina, "Compete first as he said."

"You're just going to let that bitch off the hook? I thought you wanted to disqualify her from the competition."

"You'll see, there's still things to do at the competition."

“How dare she continue to harm people?” Ayden took direct breath of cold air. Emma was at least afraid of Caleb, so the rest of the game would die down.

“What wouldn’t she dare.”

“What about you?”

“Don’t worry, I’m prepared.” Alina said carelessly.

Actually lived in Collins Castle and Caleb for two years before they were married, so she knew the Collins well.

Alina is never a person who will let people bully and oppress, it’s just a pity that Emma can’t see it.

Ayden was relieved to hear Alina say this.

Before the game, Mrs. Collins came.

“Mom.” Julia nuzzled into Vanessa’s arms, pouting.

Vanessa pushed her away, “Come on, you’re so old, you’re still acting like a kid.”

No matter what the situation is, Mrs. Collins is always cold.

She looked to Alina, “How are the preparations going?”

“Don’t worry, it’s all ready to go.” Alina replied in a fairly respectful tone.

Vanessa nodded, not unlike other mothers-in-law, she hadn’t interfered with any of Alina’s things when she was at Collins Castle.

Among many luxury families, once married they are asked to be at home, but Vanessa looks traditional and majestic.

In fact, she is very sensible.

Apart from posing as if she didn’t like Alina very much, the rest of hadn’t been too hard on her.

However, looking at her attitude now, Alina couldn’t help but mutter in her heart, she seems to have this attitude towards everyone.

Even Caleb never got a smile from her, except for Julia.

“Alina, with mom here, no one will dare to bully you anymore.” Julia was overjoyed.

Thinking about what happened in the past two days, she felt Emma is completely trying to push Alina to death.

And now when she heard Julia say this, a smile flashed in Alina's eyes.

In the evening, Alina took Mrs. Collins to dine in the restaurant of the Grimes International Hotel, which is a top-notch hotel, and the restaurant is even more luxuriously appointed.

"Alina, this is delicious."

"Have another one then." Alina laughed.

Andre has always been demanding, plus he also comes to Oklens at any time, so the hotel naturally dare not have any laxity.

Julia nodded, "Well, I want another one."

Vanessa gave Julia a doting and reproachful look, but didn't say anything after all.

Emma was previously evicted from this hotel.

If Caleb hadn't said he'd dine here tonight, she'd never have come to this hotel in her life.

However, she blanched when she accompanied Caleb to the hotel and saw Alina dining with Mrs. Collins and Julia.

Caleb looked at Alina when he saw his mother, who was with Alina at this time.

"Caleb." Emma aggressively pulled Caleb's sleeve, the tone sounded so pitiful.

It seems that Alina asked Mrs. Collins to come here on purpose.

Caleb already had such a suspicion in his mind, so now that Emma guessed the same thing, his mind is even more confirmed.

Vanessa and Alina saw Caleb, the two seemed to have a tacit agreement, took a glance and then looked away from Caleb.

"Caleb, Caleb!" Caleb can not eat.

He was already angry about Alina moving out of the room.

Now she was with his mother? What else does she want?

it seemed to Caleb that Alina would surely have something to do again, to turn his mother against him.

He left.

“What does this mean?” Julia was not happy.

He did not gree then, and put on that face, he is becoming more and more unreasonable after he was with that woman.

Julia likes Alina a lot, so naturally she sees Emma as an eyesore.

Vanessa’s eyes were displeased.

Alina, “Hurry up and eat.” She gave Julia some of her own food, and the girl, who was already a big eater, gagged at once.

But after she ate, she muttered, “Now I see that Caleb doesn’t look like the biological, Alina does.”

“Julia.” Vanessa’s tone was heavier, with a touch of seriousness.

Julia stopped talking for an instant.

Although there is some solidity to this statement, but in the outsider’s view, she and Caleb’s identity seems to have really switched over.

Subconsciously she glanced at Mrs. Collins across the table, frowned deeply, but did not find any answer in her heart.

Mrs. Collins is a woman of opinion and determination.

Afterwards, Alina personally escorted Mrs. Collins and Julia to their room, but just as they were about to enter the elevator, a force came from her wrist and dragged her straight into the security tunnel.
