

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 80

After Alina won the top three at the decennial match, there were numerous companies that wanted to sign her.

But at Andre's behest, Brandon refused one by one for Alina.

And according to Andre's intention, she started to prepare her brand, which must be launched in the shortest possible time.

Soon, Emma got the idea that Jay would be so eager to terminate her contract in order to sign Alina.

Mulherd Manor.

Alina looked at Emma, who was sitting across from her, holding her coffee cup in her left hand, "He went to Shirling that day to see Brooklyn."

"Why don't you just say that it's for you?" Alina snickered, seeing through these tactics of Emma's for a long time.

Isn't it just Caleb?

But, as she thought about it, Alina looked at Emma and said sarcastically, "Now, you don't have anything else but him, do you?"

Emma's face instantly went white.

"So, are you satisfied?" As Alina said, she had nothing left now.

They have been fighting with each other for so long, but now Alina has won, and she is the ultimate winner after all.

Whether she wants to believe it or not, things just lay out in front of her.

Emma was unwilling to give up.

But how stupid she is, she now knows what she should do most, and there is nothing to do but to hold on to Caleb.

Alina chuckled, "It doesn't matter if I'm satisfied or not, what matters is you. Is this what you want?"

"What I want?" Emma's tone carried hatred.

Alina, "Did you not make it possible for us to get to this point?"

To put it bluntly, she was in too much of a hurry to bring Alina down, to get Alina to become her stepping stone.

“You shouldn’t have come back, the fact that he used you to save me three years ago when you were pregnant says it all.” Emma looked at Alina with pain .

Alina, “It’s my freedom to be where I am, and the idea that you are is disgusting.”

Since she chose to stand against her in such a way, Emma is no longer qualified to say anything to her.

Emma’s thin lips pursed as she looked at Alina, tears glistening in her eyes.

Disgusting?

“Do you watch TV shows?” Without waiting for Emma to say anything, Alina said, “I almost forgot, we used to watch soap operas together after we finished our homework for two years.”

“Do you remember which one of us hated the most at the time?”

At that time, when they saw those opposite women, spoiling everything for the heroine, they felt that woman was so bad.

Alina, “You look like the vicious woman in the TV show at the time.”

True or false noble lady.

Before that TV series in the female match since childhood was replaced in the gentry, and finally when the real noble lady back, did bad things to do that lady.

At that time, when they just watched the drama, they also felt that woman was abominable, how could she behave like that?

“Alina!”

“You think, you’re not as bad as she is? But in my opinion, you are even worse than her.” That person was just unhappy with her identity.

And Emma grabbed it.

There is a fundamental difference between the two, but Emma doesn’t seem to want to admit it at this point.

Emma, “Who are you to say that about me? Just because you’re the daughter of the Hughes family, you look down on me.”

“Emma, you probably don’t understand one thing, do you? No one is looking down on you, you are the one looking down on yourself.”

And, “Just because I’m the daughter of the Hughes family, I don’t deserve these inexplicable retaliations from you.”

The Hughes family at that time because of them even spoke carefully, for fear of hurting them.

To put it bluntly, don’t help a person too much.

Emma looked at Alina, and the hatred in her eyes did not lessen because of Alina’s words, but grew stronger.

Finally, she just said, “I have nothing now, you leave Ingford and don’t have any more contact with Caleb.”

“Up until now, how can you say such brainless things?”

Alina looked at Emma sarcastically.

Emma stood up, the hatred and coldness in her eyes was not concealed, “Alina, I have nothing now, I just want Caleb.”

“He’s not a thing, he’s a person. Even if I had nothing to do with him, you wouldn’t necessarily want him.”

“If you were really capable, you wouldn’t have married into the Collins family three years after I left.”

The latter statement hit hard at Emma’s heart.

Alina had no found in the past three years, while Emma still had no progress between her and Caleb, that’s what’s breaking her heart.

But, “Before there was Grandpa Max, now it’s different.”

“Now? There is his mother.”

Emma’s face changed when hearing Mrs. Collins.

Looking at Alina in front of her, she was getting more and more hateful, just thinking that what kind of magic Alina was making.

It is clear that Mrs. Collins does not like Alina very much as seen by everyone, yet she insists on not accepting anyone but her.

During these three years, not only her, but others as well, came to the door to propose to Caleb when they knew Alina was gone, but Mrs. Collins didn't answer any of them.

"I want him." Emma looked at Alina and said, word by word, full of determination.

She couldn't let go of Caleb.

Without him, there was nothing left. Without Caleb, would she have to go back to the depths of the mountains?

Alina didn't bother to talk to her.

On the subject of Caleb, she was not at all interested.

"Just take him away, it's none of my business."

Emma picked up her bag and gave Alina a hateful look, but at the moment Emma turned around, she heard Alina say, "Wait."

"What else do you want?"

"Which one of you now owns the apartment in Zoe's name?"

"What do you want?"

"I hope that you will transfer it to my name as soon as possible." Alina said in an indifferent tone.

Emma turned back to Alina.

Alina, "Since you're so ungrateful, I guess you don't care for anything my mom gave your family, right?"

Her mother gave it to them at that time because she found that Emma and Hope were good girls and she felt sympathy with Zoe.

But not anymore.

After Zoe was gone, Emma acted so nastily, and Alina was going to take it back.
