

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 81

Emma, "That was given to my mother by your mother, you have no right to take it back." This is said with a bit of timidity.

It's because, when she first got close to Caleb, she needed some money to wrap herself up, so she sold the house.

So, where does she have a house to return to Alina now?

Alina laughed sarcastically, "So you're just going to have it? It's disgusting."

Emma doesn't look too good.

Eventually, she walked away.

After Emma left, Alina asked Lucy to throw away all her used things, which Lucy would have done without her explanation.

They also find Emma disgustingly bad.

"Well, Lady Alina, don't be angry, and this time she's getting what she deserves." Lucy saw it all.

So, this person is doing all the bad things, God can't stand it anymore.

Alina "I'm not angry."

Lucy let out a sigh, "Yes, not angry."

What Alina said is true, not angry, but distressed.

Things have come to this point, Emma still had no repentance.

She went to such a good university and actually had a good future, and up to now, Alina doesn't understand why on earth Emma had to go this way.

The phone vibrated, she looked at the number and found it was Collins Castle's number, she picked it up, "Hello."

"Alina, Mom asked you to come back for dinner tonight."

Going to Collins Castle?

She hadn't been too willing since Grandpa Max's death, but thought about Mrs. Collins' role in this Oklens trip, finally she agreed.

To this day, Alina still doesn't understand what kind of attitude Vanessa has towards her.

Vanessa doesn't like her.

Even Julia could feel it, and yet, with such dislike, she was helping to take care of everything.

Later, Alina then received a call from Brandon, who explained Andre's idea to Alina on the other side of the phone.

Then he added, "You have to make preparations on your side as soon as possible."

"Well, I know."

She is now famous.

But there are only a few works in hand, Brandon's intention is to come out with some series on the follow-up as soon as possible.

That's why it's important to have good works.

In fact, although Alina's fame has only risen in the past two years, she has been preparing for it since she was in her teens.

She is considered experienced.

In the evening, at Collins Castle.

On the table, most of the food was Alina's favorite food. The maid prepared a bowl of soup for Alina, "Lady Alina, this is for you. You've been working hard this time, so you need more tonic."

At that, Alina subconsciously looked at Vanessa for a moment.

And Vanessa just ate calmly.

It's the beef soup Alina likes. Why do the older generation like to stew this soup when they give people tonic?

At Shirling, Grandma Megan did the same, and so does this ex-mother-in-law.

"Thank you." Although Alina didn't like the soup too much, she still drank it obediently.

The taste is similar, light, not much flavor.

Julia suddenly thought of something and looked at Alina.

“Alina, I have a friend who is getting married, and she so wants the wedding dress you designed.”

“What?”

“I told her that you are my sister-in-law, so...” Julia was too apprehensive to say anything further.

Vanessa looked at her seriously, “Alina’s focus is not on personal customization right now.”

Julia instantly looked at Alina with bewilderment.

Alina subconsciously glanced at Vanessa.

Her former mother-in-law had broad vision.

“She’s offering a high price, Alina.”

“Okay.” Alina nodded, the price was a key.

Julia laughed instantly.

After dinner, Alina wanted to go straight back, but was dragged by Vanessa to have a cup of tea.

At the tea table, Vanessa said, “This is fruit tea.”

“Ok.”

Alina didn’t want to drink tea in the evening, especially since she had a lot of time to spare and she wanted to have a good night’s rest.

After all, it won’t be long before she’ll be busy again.

The moment Alina picked up her cup of tea, Vanessa suddenly said, “I heard you hired that girl from the Sharp family to fight for you in the divorce case?”

Alina almost choked herself.

Alina looked at Vanessa , not knowing what to say for a moment.

Vanessa, “You have the right attitude towards a broken marriage, decisive, firm and defiant of all.”

Is this a compliment or undermining?

Vanessa handed a document to Alina.

Alina, "This is?"

"Check it out."

Alina took the document, scan it. However, the more she saw the end, the more her heart popped up into her throat.

Grandpa Max had left a lot to her before.

However she didn't expect...

"The shares of the company?" The shares of the company was not only the ones Grandpa Max gave her before.

Previously, Grandpa Max gave her almost all of his personal property, yet now gave her his shares in the group too?

"When Caleb started AIG, the initial capital was invested by Max, and Max has a large share in the company, and now all of these shares have been transferred to your name."

Alina subconsciously swallowed, knowing that the Collins all have their own careers.

Her father-in-law and his sons all occupy the dominant position in their own field.

And when Grandpa Max invested in Caleb, it wasn't a lot of money. But she didn't expect Caleb to make it so big in one fell swoop.

And now those investments he made back then, naturally, grew up.

"This, I..."

"Not trying to make him get nothing from the household? Now you are the biggest shareholder of the company, with more shares than him."

Alina's brain went blank.

The news came too suddenly, she was overwhelmed by the reaction.

Before Grandpa Max gave her those properties, she would not dare to take it, but now he gave her such a large share.

"No, madam, you..." Alina was a bit confused by Vanessa.

Why does it feel like Caleb is going to be screwed?
