

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 79

After Caleb got into his car, Emma's phone came in, "Hello."

"Caleb, Mr. Dixon's company wants to terminate my contract."

This competition would have been one of the biggest packages for Emma from Jay Dixon, and there was only one spot in the company.

But Emma ruined it

"That's your responsibility." Caleb lit a cigarette and said in an indifferent tone.

The responsibility that should be taken. What has she done? This is the spot Jay gave her for his sake.

If she seizes this opportunity, then what she will get can be imagined.

But what did she do before this game? Malicious competition? Or was it a comparison between herself and Alina?

Emma, who was on the other side of the phone, was in her apartment at the moment, and her face sank to the breaking point when she heard Caleb's cold attitude on the phone.

"Caleb, I can't lose Mr. Dixon, really, I..." This moment, her tone is all aggravation.

There is really nothing left.

After returning from Oklens, all she got was this termination agreement from the company, plus she had more malicious involvement in the part of it.

Originally, it also violated the cooperation between them, and she can't get a penny of the breach of contract.

"I still have things to do on my side, bye."

"Wait."

Before Caleb could hang up the phone, Emma called out to him sharply.

And then, apprehensively, she asked, "What do I do now?"

What is she going to do, now?

No one knows how panicky Emma really is right now. After all, no matter how exactly she came to be over the years, she put in a lot of hard work in this.

“You?” Emma could feel the sarcasm on the other side of the phone at this moment.

Caleb never used to treated her with such an attitude.

“Believe it or not, that recording really has nothing to do with me.”

From the content of that recording, Kara is completely to ruin Alina’s.

However, she was completely unaware of that when Kara did it.

But it was Kara who did it.

Although she also did a lot, but compared to Kara, she really did nothing.

Kara, however, is still in the company. Although she was demoted, at least she kept her job, but what about her? Because of Kara’s recording, her career was ruined.

The company terminated her contract, so what will be her future path?

“It doesn’t matter.” In response to her explanation, Caleb came in a nonchalant manner.

When Emma heard Caleb’s words, her heart went straight to her throat.

What does he mean?

“Caleb.”

In response to her, there was the sound of the phone hanging up.

Emma stood frozen in place, doesn’t matter? The recording was not her doing.

The company’s decision gave her the chills.

And now what chills her even more is Caleb’s attitude.

“How could you do this to me?” At this moment, Emma was full of pain.

Emma only felt the pain of her choking.

She just felt that because of Alina’s return, everything had changed. Looking at Caleb’s attitude towards her, she was really panic.

After hanging up with Emma, Caleb got a call from Jay at ef, who said, “I’ve been kind to her because of you, so can you be more discerning?”

The man on the other side of the phone didn't sound very nice, and Jay and Caleb had a good relationship.

Now it's a mess because of an Emma.

"I won't interfere with your decision." Caleb pinched his aching brow and felt nothing but pain in his brain.

The man on the other side of the phone instantly took on an angry tone, "You still want to interfere?"

All of Caleb's friends who knew about what happened three years ago felt that he had done something wrong.

Using his own wife to save a woman outside, what was he thinking at the time?

"All right, let's get this over with." Caleb doesn't want to talk about Emma's problems at all now.

"You do get over, but do you know how many resources I've thrown at her over the years? How much was lost this time?"

The company's resources are not enough to support Emma's work.

"I'll make it up to you." Caleb doesn't want to dwell on it.

Jay, however, was not a man to be dismissed, he said, "Forget about compensation, I have other demands."

"What?"

"I want Joslan Hughes."

Caleb's eyes went dark, as Jay mentioned Alina.

"You gave her to me, and I will get all this loss back tenfold." She won top three in the big world class competition.

It is clear that Alina is now famous in the industry, and she is in Ingford, so Jay has to grasp such a good resource.

Caleb's eyes flashed sharply, "Is that why you were so quick to break her contract?"

He was not even informed before the termination of his contract.

Right now, listening to this request, Caleb knows that he may not have done it out of anger.

It's Alina.

With all the fuss about this incident, many people are aware of the relationship between Alina and Emma.

Jay was really a fox in this decision.

"If it weren't for you, she can't join my company with her qualifications. How many resources have been wasted by her? And without Joslan Hughes, I don't intend to continue doing you favors."

Jay said in an arrogant tone.

He's right, these years will only be spending that kind of money on Emma because of Caleb.

But before she failed and in this exhibition, she dared to make a fuss, then if he did Caleb a favor again, his company will have to get lost.

"I want Joslan Hughes." Seeing that Caleb is not talking, Jay's attitude speaks strongly.

Caleb "She's not the one I can call the shots."

"Is she still your wife? The grapevine I got tells me you're not divorced yet."

Jay wasn't happy about it.

Caleb's brain hurts even more.

"None of her work is up to me, don't you mess around, you really want her, try it yourself."

Caleb was so annoyed that he just hung up the phone.

The air was quiet. And his world was chaos.
